

Test Description – NGRK 501

This exam requires basic translation proficiency in relation to Greek nouns, the definite article, and Indicative and non-Indicative mood verbs, participles, and infinitives. The exam includes questions on vocabulary, declining and conjugating, parsing, grammatical term definitions, and verbal functions. It also includes several sentences which must be translated. The test is in short answer formatting and contains 90 questions. Mounce's Basics of Biblical Greek (all chapters) should be consulted in preparation for this exam.