MISSION
The mission of the Liberty University School of Music is to train and equip musicians as Champions for Christ. While the School of Music has only one mission, two distinctly unique and focused purposes emerge: 1) The Center for Music and the Performing Arts – trains and equips passionate musicians as skilled performers and music education specialists; and, 2) The Center for Music and Worship – trains and equips highly skilled musicians to serve as worship practitioners and industry specialists in the evangelical community.

Center for Music and the Performing Arts

PURPOSE
The purpose of the Center for Music and the Performing Arts is to serve the School of Music by providing opportunities for musical performance, academic study and training of students in Music, Music Education, Applied Music Studies, Songwriting, Artist Development, Leadership Communications, Worship Studies, Commercial Music, and Music in World Cultures (Ethnomusicology).

The Center for Music and the Performing Arts achieves its purpose in these areas by providing comprehensive training in music for those preparing for music careers (leading to a B.M. degree) in guitar, piano, string, vocal, woodwind, brass, or percussion performance; choral or instrumental music with a music education concentration; multi-discipline areas of music strategically geared to the market place; and, a liberal arts education with a music major. In addition, the Center provides music minor curricula for those who wish to receive musical training on an elective basis.

Central to the Center’s purpose is the development of aesthetically sensitive musicians, music educators, professional songwriters, artists, music missionaries, and skilled music performers who, with their skills, knowledge, and professional attitudes, may glorify God in the world through the practice of their craft and the testimony of their lives.

The Department of Music serves the Center for Music and the Performing Arts by providing training and sequenced skill-based education in all levels of music theory, harmonic practices, aural skills, form and analysis, musicianship, conducting, composition, music history and discipline specific music literature and pedagogy courses. Performance groups affiliated with the Department of Music include the University Chorale, The Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, Percussion Ensemble, Guitar Ensembles, and Liberty University Symphony Orchestra. In addition, the department supervises undergraduate degrees in world music. This study incorporates Music and World Culture into the total music discipline and provides Liberty University music students opportunity to engage in the music of various cultures through: field experiences; ethnic ensembles; studies in ethnomusicology; and, the discovery of regional music practices around the globe.

The Department of Music Education serves the Center for Music and the Performing Arts by providing training for students preparing for career opportunities in elementary and secondary school settings. The department provides opportunity for students to learn how to apply learned principles of “Praxis methodology” to all areas of music education, supervises the practice teaching program in area elementary and secondary schools, and provides highly specialized training in voice, guitar, piano, wind, string, and percussion.

The Department of Applied Music Studies serves the Center for Music and the Performing Arts by providing training and supervision of the performance and applied music studies in the Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. Faculties serving in this department touch and influence the lives of every person doing some type of undergraduate major in music.

The Department of University Bands represents the Center for Music and the Performing Arts through the Liberty University Marching Band; the Spirit Band; the Liberty University Wind Ensemble; the University Band; and the Jazz Band. All of these performing groups represent the university in various public relation capacities, including regular performances by the University Marching Band at Liberty University football games and The Spirit Band at Liberty University basketball games.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

There are a variety of undergraduate degrees in music from which to choose, including: B.A. or B.S. in Music; five B.M. Performance degrees; five Professional Multi-Discipline B.M. degrees; two degrees in Music Education Studies; a degree in Commercial Music with two concentrations; and, the music minor. These programs of study are designed to equip graduating students to enter the market place as skilled music professionals in each of their strategic area of interest.

All music programs require the student to select a primary and secondary performance area (keyboard, non-keyboard instruments, voice, or songwriting). Students doing special studies in music education must select either the choral or instrumental music major with a concentration in music education and complete rigorous studies in elementary and secondary education.

The School of Music Student Handbook is available online to assist students in understanding every aspect of the various music programs at Liberty University.

Students are encouraged to audition for faculty members: 1) during the College for a Weekend (CFAW) activities; 2) by individual appointment throughout the school year; or 3) by sending a DVD of student performance to the School of Music offices. A music audition is not required for admission to the university, but is important for evaluation of a student’s potential for success in the pursuit of a music degree, placement for applied lessons, scholarship consideration, and for participation in one of the major ensembles or chamber groups.

All students pursuing any music degree must complete a piano proficiency exam before graduation, present a senior recital, and register attendance at a specific number of approved concerts and/or student recitals. (The number of concerts and recitals varies according to the degree emphasis. See the School of Music Student Handbook for more information.)

Commercial Music Major (B.M.)

PURPOSE
The BM in Commercial Music degree is designed to provide four essentials needed for successful development as a musician training for a career in the commercial music industry: 1) Core studies in Commercial Music Studies, including: Music Theory and Musicianship, Music Technology, and introductory Business concepts for the Commercial Musician; 2) Ensemble Experience; 3) Applied instruction on primary and secondary instruments; 4) Studies in the specialized concentrations in Jazz Studies or Film Scoring (Film and Media).

Commercial music programs have grown in influence and popularity over the past four decades. Liberty University School of Music has answered this call by designing two programs of study that will have immediate appeal to the student seeking employment in the Jazz Music Community and film industry. We believe scores of notable musicians will graduate from this program and move right into the commercial music field as composers and/or performers. Liberty University adds to this growing discipline preparation to meet the challenges of the culture with a Biblically-centered worldview.

With the establishment of the Zaki Gordon Center for Cinematic Arts, a fresh new approach to film making and industry influence has emerged. As a complement to the substantial efforts of this new film division, the School of Music has developed a degree in Commercial Music for the purpose of equipping skilled musicians to work closely with these new Christian filmmakers to produce Christian-based film that will impact the culture and the world for Christ. Many of the current film composers and studio performers have studied in this type of music program. It is our belief that our graduates will possess the same standard of skill and will bring the unique mission of Liberty University to the world through the Commercial Music field, as stage performers, studio musicians, composers, and arrangers.

The emphasis of a Commercial Music degree taught with a specifically Christian Worldview, by professors committed to sound conservative Evangelical theology sets Liberty University’s program apart, providing a significant influence in the commercial music industry.

Three strategic target audiences are served by this degree:

1. Students interested in Jazz Studies in a conservative evangelical university.

3. Students interested in a diversified, commercial approach to music.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
The student will be able to:
1. Apply traditional and commercial music principles in music literature, and

The School of Music administration and faculty leadership strongly encourage students not majoring in music to pursue the music minor. As with all music curricula experience, this encounter in music helps formalize training in the humanities and broaden the student’s experience in music performance.

The music minor curriculum does not require a senior recital, music internship or student teaching. However, all students pursuing music minors are required to register attendance at a total of 24 approved concerts and/or recitals before graduation.

Center for Music and Worship

PURPOSE
The purpose of the Center for Music and Worship is to train highly skilled musicians to serve as worship practitioners and industry specialists in the evangelical community. This is accomplished through curricula development, local church ministry, publishing and recording, artist development and empirical research.

The purpose of the Department of Music and Worship Studies is to serve the Center as an academic, training agency solely committed to the mission of equipping worship leaders and church practitioners for ministry in evangelical traditions. The Department of Music and Worship Studies is a division of the Liberty University Center for Worship that specifically provides a platform for developing curricula, teaching and interacting opportunity with students. The Department is committed to meeting academic requirements critical to successful communication and examination of the growing worship disciplines.

IAACT AND CAF MEMBERSHIP
The Department holds membership with the International Association of Artists in Christian Testimony (IAACT), a missions-sending agency based in Brentwood, Tennessee. This agency endorses young artists, music ministries, worship leaders, and support personnel for local, regional, and international artistic service. Key to their mission is partnerships with worship institutions and evangelical organizations committed to training worship personnel for full time church related ministry.

In the spring of 2006, Liberty University was granted approval to host a student chapter of Christian Artist Fellowship (CAF). This is a national organization that encourages training, mentoring, advancement, career placement, and research related to individual and group artists.

Department of Music and Worship Studies. The purpose of the Department of Music and Worship Studies is to serve the Center as an academic, training agency solely committed to the mission of equipping worship leaders and church practitioners for ministry in evangelical traditions. The Department of Music and Worship Studies is a division of the Liberty University Center for Worship that specifically provides a platform for developing curricula, teaching and interacting opportunity with students. The Department is committed to meeting academic requirements critical to successful communication and examination of the growing worship disciplines.

Department of Multi-Ethnic Music Studies. The purpose of the Department of Multi-Ethnic Music Studies is to uniquely equip students to work in a diverse global, ethnic and multi-cultural society by using the medium of music as a tool for communicating the gospel of Jesus Christ. The various programs in the department fit well with the institution’s emphasis on intercultural studies and its stated aim to “contribute to a knowledge and understanding of other cultures.”
Department of Applied Music Studies. The Department of Applied Music Studies serves the Center for Music and Worship by providing training and supervision of the performance and applied music studies in the Bachelor of Music in Music and World Cultures and the Bachelor of Science in Music and Worship. Faculties serving in this department touch and influence the lives of every person doing some type of undergraduate major in the Center for Music and Worship.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY
Programs offered by the Department of Music and Worship Studies prepare students to meet the dynamic music and ministry challenges unique to the 21st century evangelical community.

There has been significant growth in the numbers of students seeking to further their training in worship studies. Undergraduate students, preparing for one or more of the multiple roles of worship leadership, have found an abundance of job opportunities in local churches and para-church ministries in the evangelical community.

Music and Worship degree programs also prepare students to pursue graduate studies in worship at any seminary or graduate school, including the Master of Arts in Ethnomusicology, Master of Arts in Music and Worship or Master of Arts in Worship Studies offered through Liberty University School of Music.

To meet the challenges articulated above, the Department of Music and Worship Studies has designed an innovative, highly functional, practical and market-driven degree. The Bachelor of Science in Music and Worship Studies is divided into seven disciplines, including: Music Theory (14 hours); Worship Studies (12 hours); Directed Studies (6 hours); Practical Internships (5 hours); Applied Music (14 hours); Ensemble (6 hours); and the choice of a concentration or cognate based on market demand.

Students select one area of concentration/cognate from the following: Cinematic Arts; Pastoral Leadership; Worship Technology; Youth Ministry; Biblical Studies, Business, Theatre Ministries; Women's Ministries.

Career Opportunities

Today’s local churches need both music ministers and worship leaders to take charge of a multi-faceted, changing ministry. These ministries no longer require personnel exclusively equipped as musicians. Rather, they require professionals who have broad experience in worship teaching, worship training, team management and discipleship, worship evangelism, principles of marketing technology, drama and music.

Pastors seek to meet the challenge of ministry to increasingly more diverse congregations with theological integrity practical to broad ranging needs. They look for worship leaders who capture their vision and seize the opportunity to minister worship with excellence and creativity.
