The Liberty University Wind Ensemble will be performing at ______________________ (location) on March ______ at __________ (time). The Liberty University Wind Ensemble has toured throughout the Eastern United States, from Vermont to Miami, and from St. Louis to New Orleans. The ensemble is comprised of 56 fabulous college musicians studying a variety of majors at Liberty University. This wind ensemble performs a wide variety of music that appeals to a diverse audience. Over the past five years, the Liberty University Wind Ensemble produced five CDs, “Radiant Joy,” “Ghost Train,” “High Flight,” “Mothership,” and “Frozen Cathedral,” which will be available at the concert. The length of the concert is typically one hour. The public is invited to attend. There is no charge for admission. Don't miss out on this opportunity to hear one of the finest Christian university wind ensembles in the United States [at ______________________ (location) on March ______ at __________ (time). (repeat for radio and television announcement)]

This Spring, the Liberty University Wind Ensemble will perform selections from the following repertoire in the concert:

- Cloudburst by Eric Whitacre
- American Overture by Joseph Willcox Jenkins
- Song of the Phoenix by Kevin Wilt
- Archangel Raphael Who Leaves A House Of Tobias by Masanori Taruya
- Sheltering Sky by John Mackey
- Equus by Eric Whitacre
- Scootin’ on Hardrock by David Holsinger
- How Deep The Father’s Love For Us arr. Don Marsh

The Liberty University Wind Ensemble is under the leadership of Dr. Stephen Kerr, director of bands. Dr. Kerr received his B.S. degree in Music Education from Liberty University. He holds the M.A. degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Virginia Tech. and the Ph.D. degree in Music Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.