Games 38-40 - April 22-23, 2011

LIBERTY FLAMES
(20-17, 10-5 Big South)

at

VMI KEYDETS
(19-17-1, 8-7 Big South)

Gray-Minor Stadium - Lexington, Va.

The Games

The Liberty Flames (20-17, 10-5 Big South) travel to Lexington, Va., for a three-game Big South Conference series with the VMI Keydets (19-17-1, 8-7 Big South), Friday and Saturday. The series is scheduled to get underway, Friday at Gray-Minor Stadium, the site of the 2011 Big South Baseball Championship, at 6 p.m. The series will wrap-up with a doubleheader, starting at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The Flames enter the series having won their last five Big South Conference games.

Last Time Out

The Liberty Flames saw their five-game winning streak come to an end, falling to the Tribe of William & Mary, 11-5, Tuesday evening in a non-conference game at Plumeri Park.

Liberty totaled nine hits in the contest. Shortstop Matt Williams had three hits in the contest and drove in two runs for the Flames. Right fielder Michael Robertson had two hits, both of which went for extra bases, and scored twice.

On Deck

The Flames will travel to Columbia, S.C., for a non-conference contest with the No. 2-ranked South Carolina Gamecocks, Tuesday. First pitch at Carolina Stadium is scheduled for 1 p.m.

Liberty returns home on next weekend to host the Liberty Tournament at Worthington Stadium. The New Orleans Privateers and the LeMoyne Dolphins will also participate. The tournament opens Friday at 1 p.m. with New Orleans and LeMoyne squaring off. The Flames will host LeMoyne at 7 p.m. in the second game of the day, Friday.

Following the Flames

All three games of the Liberty-VMI series may be heard LIVE at LibertyFlames.com. In addition, both games of Saturday's doubleheader may also be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM radio. Nick Pierce will handle play-by-play duties and former Flames pitcher Doug Wallace will provide commentary for the games.

Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty:130-83-1 (Fourth Year)

Career Record: Same

After leading his team to a school-record 42 victories in 2010, Jim Toman enters his fourth year at Liberty with the best mark of any Flames head coach over his first three years.

Since taking over the program for the 2008 season, Liberty has won 35 or more games twice and last season posted only the second 40-win campaign in the 37-year history of the program. The Flames notched a 110-66-1 record during his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

On May 2, 2010, Toman recorded his 100th career victory, as the Flames defeated Gardner-Webb, 10-7, at Worthington Stadium. The sixth coach in program history, Toman became the fastest Liberty baseball head coach to amass the milestone, passing first coach Al Worthington, by reaching his 100th win in 160 games, six fewer than Worthington.

The impressive strides made by the program have not gone unnoticed. This past November, Rivals.com cited Liberty as one being one of college baseball's top 10 rising programs.

Last season, the Flames had their best season under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th-best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Shawn Teufel became the fourth player from one of Toman's Liberty squads to be taken in the MLB Draft. The two-time Big South all-conference first team pitcher and National Pitcher of the Year Watch list member capped a strong senior campaign by being selected by the Detroit Tigers.

In 2009, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53, and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Liberty Baseball program in June 2007, after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and coached the catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 22-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. During his final years with the Gamecocks, he recruited many of the players who were members of the 2010 South Carolina National Championship team. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight straight between 2000 and 2007, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 14 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Toman was a four-year letterwinner at N.C. State from 1981-84, and served as team captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his fourth year at the helm of the Flames. During his time at Liberty, he has guided the Flames to a 127-82-1 record. He led the Flames to the best mark of any Liberty head coach over his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

Last season, the Flames had their best year under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

In 2009, Liberty posted the most victories in Big South Conference play with a 17-9 mark, since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames recorded an overall record of 33-21 in Toman's second year.

A 24-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State. Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 16 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina.

Marlin Ikenberry is in his eighth season at the helm of the VMI program, and is the winningest coach in the history of VMI Baseball. Ikenberry has posted a 213-206 record at his alma mater.

After finishing 18-35 in 2009, Ikenberry led the Keydets to their highest national ranking and their best start in school history in 2010. VMI started the year, 29-5, and finished the season with a 33-22 mark.

The last several years have seen Ikenberry's Keydets post four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 52 years at VMI, defeat a ranked team for five straight years and have multiple players drafted in each of the past five seasons.

In 2007, Ikenberry led the Keydets to a 34-21 record. The win total is the most in school history.

All-Time Series Against VMI

Friday's meeting between VMI and Liberty will be the 43rd meeting all-time between the two teams on the baseball diamond. Liberty holds a 31-10 advantage in the all-time series since 1976.

Over the last five years, the Flames have won 13 out of 16 contests between the two teams.

Last season, Liberty swept a three-game series from then 26th-ranked VMI at Worthington Stadium, April 16-18.

In 2009, the last time the Flames and Keydets met at Gray-Minor Stadium, Liberty took two out of three games from VMI, April 3-5. Liberty dropped the first game, 13-6, but rebounded with 9-7 and 4-3 wins to take the series.

A Look at VMI

After seeing its four-game winning streak halted by VCU, Tuesday night in Richmond, Va., VMI enters Friday night's game hoping to improve its standing in the Big South Conference. The Keydets are currently tied for fourth in the conference with Winthrop with an 8-7 record.

VMI is hitting .303 as a team and averaging 5.5 runs per game so far in 2011. Sam Roberts, the reigning Big South Player of the Week, leads the Keydets with a .392 batting average, 34 runs scored and 31 RBIs. Last week, the shortstop hit .733 (11 for 15), scored eight runs and drove in nine runs, earning national recognition by being named to College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Lineup and ECAC Player of the Week. Roberts begins the week second in the Big South with a .480 on base percentage, fourth in hitting and fifth in runs scored. He is the Keydet all-time leader with 173 runs scored and tied for second on the VMI career hit list with 258.

Designated hitter George Piccirilli and left fielder Graham Sullivan also enter the week-end with batting averages above .335. Piccirilli has a .346 average with 25 runs batted in, while Sullivan has posted a .336 average with 23 RBIs.

The VMI mound staff has a 4.75 team ERA and has held opponents to a .269 batting average. The Keydets are allowing 5.6 runs per game this season.

Friday's expected starter for VMI, Coby Cowgill, leads the pitching staff with a 2.55 ERA and a 4-0 record. He has pitched 49 1/3 innings in nine appearances.

Michael Devine, Travis Thomas and John Garrett have been the most called upon arms out of the Keydet bullpen. In 18 appearances, Devine has posted a 0-2 record with four saves and a 3.92 ERA over 20 2/3 innings, all in relief. Garrett has made 17 appearances and has a 3-2 record with a 4.07 ERA over 24 1/3 innings. Thomas has made a team-leading 19 appearances, posting a 2-1 mark with a 4.11 ERA. The right-hander has struck out 34 batters in 27 1/3 innings pitched.

Analyzing April

The Flames are 5-6 in the month of April. Liberty is scheduled to play 16 games in the month, with 12 coming against Big South opponents. The Flames have produced the longest winning and losing streaks of the season during the month. Liberty opened April by losing five straight games, before reversing the trend by winning five consecutive contests.

Since 1976, the Flames have recorded an all-time mark of 350-291-1 (.546) in April. Last season, Liberty finished the month of April with a 10-8 record. The Flames posted a 9-3 mark in Big South Conference play.

March Musings

Liberty finished the month of March with a 12-6 record. The Flames won 11 of its last 15 contests to close the month.

Liberty posted a 10-8 mark in games during March last season, including a 1-2 start to Big South Conference play. The Flames are 359-281-2 (.561) all-time during the month.

February Record

The Flames finished the month of February with a 3-5 record. Since beginning play during the month of February in 1984, Liberty has posted an all-time mark of 73-37 for a .664 winning percentage for the month.

Over the past six years, the Flames are 31-14 (.689) during the month of February, while recording a 17-8 mark under head coach Jim Toman during his four years at Liberty.

Home Sweet Home

For the past 32 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium home. It is named for program architect and the first Liberty head baseball coach, Al Worthington. Liberty has compiled an impressive 534-243-5 record at the stadium for a winning percentage of .686 since the facility's inception in 1979.

The Flames are 10-5 on the year at Worthington Stadium. Liberty posted a 19-9 record at home in 2010. The Flames are 60-29-1 at home under four-year head coach Jim Toman's guidance.

Road Rumbblings

The Flames are 10-12 away from home this season. Liberty is 8-12 in road contests and 2-0 in neutral site games. Liberty is slated to play 30 regular-season contests away from home. The Flames will square off with 27 of their opponents on their home field this season and already have met two teams, Rutgers and Monmouth, on a neutral field during the Keith LeClair Classic in Greenville, N.C., March 11-13.

The Flames went 21-10 in road contests in 2010. Liberty posted the 10th-best road mark in the nation during the year. The Flames went 18-8 in road games and 3-2 in neutral site contests during the year.

Playing Under the Lights

Liberty is 2-5 in night games this season. The Flames are scheduled to play 15 games under the stars this year. The first game of this weekend's three-game series is scheduled to be played under the lights. Last season, Liberty posted a 5-6 record in night contests.

Liberty Versus the Big South

Liberty, a 20-year member of the Big South Conference, has compiled a 276-193 (.588) record against the Big South Conference's current membership. The Flames are 10-5 in conference play this season.

Liberty finished the regular season in second place in conference play with a 19-7 record in 2010. The victory total was the most wins by a Liberty team since joining the Big South in 1992.

Get Your Running Shoes On

What a difference a year makes. So far this season, Liberty has taken advantage of its team speed, more than doubling its stolen base total from a year ago. The Flames have stolen 76 bases in 93 attempts this season, compared to 2010, when the Flames swiped only 28 bases in 44 tries through 37 games. Liberty's 76 stolen bases lead the Big South Conference in the category. The Flames are ranked seventh in the nation in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report for games played through April 17.

Leading the way for the Flames is catcher Casey Rasmus who is 17-for-18 in steal attempts this season despite playing in 30 games. He is currently third in the Big South Conference. Center fielder Ian Parmley is next on the team and ranks fourth in the Big South with 16 thefts (16-for-21).

The Flames stolen base totals are definitely a stark contrast from last season, when only outfielder Curran Redal had stolen eight bases and led the team at this point in the year. No other Flames had more than four thefts. This season, five Liberty players have seven or more base thefts. Shortstop Matt Williams joins the previously mentioned Rasmus and Parmley, with 12 stolen bases, while teammate Michael Robertson has nine thefts. Doug Bream rounds out the five with seven stolen bases.

Doug Bream Receives National, Conference Honors

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) named Liberty senior outfielder Doug Bream and Clemson junior shortstop Brad Miller National Co-Hitters of the Week, April 12. The Flames outfielder was also selected to the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Line-Up, as well as being named the Southeast Regional Player of the Week by CollegeBaseballInsider.com and the Big South Player of the Week for games played through April 10.

During the week, Bream batted .737 (14-19) with six runs scored, eight RBIs, two doubles, one triple and two walks in four games. The senior had four or more hits in three of the games, including a 5-5 day in a midweek contest with James Madison on April 6.

After picking up a hit and RBI at High Point on April 8, Bream had four hits in each of Liberty's weekend wins over the Panthers. The outfielder went 4-for-5 and drove in four runs in 9-0 win on April 9 and was 4-for-5 with a double and three RBIs in Liberty's 14-9 victory on April 10.

He finished the week with a .762 on-base percentage and a .947 slugging percentage.

Doing the Dougie

On April 6, outfielder Doug Bream had a career-high five hits in a 16-12 setback at Worthington Stadium. Bream surpassed his previous career-high of four hits in a 12-7 win over James Madison at Worthington Stadium on April 21, 2010. It is the first time a Liberty Flame has had five hits in game since outfielder Curran Redal in a 14-8 victory over High Point in game one of a Big South Conference doubleheader at Worthington Stadium on April 3, 2010. Bream went 5-for-5 in the contest and scored three runs.

Later in the week, the senior had two four-hit games in victories at High Point to close the week with a .737 batting average.

The left fielder enters Friday's contest with a .375 batting average, second only to shortstop Matt Williams among the Flames. He ranks eighth in the Big South Conference. He leads Liberty and is third in the conference with 37 RBIs.

With six multiple-hit games in his last eight, Bream is tied with Williams for the team led with 18 multi-hit contests. He also leads the team with 11 multi-RBI games. The left fielder has raised his batting average 75 points over his last eight contests.

Williams Moves Up on Career 2Bs List

Shortstop Matt Williams continues to climb the school's Top 10 career doubles list. With a two doubles over the weekend against Presbyterian College, Williams now has 47 two-base hits, moving into eighth place on the all-time list. The shortstop is one double shy of tying Liberty standout Keith Butler (2000-02) for seventh on the list.

Former Liberty outfielder Phillip Laurent (2003-06) holds the school career record for two-base hits with 68. He also set the single season record with 27 in 2006.

Williams' Liberty teammate Tyler Bream has also moved into the Top 10 career doubles list this season. With 45 two-base hits, Bream ranks 10th on the school's career list.

Evans Pitches Way into Record Book

With 49 strikeouts on the year, senior left-hander Steven Evans has moved into fourth place on Liberty's all-time strikeout list with 234. He enters the weekend seven strikeouts short of matching former Liberty left-hander David Bechtold (2002-05), who had 241, for third place on the career list. Mike Brown (1994-97) is Liberty's career strikeout leader with 287. Evans is currently tied for fourth in the Big South with 49 strikeouts this season.

Evans is also tied for fourth on the program's career wins list with 23. The senior, who has a career record of 23-10, is tied with Kevin Napier (1983-86) for fourth on the all-time list. The left-hander needs one more win to move into second on the school's career victory list with Tim Harrell (1995-98) and David Harris (1979-83). Liberty standout Lee Guetterman (1978-81) won 29 games during his career to top the Liberty all-time wins list.

In addition, the senior has moved into the Liberty career innings pitched list's Top 10 with 277 1/3 innings. Evans begins the weekend in sixth place on the program's all-time list.

A fixture of the Flames' pitching staff over the past four years, Evans has a 23-10 career record with a 3.70 ERA. The left-hander has walked 90 batters for a 2.7 to 1 strikeout to walk ratio during his career.

It is What I Like About Sunday

Too bad none of this weekend's contests will be played on Sunday. Liberty has found the day to their liking this season, posting a 7-1 in games played on Sunday. In its lone Sunday loss, Liberty was defeated 5-4 by Coastal Carolina on April 3.

In Sunday games, the Flames have outscored their opponents, 51-24, and have a .304 batting average compared to a .235 for their opponents.

Led by starter Steven Evans, who is 3-0 on Sunday this season, Liberty pitchers have posted a 2.066 ERA in their eight Sunday games.

All three Liberty starting outfielders Ian Parmley, Michael Robertson and Doug Bream, have also made the most of Sunday play. Parmley has a .391 batting average, with nine hits in 23 at bats. Robertson has hit .379 with nine RBIs and seven runs scored. The junior has hit both of his home runs this season on Sunday.

Bream has posted a .400 batting average on Sunday, with seven RBIs and six runs batted in.

Meanwhile, shortstop Matt Williams, who leads the Flames with a .385 batting average, has hit .400 on the first day of the week. The shortstop has collected 14 hits, including four doubles. Williams has five RBIs and scored four runs in his eight Sunday games.

Picking Up the Pace

With new bats and new rules to speed up time between innings and govern mound visits, the time Flames contests have been played in this season has seen a significant drop. So far this season, Liberty games have run an average of 2:32, compared to 2:49 at this point in 2010, an 17-minute difference.

Last season through 37 games, Liberty had already played 11 games which lasted three hours or longer, with the longest being 3:43 in a 14-13, 10 inning setback to Manhattan on March 20. This season, the Flames have had only four games go over three hours, the longest 3:26 in a wild, come-from-behind, 14-9 victory at High Point, April 10. Liberty scored seven times in the ninth inning to erase a 9-7 deficit, en route the win.

Are New Bats Affecting Power Numbers?

How much has the new bat affected play this season? The Flames have 50 less hits than last season through 37 games and have seen their extra base hits drop also. The Flames have 102 extra base hits - 72 doubles, eight triples and 21 home runs, so far in 2011. Liberty has a .409 slugging percentage.

In comparison at this point last season, the Flames had 26 more extra base hits or 20% more than this season. Jim Toman's 2010 club had 128 extra base hits at this point of the season - 94 doubles, eight triples and 26 home runs.

Liberty Sweeps PC

The Liberty Flames jumped out to a 5-1 lead through the first three innings of game two and never looked back, defeating the Presbyterian College Blue Hose, 5-2, to complete a sweep of both last Sunday afternoon's doubleheader at Worthington Stadium and the three-game Big South series between the two teams.

In the game two of the twinbill, Liberty totaled 13 hits. Matt Williams, Doug Bream, Austin Taylor, Justin Richardson and Jeff Jefferson had two hits apiece for the Flames.

Pitcher Keegan Linza moved to 6-2 on the year, yielding two runs, both unearned, on seven hits over the first 5 1/3 innings. Garrett Baker earned his second save of the season. The junior threw 3 2/3 innings of scoreless relief, giving up three hits and striking out two batters.

In game one, Richardson belted a career-high two home runs and Bream added another round tripper, powering the Flames past the Blue Hose, 7-1. It is the first time this season, the Flames have hit three home runs in a game. In addition, Richardson became the first Liberty player to hit more than one round tripper in a contest this season.

Bream hit his first home run of the season in the third inning, while designated hitter Richardson hit his first home run leading off the fourth. The Liberty designated hitter hit his second solo home run of the game in the sixth.

Liberty starter Steven Evans moved to 4-3 on the season, allowing one run on six hits over seven innings. Jacob Kemmerer and Mark Swanson pitched scoreless innings to close out the win.

After the visiting Presbyterian College Blue Hose took a lead in the top of the seventh, Liberty struck for three runs in the bottom of the inning, en route to a 6-5 victory, last Friday night in the opening game of the series.

Liberty had nine hits in the contest. The Flames' three, four and five hitters each had two hits, as Williams, Doug Bream and Tyler Bream had a pair of hits apiece. Second baseman Zach Haley also had two hits for Liberty. Doug Bream drove in three runs for the Flames.

Dane Beakler allowed one hit over 2/3 of an inning to pick up his first win of the year to move to 1-0. Baker pitched the final 1 1/3 innings to earn his first save of the season. He retired all four batters he faced, including inducing an inning-ending double play in the eighth inning.

Flames Take Series From High Point with Big Ninth

Down by two runs, the Liberty Flames erupted for seven runs in the ninth inning for a 14-9 victory over the High Point Panthers, April 10, in a Big South Conference contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium. With the win, the Flames took the weekend series.

Trailing 9-7, Liberty pounced on High Point relief pitching, batting around in the top of the ninth inning to take the lead. The Flames scored seven runs on seven hits and an error to erase the host team's edge.

Liberty had 19 hits in the game. For the second consecutive day, outfielder Doug Bream had four hits to lead all players in the contest. The Liberty left fielder hit .643 during the three-game series against the Panthers. Center fielder Ian Parmley, right fielder Michael Robertson and shortstop Matt Williams each had three hits apiece for the Flames.

Reliever Mark Swanson evened his record at 1-1 on the year. After entering the contest with runners on second and third base and no one out, the senior right-hander kept the Flames close, pitching 3 1/3 scoreless innings of relief.

Niggli Delivers

Liberty right-hander John Niggli held High Point in check over eight innings, as the Flames downed the Panthers, 9-0, April 9 in a Big South contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium.

Niggli was in control throughout the first eight innings of the contest, scattering three hits. He allowed only two High Point runners to move into scoring position throughout his time on the mound, before giving way to relief pitcher Jacob Kemmerer. The right-hander struck out two batters and walked one, running his record to 4-2 on the year. After allowing a hit to the leadoff batter in the fourth inning, he did not allow another hit until two outs into his final inning, the eighth.

Niggli and Kemmerer combined to pitch the second shutout by the Flames pitching staff this season.

Breams Big at VCU

Liberty third baseman Tyler Bream hit a two-run home run and drove in three runs and left fielder Doug Bream had three RBIs in an 11-1 Flames victory over the VCU Rams, March 29 at the Diamond in Richmond, Va.

Tyler Bream hit a two-run home run in the fifth inning, with Doug aboard to give the Flames a 6-1 advantage. It was one of two hits the third baseman had on the day. Doug Bream also had two hits in the game.

Catcher Cody Rasmus had three hits and scored three runs for Liberty, which had 12 hits in the game. Shortstop Matt Williams and designated hitter Marcus Grimaldi had two hits each.

Flames Take Series with Season-High in Runs

Shortstop Matt Williams drove in five runs with four hits, including one a home run, as the Liberty Flames cranked out a season-high for runs in a 16-7 victory over the Winthrop Eagles in the final game of a three-game Big South series, this March 26 at Worthington Stadium. The win allowed the Flames to take the three-game series, two games to one, and start the season 5-1 in the Big South.

In the contest, the Flames scored a season-high 16 runs, eclipsing their previous high in a 12-2 win over Binghamton on March 4. In addition, Liberty tied their season-high for hits in a contest with 20. Every member of the Liberty batting order had at least one hit in the contest.

Outfielder Michael Robertson and first baseman Jeff Jefferson each had three hits in the contest. Jefferson also scored twice and drove in three runs. Austin Taylor hit a three-run home run and drove in four runs for the Flames.

Steven Evans was the beneficiary of the Liberty scoring outburst, evening his record at 3-3 on the year. The senior allowed one run on two hits over 6 1/3 innings.

The day before, the Flames opened the series with a 5-2 win over the Eagles in game one of a doubleheader. Right-hander Keegan Linza held the Eagles in check to record his fourth complete game of his career and run his season mark to 5-0. The senior allowed two runs on nine hits, striking out five and walking two batters. It was the third consecutive start that Linza, against Rutgers, Charleston Southern and Winthrop.

Robertson went 2-for-2 with a walk, an RBI and two runs scored for the Flames. Outfielder Doug Bream added two hits and two RBIs in the game.

Complete Games Highlight Sweep

Each of Liberty's starting pitchers of its three-game Big South series pitched a complete game, keying a sweep of the Charleston Southern Buccaneers in the first conference series of the year, March 18-20.

After allowing a combined four runs the previous week at the Keith LeClair Classic, Liberty starters, Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans once again turned the trick, holding the Buccaneers to four runs over the entire three-game series.

Linza got things started, Friday. The senior right-hander outdueled his Charleston Southern counterpart, going the distance in his second consecutive outing in a 2-1 win.

Linza allowed one run on eight hits, striking out a career-high 10 to run his record to 4-0 on the year.

Niggli followed-up with a gem of his own on Saturday afternoon. The junior right-hander threw his first complete game in a Liberty uniform in a 5-1 victory. Niggli gave up one run on five hits, striking out four. From the third inning on, the junior dominated, not allowing a Charleston Southern hit until a two-out infield single in the ninth inning. During the stretch, the Liberty right-hander allowed only two runners to reach, on a walk in the fifth and another walk in the sixth inning.

On Sunday, Evans made it three consecutive complete games, pitching his first of the season and the fifth of his career in a 5-2 victory over the Buccaneers. He allowed two runs on six hits, fanning 12 to set a new career-high and walked one.

Baker Comes Up Big at Maryland

A strong relief appearance by Garrett Baker and seven extra base hits propelled the Liberty Flames past the Maryland Terrapins, 11-4, March 15 at Smith Stadium in College Park, Md.

Baker entered the contest with the bases loaded, no one out and one run already in for Maryland in the first inning and quickly restored order in the contest. The junior allowed only an unearned run, scattering three hits over eight effective innings. The left-hander struck out five and walked none, running his record to 2-0. He retired seven consecutive batters from the second through the fourth inning and later, finished his outing by setting down 12 Terrapins in order.

Despite trailing 3-0 after one inning, the Flames answered with four runs in the third inning to take a lead they never relinquished. In the frame, second baseman Zach Haley and first baseman Jeff Jefferson hit solo home runs. For Haley, it was his first of the season, while Jefferson's round tripper was his second on the year.

Haley led all players in the contest with three hits, including two extra base hits. One of left fielder Doug Bream's two hits in the game was a bases-clearing double.

Pitchers Lead the Way at LeClair Classic

Liberty captured the 2011 Keith LeClair Classic in Greenville, N.C., March 11-13 with a 3-0 record. Keying the title run were the efforts of Flames starting pitchers Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans.

Linza got things started on March 11, firing the first complete game of the season by a Liberty starting pitcher in a 5-2 victory over Rutgers. The senior right-hander allowed two runs on seven hits, striking out five and not walking a Scarlet Knight batter.

Linza retired the first 10 Scarlet Knight batters to face him in the contest and did not allow a runner past second base until the seventh inning, when Rutgers scored its first run of the contest. With the win, he runs his record to 3-0 on the year.

The following day, right-hander John Niggli pitched seven strong innings to pick up his second victory of the year in a 4-3 win over Monmouth. The junior gave up two runs on six hits, striking out one and walking none over the first seven innings, before being relieved by Garrett Baker. He followed with 1 2/3 innings of relief, allowing a run on one hit. J.J. McLeod faced one batter, getting the final out of the contest to earn his first save of the year.

Left-hander Steven Evans capped the weekend by handcuffing the host East Carolina Pirates in his longest outing of the year, propelling the Liberty Flames to a 2-0 victory, March 13. The senior left-hander held the Pirate hitters in check during his outing, scattering four hits over 7 1/3 scoreless innings to pick up his first victory of 2011. The left-hander struck out a season-high nine batters and walked three, running his record to 1-3 on the season. He retired the last eight batters he faced, before giving way to reliever Dane Beakler with one out. Beakler completed the shutout with 1 2/3 innings of scoreless relief, as Liberty claimed the title.

Flames Belt 20 in Game as Bats Come Alive vs. Binghamton

In its home opener on March 4, Liberty pounded out 20 hits, a season-high in a 12-2 win over the Bearcats in the first game of the year at Worthington Stadium. The last time the Flames had 20 or more hits in a single game since Liberty belted 21 hits in a 16-9, 10-inning victory at Presbyterian College on April 25, 2010.

The Flames hit .396 as team during the three-game series with Binghamton and averaged 9.3 runs per game.

Leading the way during the series was catcher Casey Rasmus, who hit .545 and tied for the team-high in hits with six. The junior ripped his first home run of the season and scored four times during the three-game series.

Third baseman Tyler Bream and shortstop Matt Williams also had six hits during the weekend series. Williams hit his first round tripper of the year and had a double and triple among his hits.

In addition, infielders Austin Taylor and Justin Sizemore helped power the Liberty offense with big offensive weekends. Taylor hit .444 (4/9) with a double and two home runs, driving in a team-high seven runs during the series. Sizemore belted his first home run of the year and had five RBIs for the Flames.

California Dreaming

Six 2011 Flames hail from the Golden State, the second highest number on the roster next to Liberty's home state of Virginia. Seven members of the Liberty roster are natives of Virginia. Four Flames each hail from the states of Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and Washington, while three are Pennsylvania natives. States also represented on the Liberty roster are Alabama, Arizona, New York, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Connections - Part I

Three Liberty Flames, catcher Casey Rasmus, third baseman Tyler Bream and infielder Austin Taylor, each have connections to Major League Baseball through family members.

Rasmus, a junior, is in his first season as a member of the Liberty roster. His brother Colby is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and enters his third season as an outfielder with the team in 2011.

Bream, also a junior, is the son of former major leaguer Sid Bream. Sid Bream, a Liberty standout during his collegiate days, played 12 seasons in the majors (1983-94) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates, Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.

Taylor, a senior, is the nephew of former major leaguer Bill Taylor. Bill Taylor spent parts of eight seasons with the Oakland A's, New York Mets and Tampa Bay Rays.

Connections - Part II

Three Flames are carrying on a family tradition, as a member of their family formerly played baseball at Liberty.

First baseman/outfielder Doug Bream's uncle Dave was a member of the Liberty baseball program from 1982-85.

Third baseman Tyler Bream's father, Sid, and two uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were members of the Flames. Sid, who went on to play in the major leagues, was a standout for Liberty on the diamond from 1979-81. The first baseman and Liberty Athletics Hall of Fame member was named a NAIA and NABC All-American in 1981, as the Flames reached the NAIA National Tournament.

Bream's uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were also members of the Flames baseball team during their college days. Dave played infield for Liberty from 1982-85, while Sheldon was an outfielder with the Flames from 1989-93. Tyler and Doug are second cousins.

Meanwhile, pitcher Garrett Baker begins his first season at Liberty. The junior left-hander's brothers, Jason and Steve, played for the Flames. Jason patrolled the outfield for the Flames from 1993-95, earning first team All-Big South honors in 1995. Steve was also an outfielder at Liberty from 1999-02. He was named to the Big South all-conference second team in 2002.

MLB Draft Picks Dot Roster

A trio of players, who are on the Liberty roster for 2011, have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft. Senior Austin Taylor and juniors Michael Robertson and Tony McClendon have each been selected in a Major League Draft.

Taylor, an infielder, was drafted out of Thomas County Central High School by the Cincinnati Reds in 2007. The junior college transfer was taken in the 43rd round.

Robertson was also picked in the MLB Draft by the Cincinnati Reds in 2009. The outfielder was selected in the 40th round of the draft.

McClendon, in his first year as a Flame, has been selected in two different MLB Drafts. The outfielder was taken in 2008 by the Houston Astros in the 40th round. Last year, McClendon was chosen by the Oakland A's in the 47th round.

The Captains

Seniors Jeff Jefferson, Mark Swanson and Steven Evans, along with junior Tyler Bream have been chosen as captains for the 2011 Liberty Baseball team. The four were selected by virtue of a team vote.

The Last Time

By Liberty

Back-to-Back Home Runs - Curran Redal and Doug Bream connected for back-to-back home runs to lead off the fifth inning, putting Liberty in front 8-4 over Presbyterian at Worthington Stadium, March 29, 2009. The home runs were two of the Flames' three home runs in the frame, as first baseman Trey Wimmer later hit a three-run home run. The Flames went on to defeat the Blue Hose, 14-7.

Five or More RBIs in a Game - Shortstop Matt Williams drove in five runs with four hits in a 16-7 Liberty win over the Winthrop Eagles, March 26 at Worthington Stadium. Williams had a two-run single in the fifth inning, a home run leading off the sixth and a two-run double in the seventh, as the Flames scored a season-high 16 runs.

Inside the Park Home Run - Kenneth Negron belted a liner into the right field gap which glanced off the Coastal Carolina right fielder's glove to cash in two runners at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C. on April 28, 2007. When the ball rolled all the way to the wall, the Liberty second baseman came home and scored standing up for his first home run of the season, knotting the back-and-forth contest with the No. 19 Chanticleers at 7-7. Coastal Carolina rallied in the bottom of the eighth inning to take the contest, 9-7.

Grand Slam Home Run - Trailing 9-5 in the seventh inning, catcher Errol Hollinger drove a 1-0 pitch over the left field wall at Masters Field in Boiling Springs, N.C., tying the visiting Flames with the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, April 26, 2009. Liberty was down 9-3 in the contest after six innings. The Flames later won the game in the 11th inning, 10-9, on a lead-off home run by first baseman Trey Wimmer.

Cycle - Third baseman Chad Miller hit for the cycle in his first four at bats as the Flames downed the Longwood Lancers, 8-0, April 18, 2006 in a non-conference contest at Worthington Stadium. Miller led off the home half of the first inning with a home run and in the second, drove in a run with a double to the wall off the left field wall. In the fourth, the third baseman singled and completed the cycle in the sixth inning with a triple. Miller had two RBIs and scored four runs in the contest.

No-Hitter - Dan Valentin pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against Elon on April 16, 2000, at Worthington Stadium, marking the first no-hitter by a Flames pitcher in 20 years. Valentin walked seven batters and struck out eight in the game to give Liberty a 4-0 win. This game sparked three-consecutive shutouts for Valentin, during a span of 29-consecutive scoreless innings.

Shutout - Liberty right-hander John Niggli held High Point in check over eight innings, as the Flames downed the Panthers, 9-0, Saturday afternoon in a Big South contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium. Jacob Kemmerer pitched a scoreless ninth inning, striking out the final two batters of the contest to complete the shutout. It was second blanking of an opponent by the Flames in 2011.

Triple Play - Liberty has never recorded a triple play.

By an Opponent

Back-to-Back Home Runs - Mercer catcher Travis Benn and left fielder Derrick Workman led off the third inning with back-to-back home runs during the second game of a doubleheader, Feb., 19, 2011 at Claude Smith Field in Macon, Ga. The Bears went on to take the contest from the Flames, 17-5.

Five or More RBIs in a Game - Coastal Carolina right fielder Daniel Bowman drove in six runs in a 17-1 Chanticleer victory over Liberty, April 1 at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C. Bowman had two hits, a three-run home run and a two-run single. He also brought in a run with a squeeze bunt in the contest.

Grand Slam Home Run - Binghamton third baseman Jordan Smucker connected for a grand slam in the top of the seventh inning in the first game of a doubleheader, March 5 at Worthington Stadium. In the game, the Bearcats defeated the Flames, 12-7.

No-Hitter - UNC Asheville's Jason Walker pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against the Flames on April 29, 2000, at Greenwood Field in Asheville, N.C. Walker allowed two walks and struck out four, leading the Bulldogs to a 3-0 win. The game marked the only shutout against the Flames on the season and the first no-hitter thrown against Liberty since 1992.

Shutout - North Florida pitchers Casey Medlen and Tyler Moore combined to hold Liberty to three hits, to shut out the Flames, 5-0, Feb. 25 in the opening game of a four-game series between the two teams at Harmon Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla. Medlen, the starter, allowed two hits, striking out seven and walking one in the win.

Triple Play - Leading 6-4 with a runner on first and second to open the fourth inning, Patrick Gaillard hit a line drive which High Point second baseman Dustin Hoffman caught. Hoffman then tagged second and threw quickly to first to complete the triple play. The Flames went on to win the Big South Championship game, 9-7, on May 25, 2006 at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C.
