Game No. 5 - Oct. 1, 2011

Kentucky Wesleyan
(0-4, 0-0 Great Lakes Football)

vs.

Liberty Flames
(1-3, 0-0 Big South)

Lynchburg, Va. - Williams Stadium - 7:07 p.m.

Today's Game

The Flames will close out the non-conference portion of their regular season schedule when they welcome the Panthers of Kentucky Wesleyan to Williams Stadium for the first time since the 2003 season.

Second Time Around

For the third time this season, Liberty will be squaring off against an opponent for the second time in the all-time series when hosting Kentucky Wesleyan on Saturday night. Liberty was victorious over the Panthers during the series' first meeting, posting a 47-7 victory inside of Williams Stadium on Sept. 20, 2003.

Top 25 Tumbles

Last weekend, Liberty was one of nine Top 25 FCS programs in the country to fall. No. 23 Liberty dropped a heartbreaking 27-24 decision to No. 15/16 Lehigh, which has the Flames outside of the Top 25 rankings for the first time since October of 2009.

Last Chance

Today's match-up with Kentucky Wesleyan marks Liberty's final contest before the Flames begin their quest for a fifth-straight Big South Conference title. Since Big South play started in the 2002, Liberty is 3-6 in its final tune-up before league play open. However, the Flames are 3-2 during the final game before opening league play under head coach Danny Rocco, having posted wins during their last non-conference game in 2008, 2009 and 2010.

Aerial Assault

Liberty narrowly missed tying a season high on Saturday against Lehigh, as the Flames finished the game against the Mountain Hawks with 297 passing yards. Liberty's passing game has guided the Flames offense in 2011, as the team is averaging 288.75 passing yards per game, a mark that ranks No. 14 nationally in passing offense.

Picking Off Passes

For the second time this year, Liberty finished a game with multiple interceptions, with both picks coming via a strong defensive effort by Walt Aikens against Lehigh. Liberty has intercepted five passes through four games in 2011 and currently ranks No. 18 nationally in passes intercepted.

Move Those Chains

The Flames finished the Lehigh game with a season-best eight third-down conversions, picking up a new set of downs on 8-of-16 third-down plays. Liberty has been one of the top teams in the country in terms of third-down efficiency in 2011. The Flames rank No. 5 nationally by picking up a new set of downs 50.94 percent of the time (27-of-53).

Career Day for Chris

Chris Summers had a career day against Lehigh, as the All-America wide receiver finished the game with 15 receptions for 205 receiving yards and two touchdowns. Chris Summers previous career high for receptions was 14 (against Lafayette in 2009) and 146 yards (against Ball State in 2010).

Last Time Against - Liberty 47, Kentucky Wesleyan 7

Sept. 20, 2003 - Lynchburg, Va. - Williams Stadium (6,269)

The Flames surpassed the 400 total offensive yard mark for the first of four times during the 2003 season when facing off against Kentucky Wesleyan, while holding the visiting Panthers to just 56 en route to a 47-7 home-opening victory inside Williams Stadium.

Although Liberty's offense put on quite a show during the game, it was the Flames' special teams that put Liberty on the scoreboard first.

Erick Harris blocked an attempted punt on the Kentucky Wesleyan 1-yard line, which went out the back of the end zone, giving the Flames a 2-0 lead on the safety.

On the ensuing drive, the Flames extended their lead to nine points.

Liberty marched down the field 52 yards and scored on the fifth play of the drive.

The drive-ending play was a screen pass from Gus Condon to running back Dre Barnes for 11 yards with 4:41 left in the first quarter.

Liberty would score once more during the opening 15 minutes of action.

Harris recovered a misguided snap on a punt play and returned it 15 yards on the fumble recovery to the end zone, giving Liberty a 16-0 lead.

The second quarter proved to be just like the first for the Flames.

Michael Pearson got the scoring started on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Condon just two and half minutes into the period.

After holding the Panthers to a three-and-out series on the next drive, Condon found Sam Gado open for a 34-yard touchdown pass play to finish off a quick three-play, 48-yard drive with 9:21 left before halftime.

The passing play followed two rushing attempts by Dre Barnes and gave Liberty a 30-0 lead.

Exactly four minutes later, Barnes picked up his first rushing touchdown of the season with a nine-yard scamper up the middle with 5:21 left to play in the first period.

The Flames took advantage of good field position after a Manny Rojas interception and return to the Panthers 12-yard line. The Barnes' scoring run pushed Liberty lead to a 37-0 margin.

The Flames tacked on three more points just before the intermission.

Scott Kiofsky connected on a 23-yard field goal with 33 ticks left on the clock, giving Liberty a sizeable 40-0 lead at halftime.

The Flames managed to rack up 37 first half points despite only 242 total offensive yards.

The Flames stout defensive effort during the first half of play limited the visitors to -13 total offensive yards on 29 plays.

At the break, Condon had completed 6-of-7 passing attempts for 110 yards and three scoring strikes.

Barnes carried the ball 17 times for 92 yards and one scoring burst.

Liberty keeping Kentucky Wesleyan off the scoreboard during the first 30 minutes of play was due largely to the Flames getting into the Panthers' backfield.

Liberty's defenders were able to sack Haven Mosley four times, while the quarterback was limited to 5-of-12 passing for 43 yards.

Kentucky Wesleyan broke its scoring drought late in the third quarter.

Mosley found Nathan East open on a slant pattern for a three-yard scoring strike with 33 seconds left in the period, capping off an impressive 15-play, 86-yard drive, which ate up 7:08 seconds of the clock.

The Flames pushed their advantage back to 40 points midway through the fourth quarter.

Liberty used four-consecutive rushes by Marcus Hamilton and seven-straight running plays by Ray Young to set up a four-yard quarterback sneak by J.R. Barley, who started his first career game on the day, to finish the final scoring drive of the afternoon.

The Flames rushed for a season-high 231 yards and were paced by Barnes who rushed for 92 yards on 17 carries, while finding the endzone twice.

Hamilton followed with 61 yards on 12 rushes, while Young, who saw his first career action, added 35 yards on seven carries.

Condon completed 6-of-7 passing attempts for 110 yards and threw for a career-high three touchdown passes, while Barley finished with 63 yards in a 4-for-6 performance. The Panthers' Mosley completed 11-of-22 pass attempts for 76 yards, but was picked off twice.

For the second week in a row, Lauren Williams led all Flames receivers with four catches for 60 yards, while East paced the Panthers with five receptions for 25 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, the Flames had their best showing through the early part of the season.

They held the Panthers to just 56 yards of total offense, including a new school record of -20 yards rushing, bettering the previous mark of -10 yards rushing set by Liberty's defense against Kutztown on November 16, 1991.

Seth Reichart led the Flames' defensive efforts with a team-high eight tackles, including a career-best 3.5 tackles for a loss and 2.5 sacks. Nick Vaughn followed with six stops, while Marlon Roman and Kendrick Howard each added five tackles.

On Aug. 28, 2009, during Liberty University's convocation service, Chancellor Jerry Falwell, Jr., announced plans for extensive stadium expansion at Williams Stadium and in the Vines Center, which will put Liberty's athletics facilities on par with those at the highest level of NCAA competition.

"I think these projects will take us to a higher level of competition," Falwell said. "It will put Liberty on the same level as other major universities in the state and in the region. I think it is amazing what we are accomplishing with God's help. The sky's the limit for Liberty."

Before a packed house inside the Vines Center, Falwell unveiled plans to increase Williams Stadium seating to 19,200 by the opening of the 2010 season, plus plans to add 3,000 seats inside the Vines Center.

Directly following the Flames final home against VMI on Nov. 7, 2009, Liberty began to renovate Williams Stadium, marking the first major expansion to the Flames home for football since the stadium was completed in 1989.

The first of a three-phase plan calls for the addition of 6,600 seats added to the west side of the stadium, plus a 34,000-square foot press box. The brick and glass encased, Jeffersonian-style four-story tower will house club-level seating for qualified Flames Club donors, 18 permanent luxury suites, a banquet room which can hold up to 500 people, a 1,000-seat classroom and a state-of-the-art press area.

"The expansion of Williams Stadium will have a monumental effect on Liberty University and its football program," stated Jeff Barber, Liberty's Director of Athletics. "Above all else, this shows a great commitment from the University, and when you have a commitment, a lot of wonderful things can happen."

Phase One of the plan is part of a multiphase effort to boost the stadium's seating from its current capacity of 12,000 to 30,000 over the next five years. Phases Two and Three will add a new 4,000-seat middeck for the east side of the stadium and 6,400 seats in a horseshoe-shape area surrounding the end zone in the south end of the stadium.

When all three phases are complete, the stadium will have undergone an estimated $22 million in improvements. The renovated facility will also ready the stadium for the future construction of upper decks on the west and east sides of the stadium that will bring the capacity to 60,000.

"You cannot ignore the importance of facilities in recruiting. Kids always look for nicer facilities and to be a part of a team where they feel the program is an important overall part of the University," stated Liberty Head Football Coach Danny Rocco. "Above all, I think it just shows a great commitment from our University's administration to get our program to a level of national prominence."

Falwell said the Williams Stadium expansion is keeping up with Liberty's overall growth pattern. Fall enrollment for residential studies this year is expected to reach 12,200. Liberty had just over 5,000 on-campus students just 11 years ago.

"This stadium project is a natural step for Liberty in its progression from a small Bible college to a major university," added Falwell. "That was the goal from the beginning – to be for evangelical young people what Notre Dame is to the Catholics and what Brigham Young is to the Mormons. Athletics, and football in particular, was always a big part in that vision."

"Prospective student-athletes will see Liberty as a serious contender in NCAA Division I athletics," continued Falwell. "We'll be able to better recruit the top student-athletes in every sport. Improvements like this will help us convey the message that Liberty is achieving excellence in academics and in all of our facilities and programs. I think this will provide a major boost in both our athletics and academic recruiting. My father always said, 'If it's Christian, it ought to be better.'"

Game No. 1 - N.C. State 43, No. 22/18 Liberty 21

Sept. 3, 2011 - Raleigh, N.C. - Carter-Finley Stadium (56,564)

No. 22/18 Liberty committed seven turnovers, including two during the final five minutes of the game, which broke open a close contest with N.C. State. The last two giveaways led to the Wolfpack's final 13 points in a 43-21 win over Liberty inside of Carter-Finley Stadium.

The loss is only the second season-opening setback for the Flames during the six-year tenure of head coach Danny Rocco. The first was a 33-20 loss to the BIG EAST's West Virginia to open up the 2009 campaign.

Nearly 15 minutes of football went by before either team could put a dent in the scoreboard, as N.C. State took its first lead of the evening on a 32-yard field goal by Niklas Sade.

The two teams traded a pair of possessions before the Wolfpack mounted an 11-play, 64-yard scoring drive that gave Sade, a true freshman, his first collegiate field goal.

The drive nearly started 20 yards back, as a punt by Mike Larsson was almost downed at the N.C. State one-yard line. However, the ball just trickled into the end zone to give N.C. State possession at its own 20-yard line.

Five-straight rushing plays led to four completions in a row by N.C. State quarterback Mike Glennon. A fifth-consecutive try was unsuccessful when Glennon was flushed from the pocket and had to hurry an attempt to Jay Smith to set up the field goal.

A pair of miscues early in the second quarter led to some excitement and the first Liberty lead of the evening.

A high snap to Mike Brown led to a loose ball, as the ball was stripped from Liberty's senior quarterback by Darryl Cato-Bishop and picked up by Audie Cole at the N.C. State 38-yard line.

However, Liberty quickly returned the favor and sacked Glennon on the next play. The tackle by Walt Aikens jarred the ball loose and Francis Bah picked up the free ball and returned it 32 yards to give Liberty a 7-3 edge with 13:30 left in the opening half.

The score remained the same for the next 10 minutes until an 82-yard punt return by T.J. Graham gave N.C. State a 9-7 lead with 3:38 remaining until halftime.

Liberty was forced to punt on a fourth-and-12 play at its own 35-yard line. Larsson's punt skipped over Graham's head and the senior only gained five yards before being tackled.

However, the Wolfpack were called for holding on the play and the Flames elected to retry the punt to attempt to pin N.C. State inside its 20-yard line.

Graham then took advantage of the extra opportunity, as the senior fielded the ball and quickly got to the outside. After getting one last key block around midfield, the senior found the end zone for his second career punt return and the 11th-longest in N.C. State history.

A penalty was called on the point after attempt and Sade did not find the extra chance to his liking, as the freshman missed to the right to keep the score 9-7.

Another Liberty turnover allowed the Wolfpack to extend their lead to 16-7 going into the locker room at halftime.

Following a 39-yard kickoff return by Kevin Fogg, Liberty started with possession at the N.C. State 47-yard line. After a two-yard rushing gain by Sirchauncey Holloway, Brown's attempted pass over the middle was intercepted by D.J. Green to give the home team the ball back.

Following two lengthy passing plays by Glennon, Liberty nearly made a goal line stand. But a second effort by James Washington gave the junior halfback a one-yard touchdown score, capping off a quick 10-play, 57-yard drive to extend N.C. State's margin to nine with 32 seconds left before the halftime break.

The third turnover of the game by Brown led to N.C. State's first touchdown of the second half. Trying to reach the first-down marker on a second-and-seven play, Brown was stopped one yard short by Earl Wolff. While the safety was bringing Brown to the ground, he stripped the ball loose. Brian Slay recovered the miscue and returned it 52 yards for a score. The fourth-longest fumble return in Wolfpack history pushed N.C. State's lead to 23-7 at the 8:51 mark of the third quarter.

Following a 24-yard return by Korrey Davis, Brown got to the outside for a 21-yard burst. N.C. State was whistled for a late hit out of bounds, giving the Flames the ball at the 27-yard line.

The Walter Payton candidate connection of Brown and Chris Summers then found each other for the first time in 2011. Brown lofted a ball into the end zone 27 yards downfield, giving Summers his 20th career touchdown. Following a short pass from Brown to Pat Kelly in the back left corner of the end zone, the two-point conversion pulled the Flames within eight, 23-15, 25 seconds later.

Big plays continue to lead to scoring efforts, this time benefiting the homestanding Wolfpack. After a 44-yard kickoff return by Graham that started N.C. State at Liberty's 33-yard line, Curtis Underwood scored two plays later on a 33-yard run to give the Wolfpack a 15-point edge, 30-15, just 10 seconds after Liberty's score.

The Flames pieced together an eight-play, 40-yard scoring drive to pull back within 12 points, 30-18, following a 50-yard field goal by two-time All-America kicker Matt Bevins. The 50-yard boot was the fourth 50-plus yard field goal of the senior's career.

After Liberty forced a three-and-out series, the Flames continued to chip away at N.C. State's advantage. Another eight-play drive stalled at the 21-yard line when Aldreakis Allen was stopped on an attempted run on a third-and-three play.

Liberty was forced to settle for Bevins' second field goal of the second half, a 38-yarder, trimming the lead to nine, 30-21, just 39 seconds into the final quarter. The three-pointer was his school-record 56th of his career.

Six minutes later, Rocco challenged a call and got the initial ruling on the field overturned, giving the Flames the ball back after a fumble by Underwood at the N.C. State 32-yard line.

However, Brown fumbled on the very next play when he was struck by Jeff Rieskamp and the loose football was scooped up by Slay with 7:40 left to play.

During the remaining minutes of the contest, N.C. State scored twice, once on a Glennon pass to Mario Carter and the second on a 19-yard rushing touchdown by Washington. Washington's second score of the night was set up by an interception, when David Amerson picked off Brown for the third and final time of the night.

Game No. 2 - No. 24/21 Liberty 38, Robert Morris 7

Sept. 10, 2011 - Lynchburg, Va. - Williams Stadium (15,805)

Four sacks and three interceptions set the tone for No. 24/21 Liberty's 38-7 home-opening victory over Robert Morris, inside of Williams Stadium.

The two teams used most of the first quarter to feel each other out, as the game remained scoreless through the first nine minutes.

Liberty had excellent starting position for its second drive of the game, thanks to a 30-yard punt return by B.J. Hayes. The Big South preseason all-conference punt returner fielded the Tony LaMancusa punt at the Robert Morris 42-yard line and found a seam down the middle of the field to get to the Robert Morris 12-yard line.

Following a seven-yard gain by Sirchauncey Holloway, Walter Payton Award candidate Mike Brown called his own number. The senior quickly got to the outside to score his 21st career rushing touchdown, giving Liberty a 7-0 lead after a five-yard run.

The Flames doubled their lead during the closing minutes of the opening quarter, thanks to a two-player connection.

Liberty managed to quickly march downfield, scoring on a six-play, 85-yard drive that took just 1:43 off the clock. Four of the six plays were pass completions from Brown to Pat Kelly, including the scoring dart, a 39-yard lofted ball into the corner of the zone.

The second quarter was dominated by both team's defensive units, with the two teams combining for 89 total offensive yards during the second 15-minutes of the game.

The lone legitimate scoring chance either squad had during the period came late, as Liberty penetrated the Colonials 20-yard line shortly after Kevin Fogg picked off a Jeff Sinclair pass.

However, Holloway gave the ball back four plays later, when it came loose on a run up the middle and was recovered by Sam Miller at the Robert Morris 15-yard line.

Robert Morris had more chances to advance the ball during the first half, finishing the opening 30 minutes of the game with 34 plays to Liberty's 30 plays. But the Flames made the most of their chances, more than doubling the Colonials with a 193 to 81 total offensive yard edge.

Brown was once again Liberty's top offensive weapon, accounting for 167 of Liberty's 193 total offensive yards. Brown carried the ball eight times for 29 yards and a score, while completing 10-of-14 passing attempts for 138 yards and a scoring pass.

Kelly was Brown's top target, finishing the first half with four catches for 75 yards, which all came on the last scoring drive of the opening half.

Robert Morris was paced by Justin Brooks and Sinclair during the first half. Brooks rushed 10 times for 30 yards, while Sinclair completed 6-of-13 passing attempts.

The story of the third quarter was a pair of interceptions during the 15-minute span that allowed the Flames to increase their lead by 14 points.

Fogg became the first player since the 2004 season to intercept two passes in one game, when he stepped in front of a Sinclair pass and returned it 11 yards to the Robert Morris four-yard line. The last player to accomplish the same feat was Jordan Alford against Elon during the closing game of the year on Nov. 20.

Two plays later, Brown scored from one yard out, but the play was negated after a Liberty holding penalty. The flag only delayed Brown's second rushing touchdown of the game, as the quarterback carried the ball on each of the next two plays, including a seven-yard scamper at 8:21 to push Liberty's lead to 21-0.

Robert Morris managed to cross the 50-yard line for the first time on the night during the ensuing drive, only to give it away six plays later.

The Colonials looked like they were piecing together their first scoring effort of the night, getting to the Liberty 33-yard line. However, Walt Aikens intercepted a pass at the 29-yard line, Sinclair's third thrown interception of the night, to give the Flames the ball back.

Liberty used exactly 120 seconds on the next drive, marching 65 yards downfield on six plays to push its lead to 28-0 at the 1:50 mark.

Two deep passing plays spotlighted the driving effort. The first was slant to Chris Summers, with Liberty's other Walter Payton Award candidate catching a 26-yard strike in double coverage.

Four plays later, Brown was able to avoid the Robert Morris pass rush and found Ryan Ferguson open in the end zone for his first collegiate touchdown on a 37-yard passing play.

The Colonials finally cracked the scoreboard during their opening drive of the fourth quarter, piecing together their longest drive of the day of 12 plays and 67 yards.

The scoring push was capped off by a nine-yard passing strike to Vince Mongeluzzo at the 10:25 mark.

Liberty quickly answered back and sealed the victory, when Fogg returned the ensuing kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown, giving the Flames their first special teams score of the 2011 season.

Matt Bevins capped off the night with a 23-yard field goal at the 2:17 mark, his 16th-straight field goal and the 57th of his career.

Liberty outgained Robert Morris on the night with 355 total offensive yards to the visitor's 234, despite the Colonials finishing the night with 69 total plays to the Flames 56.

Brown had his 13th-straight 200-plus total offensive yard game, as the senior finished with 252 yards. The quarterback led the Flames rushing effort with 11 carries for 43 yards, while completing 13-of-22 passing plays for 209 yards.

Brown played a part in all four of Liberty's offensive touchdowns, throwing for two and rushing for two more.

Kelly led all Liberty receivers with his four first-half catches for 75 yards. Summers and Ferguson each finished the night with identical numbers, hauling in three passes for 55 yards.

Brooks led the Colonials with 22 rushing attempts for 86 yards, while Sinclair finished the night 12-of-26 passing for 105 yards, three interceptions and a touchdown pass.

Liberty's defensive leader on the night was Brent Vinson, who tied a career high with eight tackles, including 1.5 sacks for a loss of 19 total yards.

KaJuan Lee also tied a career high, matching his seven-tackle effort against Gardner-Webb in 2009 with the same number of stops.

Game No. 3 - No. 13/14 James Madison 27, No. 22/22 Liberty 24

Sept. 17, 2011 - Lynchburg, Va. - Williams Stadium (18,878)

A low-scoring first half turned into a second-half shootout that ended on a game-winning field goal by Cameron Starke, lifting No. 13/14 James Madison to a 27-24 victory over No. 22/20 Liberty inside Williams Stadium.

Big plays helped the visiting Dukes get on the scoreboard first, with James Madison scoring quickly on its opening drive of the game. Jordan Anderson opened the contest with a 32-yard kickoff return, thanks to the sophomore finding a hole late during the return.

Two 24-yard plays during the seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive keyed the opening push by the James Madison offense. The first was a 24-yard pass play from Justin Thorpe to Renard Robinson and the second was a 24-yard rushing effort by Dae'Quan Scott to get inside the red zone.

Scott kept the ball on the next two plays, including a three-yard scoring burst up the middle, giving James Madison a 7-0 edge at 11:30.

Sizeable gains continued to be the theme of the first half and the largest of the opening 30 minutes of the game for Liberty seemed to get the Flames into scoring position. On the first play of the second quarter, Mike Brown rolled out and hit B.J. Hayes open in the flat and the senior scampered 60 yards down the field before he was pushed out of bounds.

The longest reception in Hayes' career got Liberty down to the 10-yard line; however, Brown was sacked for a three-yard loss and the Flames were whistled for a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty.

The negative-yardage stop and the flag pushed the Flames back to the 36-yard line, where Matt Bevins missed his second 43-yard field goal attempt on the night. The first, which took place during the middle of the first quarter, snapped a string of 16-straight successful field goal attempts.

The Dukes responded and pieced together their longest scoring drive of the night, when Cameron Starke connected on a 32-yard field goal with 5:07 left on the opening half clock. The boot capped off a 14-play, 7:50-drive to put the visitors up, 10-0.

The field goal battle continued and this time the Flames were able to crack the scoreboard after another drive stalled inside the James Madison 10-yard line.

Thanks to a 26-yard kickoff return by Kevin Fogg and a 28-yard Hayes reception, Liberty was able to penetrate deep into Dukes territory.

The Flames tried to find the end zone on a flag route from Brown to Summers, but the senior was well defended and Liberty had to settle for a 24-yard field goal by Alex Kacere.

The 24-yard kick was the first of the redshirt freshman's Liberty career and trimmed the visitor's halftime lead to 10-3.

Head coach Danny Rocco and his staff seemed to make some halftime adjustments, which resulted in Liberty rushing seven out of 10 plays for 28 yards on the 42-yard scoring drive to start the second half.

The last was a two-yard scramble by Brown to the right, as the Walter Payton Award candidate leaped over a pile of James Madison defenders and stretched the ball over the goal line to knot the game at 10-10 with 9:33 left in the third quarter.

The Dukes quickly responded with their own 10-play effort, this one amounting for 74 yards that allowed the visitors to regain the lead on Scott's second scoring run of the night.

The Flames tried to keep the scoring drive to three points, but the Dukes' offensive line opened up a sizeable hole on the right side, giving Scott enough room to break free for a 10-yard run on a third-and-one play and put James Madison up 17-10 at the 4:32 mark.

The back-and-forth battle continued with Liberty tying the game for the second time, following an eight-play, 68-yard drive during the closing seconds of the third quarter.

The Brown to Hayes connection continued, as the seniors found each other on two key third-down plays.

The first was a 28-yard reception over the middle of the field to get the Flames into the red zone, while the second came three plays later when Brown rolled out and found Hayes on the near side of the field on a five-yard slate with 57 seconds remaining in the third.

James Madison answered right back with the Dukes keeping it on the ground seven times on the nine-play, 63-yard scoring drive. The seventh and final time, Scott crossed the goal line for the third time on the night, giving James Madison a 24-17 lead with 12:16 left in the game.

Liberty tried to keep the back-and-forth battle going by answering again. Another lengthy return by Fogg for 27 yards, followed by a 19-yard play action pass from Brown to tight end Tommy Shaver got the Flames into Dukes territory.

However, Brown committed the game's first turnover on a deep pass play just in front of the end zone that was intercepted by Jakarie Jackson to give the Dukes the ball back with 11 minutes left to play in the game. The Dukes nearly gave the ball back three plays later, when Thorpe fumbled the ball on an option play.

James Madison was forced to punt following their second third-and-out series of the evening. Three plays later, Brown was able to successfully connect on another deep pass, when he found Chris Summers, the other Walter Payton Award candidate, open over the middle. The senior caught the ball at the 20-yard line and quickly got to the corner of the end zone to knot the score at 24-24 with 7:45 left in the fourth quarter.

The Flames tried to move the ball on the ensuing drive and crossed midfield after a 27-yard pass completion from Brown to Summers. However, the reception was negated after Liberty's 11th and final penalty of the night.

The play forced a third-and-22 situation, where Brown was sacked for the third time on the night. Mike Larsson connected on a 59-yard punt that rolled more than 20 yards, putting James Madison at its own 25-yard line with just over two minutes left.

Scott carried the ball five times on the next drive, while Thorpe completed both his pass attempts to quickly move the Dukes down the field. The first completion was the game-winning drive's key play, as the red-shirt junior completed a 32-yard pass over the middle to Kerby Long on a third-and-two play to extend the drive.

Five plays later, Starke connected on the game-winner, more than clearing the upright in the south end zone on a 40-yarder as the game clock expired.

Game No. 4 - No. 15/16 Lehigh 27, No. 23 Liberty 24

Sept. 24, 2011 - Bethlehem, Pa. - Goodman Stadium (6,185)

For the second week in a row, Liberty's Top 25 match-up came down to a last-second field goal attempt. After falling to No. 13/14 James Madison at home on a clock-expiring 40-yarder, the Flames could not find the same result, as Alex Kacere attempted to send the game into overtime with a 54-yard yard attempt. For the first time on the year, the Flames took their opening drive of the game and managed to put points on the scoreboard. The Flames implemented a similar hurry-up style as they had during previous games in 2011, and managed to get inside the Mountain Hawks' 10-yard line. Mike Brown completed 4-of-4 passing attempts for 43 yards during the 12-play effort, but was sacked for a seven-yard loss on a third-and-goal situation. Liberty was forced to settle for a 39-yard field goal by Alex Kacere at the 9:41 mark, giving Liberty the early 3-0 edge.

For the second-straight effort, Liberty mounted a double-digit play drive which looked like it was going to add to the Flames' lead. On the 11th play of the drive, Brown avoided a tackle and found Pat Kelly open in the end zone for what would have been an 11-yard touchdown reception. However, the play was called back due to a personal foul. Head coach Danny Rocco then brought Kacere back onto the field, but the redshirt freshman had his first career missed field goal, pushing his 31-yard attempt wide left to keep the game's score at 3-0 following 15 minutes of action.

Penalties continued to be the story on the next drive, with flags flying against both teams during the Lehigh 13-play, 67-yard scoring push. The first penalty was called on the Flames, when Liberty was whistled for another personal foul after a tackle below the knees on Lehigh quarterback Chris Lum. The flag gave Lehigh a first-and-goal situation. However, the Mountain Hawks were called for a holding penalty on the next play, pushing the home team back so they would eventually have to settle for a 30-yard field goal. Tim Divers' first field goal of the season tied the game, 3-3, with 11:17 left to play in the opening half. Lehigh's Homecoming crowd did not have to wait nearly as long to see its Mountain Hawks put their next set of points on the scoreboard, as it only took two additional plays. Lehigh's special teams, which had been plagued by mistakes during its first three games, pulled off an on-side kick to quickly give the Mountain Hawks the ball at the 45-yard line. Lum then found his All-America receiver Ryan Spadola open over the middle of the field. The junior outdistanced Liberty's defenders on a 55-yard touchdown play just 12 seconds later.

The offensive showdown that was expected early in the game finally started to take shape, when Liberty promptly responded with its first big play of the game. Brown and his All-America receiver, Chris Summers, found each other on three consecutive plays, with the last being a 49-yard touchdown reception at 10:06. The scoring play was the 22nd career touchdown catch of Summers' career, tying him for the program's record with Liberty Athletics Hall of Famer Kelvin Edwards (1982-85). Penalties continued to be the story of the opening half, as the second touchdown of the day was wiped off the scoreboard due to an infraction.

This time the yellow flag cost the home team, when Lum's screen play pass to Jack Drwal was negated after an offensive pass interference call. Lehigh would manage to take the lead, but it would be just by three points, 13-10, after a 30-yard Divers field goal at the 6:21 mark. Liberty tried to answer back and looked like it had regained the lead. However, Kelly's second touchdown of the afternoon was kept from him when he was flagged for offensive pass interference on what would have been a 22-yard touchdown reception in the corner of the end zone. On the very next play, Brown committed the first turnover of the afternoon, when his attempted pass downfield was intercepted by Jon Littlejohn.

Four plays later, Lehigh committed its first giveaway of the afternoon, when Walt Aikens stepped in front of a pass from Lum and returned it 46 yards for another seeming score. But Liberty was flagged for an illegal block during the return and the ball was brought back to the 28-yard line. On the very next play, Summers took over the program's all-time career touchdown reception mark, when Brown found him open in the end zone for a score to give the Flames the 17-13 lead with 2:22 left before halftime.

But the lead was once again short-lived for the Flames, as Lum found Keith Sherman open on a sideline route and the sophomore scampered down Liberty's side of the field for a 73-yard touchdown reception to give Lehigh the 20-17 halftime lead. Lehigh took the opening drive of the second half and methodically marched downfield, pushing its lead to 10 points, 27-17, on a 12-play, 70-yard drive that used 5:36 on the game clock. The 12th and final play was a four-yard burst by Michael Colvin, his first score of the season. The Mountain Hawks continued to keep the momentum on the next several drives, ones that forced Liberty to punt and another where Brown was picked off for the second time on the day. However the pendulum seemed to swing back in Liberty's favor for a while, after a bad punt snap and a 15-yard rushing touchdown by Allen at the 2:45 of the third quarter pulled Liberty back within three points, 27-24. The momentum continued in Liberty's favor during the first play of the fourth quarter. Facing a fourth-and-12 situation from the Flames' 28-yard line, Leigh head coach Andy Coen elected to go for it rather than attempt a field goal. Lum dropped back and tried to find an open receiver in the end zone, but Aikens was able to record his second interception of the afternoon and give Liberty another chance. Both team's stout offenses went quite for a while until the Flames pieced together their longest drive of the second half. After starting at the one-yard line, Liberty managed to march deep into Lehigh territory. On a third-and-three play from the 21-yard line, Brown ran out to the outside for the first down. But the ball was stripped from the senior's hand just after he got past the yardage marker by Fred Mihal and the pigskin was recovered by Billy Boyko to give the home team the ball back. The Mountain Lions tried to run the clock out on the ensuing drive, but were forced to give the ball back on downs when their drive stalled at the Liberty 15-yard line. With 29 seconds on the clock, Brown completed three passes and rushed for 10 yards to get the Flames past midfield. Following a 17-yard out route to Kelly, Kacere was called upon to try the game-tying kick. But the freshman's attempt fell into the end zone and allowed the home to secure the victory.
