

Access Policy

The Ehrhorn Law Library’s primary patrons are students currently enrolled in the residential Juris Doctor program at Liberty University School of Law, as well as the faculty and staff that deliver that program. The law library provides secondary access to other patron groups. This document summarizes the level of library access provided to each group.

	Residential Law Students, Faculty, and Staff	Faculty and Students in Other Liberty University Programs	Members of the Legal Community (Attorneys, Judges)	Liberty Law Alumni, Researchers from Other Institutions
Admission to the library	Flames Pass (24 hours a day)	Flames Pass ¹ (visitor hours only)	Photo ID + Bar ID (visitor hours only)	Photo ID ² (visitor hours only)
Use of seating	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of library computers	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of wireless network	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of physical collections on site	✓	✓	✓	✓
Document scanning	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of online databases	✓	As contract terms allow	As contract terms allow	As contract terms allow
Checkout privileges: Main Stacks	✓	✓	✓ ³	✓ ³
Printing and photocopying	✓	✓	✗	✗
Checkout privileges: Reserve	✓	✗	✗	✗
Interlibrary loan services	✓	✗	✗	✗
Use of study rooms	✓	✗	✗	✗

If you have further questions regarding access to the library, please contact the Service Desk:

(434) 592-5350 | lawcirc@liberty.edu

¹ Undergraduate students may use the Ehrhorn Law Library for faculty-directed legal research assignments. Contact the library for approval before visiting.

² Alumni and researchers from other institutions should contact the library to arrange a visit.

³ Checkout privileges are available to community cardholders and to those whose institutions are members of VIVA or Atla reciprocal borrowing programs.