NUTRAMAX Scholarship Application

Award: Nutramax Laboratories Consumer Care, Inc. is a Christian-based company that focuses on researching and developing products for consumer health. Nutramax is offering a $10,000 scholarship for one student to participate in meaningful research and application. The scholarship will be applied to the recipient's second year of medical school upon successful completion of the research requirements.

Eligibility:

- Must be a full-time first year student at LUCOM to apply.
- Must be in good standing academically and professionally.
- Must demonstrate financial need as reported on the 2019-2020 FAFSA.

Additional Requirements:

- Include a statement of intention to utilize the practice of osteopathic medicine as a key component of the applicant's personal Christian ministry to patients in the United States.
- Include a 500-word essay describing, "Why Dietary Supplements are an Important Part of Osteopathic Medicine."
- Submit a resume or CV, including any previous research or scholarly activity.

Obligations:

- The recipient must commit to participate in a research elective at Nutramax Laboratories in Edgewood, Maryland during the LUCOM-designated research elective period. Housing and a daily stipend will be provided by the donor in addition to the scholarship funds described in this agreement.
- The recipient shall assign to the donor any and all intellectual property and research related to or otherwise developed during the research internship.
- The recipient will be required, as a component of the research internship, to prepare a research poster, case report, scholarly article or summative report to be presented to the College of Osteopathic Medicine as well as the Nutramax administration.
- The recipient must acknowledge and agree that the scholarship funds will be revoked if the recipient does not follow through and complete the commitments outlined above and will be responsible for repaying any resulting balance.

By completing this form, I agree to the stipulations above and certify that all the information reported is complete and correct. Because this information may affect federal aid eligibility, purposely giving false or misleading information may cause you to be fined up to $20,000.00, sent to prison or both.
