Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty:141-85-1 (.623) (Fourth Year)

Career Record: Same

After leading his team to a school-record 42 victories in 2010, Jim Toman enters his fourth year at Liberty with the best mark of any Flames head coach over his first three years.

Since taking over the program for the 2008 season, Liberty has won 35 or more games twice and last season posted only the second 40-win campaign in the 37-year history of the program. The Flames notched a 110-66-1 record during his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

On May 2, 2010, Toman recorded his 100th career victory, as the Flames defeated Gardner-Webb, 10-7, at Worthington Stadium. The sixth coach in program history, Toman became the fastest Liberty baseball head coach to amass the milestone, passing first coach Al Worthington, by reaching his 100th win in 160 games, six fewer than Worthington.

The impressive strides made by the program have not gone unnoticed. This past November, Rivals.com cited Liberty as one being one of college baseball's top 10 rising programs.

Last season, the Flames had their best season under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th-best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Shawn Teufel became the fourth player from one of Toman's Liberty squads to be taken in the MLB Draft. The two-time Big South all-conference first team pitcher and National Pitcher of the Year Watch list member capped a strong senior campaign by being selected by the Detroit Tigers.

In 2009, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53, and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Liberty Baseball program in June 2007, after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and coached the catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 22-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. During his final years with the Gamecocks, he recruited many of the players who were members of the 2010 South Carolina National Championship team. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight straight between 2000 and 2007, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 14 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Toman was a four-year letterwinner at N.C. State from 1981-84, and served as team captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his fourth year at the helm of the Flames. During his time at Liberty, he has guided the Flames to a 141-85-1 record. He led the Flames to the best mark of any Liberty head coach over his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

Last season, the Flames had their best year under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

VCU Head Coach Paul Keyes is in his 17th year with the Rams. He enters Tuesday's game with a 568-400-1 during his tenure at VCU. He is the winningest coach in program history. Keyes has led the Rams to the NCAA tournament eight times in the past 12 seasons and has been named CAA Coach of the Year four times.

Last season, the Rams posted 34-26-1 and won the CAA tournament, earning a NCAA Regional berth in the Charlottesville, Va. regional.

All-Time Series Against VCU

Tuesday's meeting will be the 42nd contest between the Rams and Flames on the diamond. VCU holds a 28-23 advantage in the all-time series.

Earlier this season, Liberty third baseman Tyler Bream hit a two-run home run and drove in three runs and left fielder Doug Bream had three RBIs in an 11-1 Flames victory over the Rams at the Diamond in Richmond, Va., on March 29.

Last season, Liberty took both meetings between the teams. The Flames won at the Diamond on March 31, 7-4. Later in the year, Liberty won 7-6 on a Tyler Bream's two-run walk-off home at Worthington Stadium on May 18.

The Flames have won four of the five meetings between the teams during Liberty head coach Jim Toman's tenure and are 7-2 against VCU since 2005.

Over 30 Wins

With a 6-4 win at Gardner-Webb this past Saturday, Liberty had recorded 30 wins in a season for the seventh consecutive season, and each of its four years under head coach Jim Toman. Its the first time in the 38-year history of the program, the Flames have won 30 or more games seven-straight years.

Last season, the Flames posted a school-record 42-19 mark to record its sixth-straight season of 30 wins or more. It was the first time Liberty had accomplished the six-year feat. The 42 victories eclipsed the previous school standard of 40 set by the 1983 Liberty team. It was the second time in the program's history a team posted 40 or more wins in a year.

Before this current streak started, the Liberty baseball program had never won 30 or more games for four consecutive years. Previously, the Flames had posted 30 or more victories for three consecutive seasons from 2000-02.

Burning Up the Base Paths

The Flames enter the week with 106 stolen bases, the most by a Liberty team since 2002, when the Flames stole 111 bases in 59 games. Liberty's 106 stolen bases leads the Big South Conference in the category. The Flames were ranked sixth in the nation in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report, for games played through May 1.

Liberty has taken advantage of its team speed, nearly doubling its stolen base total from a year ago. The Flames have stolen 106 bases in 135 attempts this season, compared to 2010, when the Flames swiped 57 stolen bases in 80 attempts during the entire year.

Leading the way for the Flames is center fielder Ian Parmley with 25 stolen bases. The Liberty outfielder is second in the Big South and 29th nationally in the category. Parmley's 25 steals are the most by a Liberty player since 2004, when outfielder Jeremiah Boles had 31 stolen bases. In addition, Parmley has moved into a tie for ninth on the program's single season list with former Liberty shortstop Joey Monahan, who had 25 in 2002. Gary Wagner holds the school record with 46 stolen bases in 1983.

The Flames' stolen base totals are definitely a stark contrast from last season. Not only has Liberty surpassed last year's season total, but individually four Flames have more steals than outfielder Curran Redal, who led the 2010 team with a season total of 13 stolen bases. Joining Parmley is catcher Casey Rasmus, who has 18 stolen bases this season despite playing in 39 games. Rasmus is sixth in the conference in the category. Outfielder Michael Robertson and shortstop Matt Williams have also reached double-digit totals. Robertson is eighth in the conference with 15 stolen bases, while Williams has 14 steals.

Picking Up the Pace

With new bats and new rules to speed up time between innings and govern mound visits, the time Flames contests have been played in this season has seen a significant drop. So far this season, Liberty games have run an average of 2:30, compared to 2:49 at this point in 2010, an 19-minute difference.

Last season through 51 games, Liberty had already played 17 games which lasted three hours or longer, with the longest being 3:43 in a 14-13, 10 inning setback to Manhattan on March 20. This season, the Flames have had only six games go over three hours, the longest being 3:26 in a wild, come-from-behind, 14-9 victory at High Point, April 10. Liberty scored seven times in the ninth inning to erase a 9-7 deficit, en route to the win.

Baker Has Been Big

In his first season in a Liberty uniform, pitcher Garrett Baker has established himself as the workhorse of the Flames' relief corps.

The junior left-hander has made a team-leading 21 appearances, posting a 6-4 record with two saves and a 3.08 ERA in 47 1/3 innings. Of his 21 appearances, three have been starts.

In addition, Baker has struck out 39 and walked only four batters. He leads the conference with 0.68 walks allowed per nine innings and was ninth nationally in last week's NCAA Division I statistical report.

Over the last four conference weekends, Baker has been the first pitcher summoned from the Liberty bullpen in seven of the 12 games, recording a 3-1 record and two saves with a 0.51 ERA in 17 2/3 innings. He has struck out 15 batters and walked one, holding opponents to a .161 batting average over the stretch. For the year, Baker has allowed only six of 26 inherited runners to score.

Williams Moves Up on Career 2Bs List

Shortstop Matt Williams continues to climb the school's Top 10 career doubles list. With 15 doubles on the year, Williams now has 49 two-base hits in his career, tying former Liberty standout Jason Benham (1995-98) for sixth place on the all-time list.

Former Liberty outfielder Phillip Laurent (2003-06) holds the school career record for two-base hits with 68. He also set the single-season record with 27 in 2006.

Williams' Liberty teammate Tyler Bream has also moved into the Top 10 career doubles list this season. With 45 two-base hits, the Flames third baseman ranks 10th on the school's career list.

Two-HR Games Abound Over 10-Day Stretch

Three Flames hit two home runs in a game over a stretch of 10 days from April 17-26. Before the stretch, no Liberty player had connected for more than one round tripper in a game this season.

Designated hitter Justin Richardson became the first Flame to hit two home runs in a game this season in a 7-1 win over Presbyterian College during the first game of a doubleheader, April 17 at Worthington Stadium. The blasts were his first and second round trippers of the year. Richardson belted solo home runs in the fourth and sixth innings of the contest.

Catcher Jeff Jefferson followed six days later in an 8-6 victory over VMI in game one of a doubleheader at Gray-Minor Stadium in Lexington, Va., April 23. Jefferson lined a solo home run in the fifth and tied the game at 6-6 in the ninth inning with another solo home run. In the come-from-behind victory at VMI, the Flames hit five home runs, their most in a contest this season.

Outfielder Ryan Cordell became the third player with a multi-home run game April 26 at No. 2 South Carolina. The first two hits of his collegiate career, the outfielder hit round trippers in the fourth and eighth innings.

Last season, Liberty only had one multiple-home run game. Third baseman Tyler Bream hit two round trippers, including a two-run, walk-off home run in the last game of the season at Worthington Stadium, a 7-6 victory over VCU on May 18, 2010.

Casey Rasmus - Base Cop

Flames catcher Casey Rasmus has been tough on base stealers this season. The junior begins the weekend having thrown out 43% (17-of-40) of would-be base stealers in 39 games.

He is third in the Big South in runners caught stealing despite having his playing time curtailed due to injury.

Flames Sweep Doubleheader and Series

Liberty took both games of a doubleheader, 3-0 and 15-3, May 7 to complete a sweep of a Big South three-game series with UNC Asheville at Worthington Stadium.

In game one, Steven Evans pitched the first complete-game shutout of his career. The left-hander scattered four hits and struck out eight batters in the contest. Center fielder Ian Parmley went 3-for-3 with two doubles, driving in a run and scoring a run.

In game two, right fielder Michael Robertson went 5-for-5 with three doubles and first baseman Austin Taylor had three hits, including a home run, as the Liberty Flames defeated the UNC Asheville Bulldogs, 15-3.

Robertson had five hits in a contest for the first time in his career at Liberty. The right fielder scored three times and also drove in two runs.

Taylor plated three runs with his three hits and also scored three times in the game. His two-out solo home run in the fourth inning tied him with shortstop Matt Williams for the team lead with six round trippers.

Keegan Linza picked up his eighth win on the year, allowing one run on two hits over six innings.

Williams Hits Second Walk-off HR in Seven Days

A two-run home run by Liberty shortstop Matt Williams capped a three-run, ninth inning rally, propelling the Flames past the UNC Asheville Bulldogs, 3-2, May 5 in a Big South contest at Worthington Stadium.

The Williams round tripper was his second walk-off home run in seven days. On April 29 at Worthington Stadium, the shortstop ripped the first pitch he saw leading off the 12th inning into the left field bullpen for a 3-2 win over the Le Moyne Dolphins.

Trailing 2-0 and held to three hits, Liberty reversed its fortunes in the ninth inning. Center fielder Ian Parmley, who was 3-for-3 in the game, led off the inning by beating out a grounder deep in the hole between shortstop and third base for a hit. After Parmley advanced to third base on an errant throw by Dull on a pickoff attempt, right fielder Michael Robertson laced a liner into the left field corner for a double, plating Parmley. Williams followed by ripping his sixth home run of the season over the left center field wall for the victory.

Left-hander Garrett Baker moved to 6-3 on the season, pitching 2 1/3 innings of scoreless relief. He struck out two batters and walked one. After being summoned from the bullpen in the seventh inning, Baker struck out the next batter with the bases loaded and two out to end the scoring threat.

Doug Bream Receives National, Conference Honors

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) named Liberty senior outfielder Doug Bream and Clemson junior shortstop Brad Miller National Co-Hitters of the Week, April 12. The Flames outfielder was also selected to the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Line-Up, as well as being named the Southeast Regional Player of the Week by CollegeBaseballInsider.com and the Big South Player of the Week for games played through April 10.

During the week, Bream batted .737 (14-19) with six runs scored, eight RBIs, two doubles, one triple and two walks in four games. The senior had four or more hits in three of the games, including a 5-5 day in a midweek contest with James Madison on April 6.

After picking up a hit and RBI at High Point on April 8, Bream had four hits in each of Liberty's weekend wins over the Panthers. The outfielder went 4-for-5 and drove in four runs in 9-0 win on April 9 and was 4-for-5 with a double and three RBIs in Liberty's 14-9 victory on April 10.

He finished the week with a .762 on-base percentage and a .947 slugging percentage.

Beakler's Effort Highlights Wins Against UNO

Liberty took two games from the New Orleans Privateers at Worthington Stadium during the Liberty Tournament, April 30-May 1. The Flames won April 30, 3-2, and May 1, 5-2.

Right-hander Dane Beakler's effort was the key to Liberty's win on April 30. Making his first start since May 16, 2006, Beakler recorded the first complete game of his career. The senior right-hander allowed two runs, one earned, on seven hits over the full nine innings. He struck out eight and did not walk a batter. After New Orleans tied the game in the fifth inning, the right-hander did not allow a runner to reach base, retiring the last 14 batters to face him in the contest.

First baseman Austin Taylor hit his fifth home run of the year to break a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning in the 3-2 win.

On May 1, left fielder Ryan Cordell and third baseman Zack Haley each had three hits, leading the Liberty Flames to a 5-2 victory. Cordell had three hits in a game for the first time as a collegian. The left fielder went 3-for-3 in the contest, scoring twice. Haley matched his teammate by going 3-for-3 and plating two runs.

Blake Forslund recorded his first victory with four scoreless innings, while reliever Jacob Kemmerer followed with four scoreless frames in the victory.

Williams and Linza Push Flames Past Le Moyne

Shortstop Matt Williams hit a home run leading off the 12th inning to propel the Liberty Flames past the Le Moyne Dolphins, 3-2, April 29 in the second game of the Liberty Tournament at Worthington Stadium.

With the score tied 2-2 in the bottom of the 12th inning, Williams belted the first offering from Dolphin pitcher Ed Kohout over the left field wall for the 3-2 victory. The home run was the shortstop's team-leading fifth of the year.

Liberty starter Steven Evans did not figure in the decision. However, he moved into second place in the school's strikeout list with eight strikeouts in the game. The left-hander has 244 career strikeouts. Mike Brown holds the Liberty career mark with 287 strikeouts from 1994-97.

Mark Swanson recorded the win to move to 2-1 on the year. The senior right-hander pitched four scoreless innings of relief, allowing three hits. He struck out two and did not walk a batter.

Two days later, right-hander Keegan Linza capped a 4-0 weekend with a complete game, leading the Flames to a 5-1 win over the Le Moyne Dolphins at Worthington Stadium in the final game of the Liberty Tournament.

Flames Take Two From VMI

The Liberty Flames rallied with three runs in the ninth inning and catcher Jeff Jefferson hit two home runs, downing the VMI Keydets, 8-6, in the first game of a doubleheader, April 23 at Gray-Minor Stadium. The win enabled the Flames to take the first two games of a three-game Big South series with the Keydets.

Liberty hit five home runs in the contest, the most by the Flames this season. Liberty had previously hit three round trippers in a game in a 7-1 win over Presbyterian College in the first game of a doubleheader on April 17.

Trailing 6-5, the Flames plated three runs in the top of the ninth to take an 8-6 lead. With one out, catcher Jeff Jefferson belted his second home run of the game and fourth of the year to left field, tying the contest at 6-6. Second baseman Zack Haley followed with a home run inside the left field foul pole, putting Liberty on top for the second time in the game, 7-6. Right fielder Michael Robertson singled to right field to plate center fielder Ian Parmley, who had reached on a double, for an 8-6 advantage.

Reliever Garrett Baker retired the side in order in the bottom of the ninth to close out the victory. It was his second victory in two days. The win was Liberty's seventh consecutive victory in Big South play.

Locked in a pitcher's duel the night before, Robertson beat out a two-out, infield single to score the go-ahead run as the Flames defeated the VMI Keydets, 3-2, in the opening contest of the series.

Tied at 2-2, Liberty pushed across a run to break the deadlock in the top of the eighth inning. With two outs and runners on second and third, Robertson beat out a chopper behind the mound for an infield single, to score a run for a 3-2 edge.

Baker held VMI in check in both the eighth and ninth innings to close out the Liberty victory.

Liberty Sweeps PC

The Liberty Flames jumped out to a 5-1 lead through the first three innings of game two and never looked back, defeating the Presbyterian College Blue Hose, 5-2, to complete a sweep of a doubleheader, April 17 at Worthington Stadium and the three-game Big South series between the two teams.

In the game two of the twinbill, Liberty totaled 13 hits. Matt Williams, Doug Bream, Austin Taylor, Justin Richardson and Jeff Jefferson had two hits apiece for the Flames.

Pitcher Keegan Linza moved to 6-2 on the year, yielding two runs, both unearned, on seven hits over the first 5 1/3 innings. Garrett Baker earned his second save of the season. The junior threw 3 2/3 innings of scoreless relief, giving up three hits and striking out two batters.

In game one, Richardson belted a career-high two home runs and Bream added another round tripper, powering the Flames past the Blue Hose, 7-1. It is the first time this season, the Flames have hit three home runs in a game. In addition, Richardson became the first Liberty player to hit more than one round tripper in a contest this season.

Bream hit his first home run of the season in the third inning, while designated hitter Richardson hit his first home run leading off the fourth. The Liberty designated hitter hit his second solo home run of the game in the sixth.

Liberty starter Steven Evans moved to 4-3 on the season, allowing one run on six hits over seven innings. Jacob Kemmerer and Mark Swanson pitched scoreless innings to close out the win.

After the visiting Presbyterian College Blue Hose took a lead in the top of the seventh, Liberty struck for three runs in the bottom of the inning, en route to a 6-5 victory, the night before in the opening game of the series on April 15.

Liberty had nine hits in the contest. The Flames' three, four and five hitters each had two hits, as Williams, Doug Bream and Tyler Bream had a pair of hits apiece. Second baseman Zack Haley also had two hits for Liberty. Doug Bream drove in three runs for the Flames.

Flames Take Series From High Point with Big Ninth

Down by two runs, the Liberty Flames erupted for seven runs in the ninth inning for a 14-9 victory over the High Point Panthers, April 10, in a Big South Conference contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium. With the win, the Flames took the weekend series.

Trailing 9-7, Liberty pounced on High Point relief pitching, batting around in the top of the ninth inning to take the lead. The Flames scored seven runs on seven hits and an error to erase the host team's edge.

Liberty had 19 hits in the game. For the second consecutive day, outfielder Doug Bream had four hits to lead all players in the contest. The Liberty left fielder hit .643 during the three-game series against the Panthers. Center fielder Ian Parmley, right fielder Michael Robertson and shortstop Matt Williams each had three hits apiece for the Flames.

Reliever Mark Swanson evened his record at 1-1 on the year. After entering the contest with runners on second and third base and no one out, the senior right-hander kept the Flames close, pitching 3 1/3 scoreless innings of relief.

Niggli Delivers

Liberty right-hander John Niggli held High Point in check over eight innings, as the Flames downed the Panthers, 9-0, April 9 in a Big South contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium.

Niggli was in control throughout the first eight innings of the contest, scattering three hits. Complete Games Highlight Sweep

Each of Liberty's starting pitchers of its three-game Big South series pitched a complete game, keying a sweep of the Charleston Southern Buccaneers in the first conference series of the year, March 18-20.

After allowing a combined four runs the previous week at the Keith LeClair Classic, Liberty starters, Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans once again turned the trick, holding the Buccaneers to four runs over the entire three-game series.

Linza got things started, March 18 in the series opener. The senior right-hander outdueled his Charleston Southern counterpart, going the distance in his second consecutive outing in a 2-1 win.

Linza allowed one run on eight hits, striking out a career-high 10 to run his record to 4-0 on the year.

Niggli followed-up with a gem of his own on March 19. The junior right-hander threw his first complete game in a Liberty uniform in a 5-1 victory. Niggli gave up one run on five hits, striking out four. From the third inning on, the junior dominated, not allowing a Charleston Southern hit until a two-out infield single in the ninth inning. During the stretch, the Liberty right-hander allowed only two runners to reach, on a walk in the fifth and another walk in the sixth inning.

The next afternoon, Evans made it three consecutive complete games, pitching his first of the season and the fifth of his career in a 5-2 victory over the Buccaneers. He allowed two runs on six hits, fanning 12 to set a new career-high and walked one.

Baker Comes Up Big at Maryland

A strong relief appearance by Garrett Baker and seven extra base hits propelled the Liberty Flames past the Maryland Terrapins, 11-4, March 15 at Smith Stadium in College Park, Md.

Baker entered the contest with the bases loaded, no one out and one run already in for Maryland in the first inning and quickly restored order in the contest. The junior allowed only an unearned run, scattering three hits over eight effective innings. The left-hander struck out five and walked none, running his record to 2-0. He retired seven consecutive batters from the second through the fourth inning and later, finished his outing by setting down 12 Terrapins in order.

Despite trailing 3-0 after one inning, the Flames answered with four runs in the third inning to take a lead they never relinquished. In the frame, second baseman Zack Haley and first baseman Jeff Jefferson hit solo home runs. For Haley, it was his first of the season, while Jefferson's round tripper was his second on the year.

Haley led all players in the contest with three hits, including two extra base hits. One of left fielder Doug Bream's two hits in the game was a bases-clearing double.

Pitchers Lead the Way at LeClair Classic

Liberty captured the 2011 Keith LeClair Classic in Greenville, N.C., March 11-13 with a 3-0 record. Keying the title run were the efforts of Flames starting pitchers Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans.

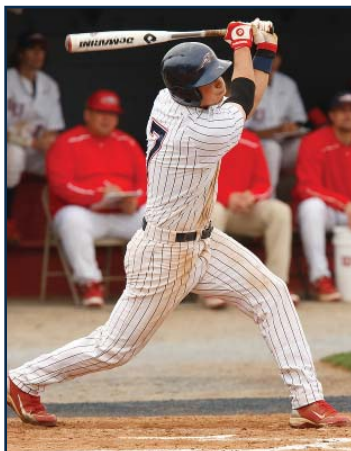

Linza got things started on March 11, firing the first complete game of the season by a Liberty starting pitcher in a 5-2 victory over Rutgers. The senior right-hander allowed two runs on seven hits, striking out five and not walking a Scarlet Knight batter.

Matt Williams

Doug Bream

Michael Robertson

Linza retired the first 10 Scarlet Knight batters to face him in the contest and did not allow a runner past second base until the seventh inning, when Rutgers scored its first run of the contest. With the win, he runs his record to 3-0 on the year.

The following day, right-hander John Niggli pitched seven strong innings to pick up his second victory of the year in a 4-3 win over Monmouth. The junior gave up two runs on six hits, striking out one and walking none over the first seven innings, before being relieved by Garrett Baker. He followed with 1 2/3 innings of relief, allowing a run on one hit. J.J. McLeod faced one batter, getting the final out of the contest to earn his first save of the year.

Leading the way during the series was catcher Casey Rasmus, who hit .545 and tied for the team-high in hits with six. The junior ripped his first home run of the season and scored four times during the three-game series.

Third baseman Tyler Bream and shortstop Matt Williams also had six hits during the weekend series. Williams hit his first round tripper of the year and had a double and triple among his hits.

In addition, infielders Austin Taylor and Justin Sizemore helped power the Liberty offense with big offensive weekends. Connections - Part I

Three Liberty Flames, catcher Casey Rasmus, third baseman Tyler Bream and infielder Austin Taylor, each have connections to Major League Baseball through family members.

Rasmus, a junior, is in his first season as a member of the Liberty roster. His brother Colby is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and enters his third season as an outfielder with the team in 2011.

Bream, also a junior, is the son of former major leaguer Sid Bream. Sid Bream, a Liberty standout during his collegiate days, played 12 seasons in the majors (1983-94) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates, Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.

Taylor, a senior, is the nephew of former major leaguer Bill Taylor. Bill Taylor spent parts of eight seasons with the Oakland A's, New York Mets and Tampa Bay Rays.

Connections - Part II

Three Flames are carrying on a family tradition, as a member of their family formerly played baseball at Liberty.

First baseman/outfielder Doug Bream's uncle Dave was a member of the Liberty baseball program from 1982-85.

Third baseman Tyler Bream's father, Sid, and two uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were members of the Flames. Sid, who went on to play in the major leagues, was a standout for Liberty on the diamond from 1979-81. The first baseman and Liberty Athletics Hall of Fame member was named a NAIA and NABC All-American in 1981, as the Flames reached the NAIA National Tournament.

Bream's uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were also members of the Flames baseball team during their college days. Dave played infield for Liberty from 1982-85, while Sheldon was an outfielder with the Flames from 1989-93. Tyler and Doug are second cousins.

Meanwhile, pitcher Garrett Baker begins his first season at Liberty. The junior left-hander's brothers, Jason and Steve, played for the Flames. Jason patrolled the outfield for the Flames from 1993-95, earning first team All-Big South honors in 1995. Steve was also an outfielder at Liberty from 1999-02. He was named to the Big South all-conference second team in 2002.
