Ritchie McKay hit the ground running once he arrived on Liberty Mountain, quickly assembling a 2008 recruiting class that Basketball Times ranked at No. 48 on its Top 50 list. Liberty joined eight other schools which are not a part of a BCS football power conference.

Liberty marks McKay's fifth head coaching stint, and his first east of the Mississippi, after stops in the Big Sky, Mountain West, Pac-10 and WAC conferences. With the experience and success that McKay brought with him to Liberty, the true nature of how special his first Liberty recruiting class can be, is reflected in the national recognition it's received prior to the sextet's arrival on campus.

With his recruiting accolades aside, McKay's inaugural season at Liberty was one of improvements. McKay guided the Flames to their first non-losing season in four years, setting three-point shooting records along the way. McKay's squad had a penchant for hitting the trey, setting Liberty records in three-point field goals (288) and attempts (772), while finishing the year with the third-best success rate (37.3 percent) in school history.

Under McKay's tutelage, an already talented Anthony Smith reached new heights. As a junior, Smith was the only player in the nation during the 2008 season to attempt at least 200 three-point field goals and succeed on at least 50 percent of his field goal attempts (51.5) and 40 percent of his three-point field goal attempts (41.0).

Under McKay's guidance, TeeJay Bannister finished the season ranked No. 3 in the nation in assists (224 assists). Bannister's assist mark is a Liberty Division I record, the second-best mark overall in the Liberty annals, serves as the second-best mark in Big South history. Bannister became only the fifth player in conference history to reach the 200-assist plateau in a season.

McKay oversaw a successful campaign from forward Alex McLean as well. McLean was named to the Big South All-Conference first team. The honor marked the sixth-straight year, Liberty has placed a player on the first team, tying the second-best streak in conference history. The streak also serves as the longest current streak among conference teams.

McKay earned his bachelor of arts degree in athletic administration from Seattle Pacific in 1987. A stellar player for the Falcons, McKay left the program as the school's single-season and career record holder for steals, and he was third in career assists. He still holds the school record with 10 steals in a 1987 game against Pacific Lutheran.

McKay is married to the former Julie Summers. The couple resides in Forest, Va., with their two sons, Luke (9) and Gabriel (7) and a daughter, Ellie (12).

Game Preview

The Liberty Flames (16-7, 7-4) are in the midst of a home stretch where they play five games out of six inside the Vines Center. They will take a mid-week break from home and hit the road to faceoff with the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs (10-11, 6-5 BSC), Wednesday night, inside Paul Porter Arena. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m., wrapping up the regular season series.

The radio broadcast will air on the Flames Sports Network (flagship WRVL 88.3 FM), with Jerry Edwards providing the play-by-play for his 28th season. Additionally, an Internet audio broadcast on LibertyFlames.com will be available. There will also be a live video stream of the broadcast via the Big South EDGE, available on BigSouthSports.com.

Recent Results

Liberty enters tonight's game on the heels of two straight league wins, most recently a 78-66 triumph over UNC Asheville on Saturday. Four starters tallied double figures, led by Seth Curry's 17 markers and Kyle Ohman's 16 points. Prior to the UNC Asheville win, Liberty topped visiting High Point on Jan. 27, 78-63. Ohman led the way with 26 points, while Anthony Smith chipped in 23 markers to help put the Flames back on their winning ways. Radford handed Liberty a minor setback on Jan. 24 in double overtime, 94-82. Seth Curry led all scorers with 30 points.

The Radford loss snapped a four game winning streak and an 11 game home winning streak. Before the Radford setback, at High Point on Jan. 20, Liberty scored 14 straight points in the game's final 1:43 to steal away the victory, 61-56. The Flames were down nine points before Smith scored eight straight points and grabbed three steals in the final 23 seconds to lead the comeback charge. Kyle Ohman hit a trey with 17 seconds remaining to take the lead. Smith scored 19 of his game-high 24 points in the second half.

Youth Will Be Served

According to research by the University of Denver, the Flames are the fourth youngest team in the country, as calculated by average age by Nov. 14, 2008. According to research by Duquesne University, the Flames, with seven scholarship freshmen, are tied with five other teams for second most in the country, behind Duquesne, which has eight scholarship freshmen. Liberty also leads the nation in percentage of minutes played by freshmen.

Liberty versus Gardner-Webb

With Gardner-Webb becoming a full-fledged member of the Big South Conference this season (previously had been an affiliate member in football), the Bulldogs will become a familiar opponent to the Flames. Today marks the fourth all-time meeting between these two schools and the first in Boiling Springs, N.C., since 1977. The season series' first contest on Dec. 6, marked Gardner-Webb's first visit to Lynchburg in men's basketball. Behind 27 points and seven rebounds from Anthony Smith, Liberty survived the Bulldogs' bark, 68-59.

All-Time Series Results

Dec. 6, 2008	W (68-59)	Lynchburg
Jan. 22, 1977	L (97-127)	Boiling Springs, N.C.
Dec. 6, 1975	L (88-104)	Boiling Springs, N.C.

LU Nab Back-to-Back-to-Back Big South Player of the Week Awards

Kyle Ohman averaged 21.0 points, 59.1 percent from the field (13-of-22) and 57.1 percent from beyond the arc (8-of-14) in two Big South wins last week to be named Big South Choice Hotels Player of the Week on Monday.

Ohman's accolade gives Liberty a strangle hold on the weekly award for the past three weeks, marking the first time a school has won three straight Big South Player of the Week honors since Liberty accomplished the feat during the 1995-96 season. Peter Aluma won the first two awards during the run, while Marcus White followed up with one of his own, finishing off the trio of honors. Ohman's award follows Anthony Smith's honor on Jan. 26, while Seth Curry earned his second nod this season as player of the week on Jan. 19.

ESPNU BracketBuster Pairings Announced

Liberty is set to play the Old Dominion Monarchs of the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in this year's ESPNU BracketBusters, as announced by ESPN on Monday. The game will be televised on the ESPN family of networks, Feb. 21 in Norfolk, Va., inside the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

Big South Player of the Week Fun Fact

Kyle Ohman joined Seth Curry and Anthony Smith as the third different Liberty Flame this season to win Big South Player of the Week honors, marking the first time in program history that three different Flames garnered player of the week certificates in the same season. The Big South has now accomplished the feat in three straight seasons. The 2006-07 Winthrop Eagles (Craig Bradshaw, Michael Jenkins and Torrell Martin) and the 2007-08 UNC Asheville Bulldogs (K.J. Garland, Kenny George and Bryan Smithson) started the streak. Both Winthrop and UNC Asheville ended up winning the Big South Conference regular season championship the season they accomplished the feat.

McKay Eyes 200 Career Victories

In his 13th season of head coaching, Ritchie McKay currently owns 197 career head coaching victories, needing just three more to reach the 200 career triumph milestone. All of McKay's victories have come at the Division I level and in five different conferences (Big Sky, Big South, Mountain West, Pac-10 and WAC).

Curry Reaches Single Season Top 5 for 3-Point Field Goals

Seth Curry currently has 71 three-point field goals this year, giving him Liberty's third-best individual total for a season, trailing only 2008's Anthony Smith (84) and 1994's Matt Hildebrand (73). On Jan. 27, Curry passed 1997's Larry Jackson (69) for his current position in third. Curry's mark also bests all Liberty freshman, topping 2004's Larry Blair (63).

Three Amigos

Seth Curry, Kyle Ohman and Anthony Smith have contributed 182 of Liberty's 214 three-pointers this season. The total comes out to 85 percent of the Flames' treys coming from the trio.

Lights Camera Action

Liberty freshman Seth Curry had a cameo role in the basketball motion picture Juwanna Mann. Curry was 11 years old when the movie was released in the summer of 2002. In a scene that was filmed in the backyard of a previous home his family owned in Charlotte, the main character of the movie, Jamal Jefferies, sees a young girl playing basketball with a group of young boys. The Jefferies character, who recently was suspended from the NBA, gets the idea of dressing up as a women to play in the WNBA. Curry was one of the young boys playing in the game the Jefferies character witnessed.

Best Start through First 20 Games

Liberty registered a 14-6 mark through the first 20 games of the season. The record is the best mark for Liberty since they started the 1991-92 campaign with a 17-3 mark, marking Liberty's first season in the Big South Conference.

Curry Nabs First Career Double-Double

On Jan. 27, Seth Curry became the first Liberty freshman to collect a double-double since Peter Aluma on Feb. 5, 1994. The former Liberty standout and NBA performer tallied 13 points and pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds at UMBC. Liberty won the game 75-64. Curry notched his first career double-double with 16 points and a game-high 10 caroms in Liberty's 78-63 triumph over High Point on Jan. 27. Fellow freshman Jesse Sanders almost recorded a double-double in the same game with Curry, recording nine assists and nine rebounds.

Defending the Free Throw

If a team can successfully defend free throws, Liberty is doing so against Big South opponents. Only UNC Asheville (on Nov. 18 and Saturday) as well as VMI (on Jan. 17) have connected on better than 70 percent of their free throw attempts.

Dishing Assists

Liberty has dished out at least 15 assists in each of its last three contests. They recorded 20 helpers against Radford on Jan. 24 and 22 against High Point on Jan. 27. Liberty dished out 15 assists on Saturday, dropping under the 20 assist mark for the first time in the last three games.

Double Figure Scoring

Five out of Liberty's last six wins have been by double figures or more. Liberty's lone victory in the stretch that did not reach a double-figure margin was at High Point on Jan. 20. Liberty trailed by nine points with 1:43 left in the game, before scoring 14 straight points to win by five markers.

Sanders Doesn't Turn the Ball Over

Freshman point guard Jesse Sanders has recorded six games this season without a turnover. Sanders leads the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio at 2.3.

Bench Help

Liberty tallied 15 points off the bench against UNC Asheville on Saturday. The total bench points were more than the bench score in the previous four games combined.

Hitting Three Point Buckets

Liberty is currently second in the Big South Conference in made three-point buckets at 9.3 per game. The Flames have reached double figures in made three-point field goals in three of their last four games. As a team, Liberty is connecting on 36.8 percent (46-of-125) from beyond the arc during the four game span.

Curry Eyes Some Big South Records/Sets Another

Seth Curry currently has 468 points, having passed Charleston Southern's Omar Carter (466) for a Big South Conference record for freshman scoring. Carter, a former high school teammate of Curry at Charlotte Christian, set the record last season. Curry now has his sights set on Coastal Carolina's Jack Leasure and his Big South freshman record of 85 three-point buckets set in 2005.

Also of note, no freshman in Big South history has ever averaged more than 20 points per game. Curry currently tallies 20.3 markers per contest, leaving the season to play out to see if the Charlotte, N.C., native could be the first.

Curry Pulls Two Weekly Awards on Jan. 19

For the second time this season, Seth Curry has been named Big South Choice Hotels Player of the Week and Dick Vitale's "Diaper Dandy" of the Week on the same day. It first happened on Dec. 1.

Road Winning Streak

With their win at High Point on Jan. 20, Liberty has won back-to-back road games for the second time in three seasons. Liberty closed out the regular season in 2007 with wins at VMI and Radford.

Smith Starts Slow From Beyond the Arc

Anthony Smith shot 26.2 percent (16-of-61) from beyond the arc through the season's first 12 games. Since his slow start, Smith is shooting 48.6 percent (34-of-70) from three-point range over the past 11 games.

This is nothing new for Smith, as the Plano, Texas native shot 27.3 percent (9-of-33) from three-point range through the first six games of last season. Smith heated up in game seven against Longwood on Nov. 27, 2007, connecting on 7-of-8 from three-point land, jumpstarting him to finish the final 26 games connecting on 43.6 percent (75-of-172) of his shots. Smith finished the year connecting on 41.0 percent (84-of-205) of his attempts, giving him the fifth-best success rate for a season in program history. The 84 three-point field goals and 205 three-point attempts were program bests.

Top Scorers

Liberty has Seth Curry (20.3 ppg) and Anthony Smith (18.8 ppg), both ranked in the top four in the Big South in scoring, helping Liberty register the second best team scoring average in the league, 75.6.

Smith's Last 13 Games

Anthony Smith has tallied at least 20 points in eight of his last 13 games. Over that span Smith is averaging 19.9 ppg, 6.8 rpg and is hitting 56.3 percent of his field goals, including 45.3 percent of his three-point attempts.

Overtime Crazyness

After going 75 overtime-free games, a streak that was broken on Nov. 29 when Liberty experienced a double-overtime affair with William & Mary, the Flames have now registered a total of four overtime games this season. The four overtime mark ties a season high set in 1996. Three of Liberty's overtime contests this season have been of the double-overtime variety, a first for the program.

Liberty is 2-2 this season in overtime contests and 20-31 all-time. Liberty is 2-1 inside the Vines Center and 0-1 on the road in overtime contests this season.

The overtime free streak which was snapped this season served as the second-longest in program history and the longest during Liberty's Division I era. Liberty's overall longest streak without an overtime contest is 134 games from Dec. 8, 1972, until Dec. 9, 1977.

Smith Climbs Career Minutes Played List

Senior Anthony Smith currently sits third all-time in the Liberty annals in minutes played. The Plano, Texas native has played 3,724 minutes in his career, only ranking behind Larry Blair (4,123) and Matt Hildebrand (3,729). Based on his current minutes per game average and barring injury, Smith should finish the regular season No. 2 all-time in the Liberty record books.

No Bench Points

Liberty tallied no bench points in its 91-80 victory at VMI on Jan. 24. Liberty has never scored that many points and won a game without any points coming from its bench. The last time Liberty received no bench scoring was on Nov. 16, 2006, at Oklahoma. Liberty lost to the Sooners, 74-48.

Curry Scores 30 Points and another Liberty First

Seth Curry scored 30 points on Dec. 22 against Northern Colorado, becoming the first freshman in the Liberty Division I era to score at least 30 points during a regular season contest. Jamaal Bennett tallied 35 points in the quarterfinals of the 1999 Big South Championship, making him the only other freshman in Liberty's Division I era. One other freshman in the Liberty annals has accomplished the feat, as George Sweet did so during the first year of the program, the 1972-73 season. Sweet tallied 30 points on the nose on three separate occasions. Curry became the first Division I Liberty freshman to reach the 30-point plateau three times, after tallying 35 points on Jan. 17 at VMI, and pouring 30 markers against Radford on Saturday.

Smith Reaches the 1,000 Point/500 Rebound Club

With three rebounds on Jan. 27, Anthony Smith became the 36th player in Big South history to score at least 1,000 career points and grab 500 career rebounds. Smith became the ninth player in program history to accomplish the feat and the fourth during the Division I era.

Smith Reaches the 1,500 Point/500 Rebound Club

Anthony Smith has 1,572 career points and 505 career rebounds. He tallied his 500th career rebound against High Point on Jan. 27 to become the ninth player in Big South history with 1,500 career points and 500 career rebounds.

Flames Ranked in CollegeInsider.com's Top 25 Mid-Major Poll

Currently, the Flames are ranked No. 19 in CollegeInsider.com's Mid-Major Top 25 Poll. The most recent poll came out on Monday, marking the ninth straight week Liberty was ranked.

Curry Top Scoring Freshman in the Nation

Seth Curry's 26-point performance at Virginia on Nov. 25 pushed his points per game average to 22.3, helping him bypass the Cavaliers' Sylvan Landesberg (22.0) as the nation's top scoring true freshman. Curry has held the distinction ever since and is currently the only freshman in the Top 50 in scoring and is No. 22 overall at 20.3 ppg.

Curry Tallies a Big South Conference First

Seth Curry was named Choice Hotels Big South Player of the Week on Dec. 1, making the first time that a true freshman earned the weekly award since the institution of the Big South Freshman of the Week award for the 1990-91 season. Kennedy Okafor from Maryland-Baltimore County won the award as a redshirt freshman on Dec. 15, 1997.

Curry and Sanders Team Up for another Big South First

On Dec. 1, Seth Curry and Jesse Sanders were named Big South Player and Freshman of the Week respectively. It marked the first time in the history of the Big South Conference that a school swept the weekly awards, with the player of the week also being a freshman.

Curry Receives Weekly Accolades From ESPN's Dick Vitale

Seth Curry was named Dick Vitale's Diaper Dandy of the Week on Dec. 1 for his play against Virginia, Coker and William & Mary, all Flames' victories. Curry averaged 23.0 ppg and 4.0 rpg, while shooting 51.9 percent from the floor and 41.7 percent from three-point land during that span.

Smith's Free Throw Attempts are Up

Anthony Smith is currently averaging 4.6 free throw attempts per contest. His attempts are up by 2.1 per game from last season. Smith attempted 2.5 shots from the charity stripe a season ago.

Ohman Crashes the Boards

Kyle Ohman is pulling down 5.4 rebounds a game this season. The average is 2.9 more caroms per contest than the former walk-on averaged a season ago.

Ohman Hitting the Trey

Since the arrival of head coach Ritchie McKay, Kyle Ohman has appeared in all 55 contests he has coached. Ohman only appeared in 10 games prior to McKay's arrival. Since the opening day of the 2007-08 season, Ohman has connected on 39.9 percent (124-of-311) of his three-point shots. Ohman's career 39.3 percent mark (126-of-321) ranks No. 3 all-time in the Liberty annals.

Smith on Liberty's Career Three-Point List

Anthony Smith has 195 career three-point field goals, ranking No. 4 all-time in the Liberty record books. Next on the list is Matt Hildebrand (207).

McKay inside the Vines Center

Head Coach Ritchie McKay has a career 25-3 mark inside the Vines Center (.893 winning percentage). His three losses came on Jan. 15, 2008, to Winthrop (59-50), on Feb. 26, 2008 to VMI (81-79) and on Jan. 24 to Radford (94-82) in two overtimes. McKay won 11 straight inside the Vines Center, before his first career setback. Ironically, McKay's most recent defeat came after 11 straight triumphs.

Curry in the Clutch

Seth Curry scored 13 points, on 6-of-7 shooting, during two overtime periods on Nov. 29, leading the Flames to an 80-74 victory over William & Mary. Curry's trey with 18 seconds tied the game at 71, sending the contest into the second overtime period. Curry's heroics helped him earn tournament MVP honors in the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic.

Curry in the Clutch Part II

Seth Curry reprised his role from the William & Mary double-overtime victory, helping Liberty dispose of George Mason in overtime on Dec. 1, 69-66. Curry's triple with 17.7 seconds left sent the game into the extra frame. From that juncture, Curry scored five of Liberty's eight points in overtime, including an 18-foot jumper to put the Flame ahead for good with 40.6 left in the extra period.

Curry in the Clutch Part III

Seth Curry nailed a three-point bucket at the buzzer in overtime on Jan. 5, sending the Flames to a second overtime at Presbyterian. Liberty would later fall in double-overtime, 67-66.

Ohman Ties a John Paul Jones Arena Record

Kyle Ohman scored 17-first half points against Virginia on Nov. 25, tying a John Paul Jones Arena record for first half points. Ohman shares the record with North Carolina's Tyler Hansbrough and Hampton's Vincent Simpson.

Curry Ties another Record

Seth Curry played all 50 minutes during Liberty's double-overtime win against William & Mary on Nov. 29. By doing so, Curry tied the program record for minutes played in a game, becoming the fourth player to do so. The last time was by Mike Minett on Feb. 10, 1986, against Longwood, roughly four years and six months before Curry's birth.

Liberty Wins Three Against In-State Non-Conference Foes

The Dec. 1 win over George Mason gave Liberty three non-conference victories over intra-state Division I teams for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. Liberty beat James Madison (79-70), Richmond (64-61 2OT) and Virginia Tech (62-61) that season. This year, Liberty has topped Virginia (86-82), William & Mary (80-74 2OT) and George Mason (69-66 OT).

Shooting the Trey

Liberty is averaging 26.2 three-point attempts a game. Opponents are barely trailing the Flames in that category, heaving up 24.8 long range shots a game.

Grabbing the Rebound

Liberty is eighth in the Big South Conference in rebounding margin. Opponents are rebounding 2.7 more caroms a game than the Flames. Liberty has been outrebounded in 14-of-23 games this season.

Assists are Up and Turnovers Down

Liberty has a positive assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.2, ranking Liberty second in the Big South. Jesse Sanders leads the team with a 2.3 ratio, as he has dished out 95 assists to 41 turnovers. That marks leads the Big South and is No. 34 nationally.

Sanders is Pulling Offensive Boards

Liberty's point guard, Jesse Sanders, has pulled down a team-high 52 offensive rebounds. He is averaging 2.3 offensive rebound per game average, or 22.2 percent of Liberty's team average.

Curry Joins Elite Liberty Circle

Freshman Seth Curry became the fourth Liberty freshman, and the third since the Flames moved to Division I, to reach the 20-point plateau in his collegiate debut, when he tallied 23 markers against Montreat on Nov. 14.

The first Liberty freshman to accomplish the feat was Willard DeShazor, who poured in 29 points against Tennessee Temple on Nov. 28, 1973. Chris Toomer scored 21 points against Maine on Nov. 23, 1990, in his first collegiate game. Jay Boykin was the last Liberty freshman, until Curry, to reach 20 points in his collegiate debut. He scored 20 points against Drake on Nov. 24, 1995, when Curry was five years old.

The previous three members of this exclusive Liberty club played all four years at Liberty, but Deshazor was the only player to reach the 1,000-point club (1,569). Toomer is next with 583 career points.

Curry Ties Vines Center Record in Debut

Seth Curry's seven steals against Montreat on Nov. 14 tied a Vines Center record that was originally set by Delawn Grandison on Jan. 7, 1999 against Tusculum and was last achieved by Maurice Watkins on Jan. 15, 2001 against Charleston Southern. Curry became one of seven players to record seven steals inside Liberty's home.

Notes From Virginia Win

Liberty's win over Virginia snapped the Cavaliers 36-game November home winning streak, which dated back to 1994. The win also snapped Virginia's 16-game winning streak against Big South opponents, which dated back to Liberty's last win over the Cavaliers in 1998. The win also snapped Virginia's 15-game winning streak against non-conference in-state opponents, which dated back to 2002.

Seth Curry and Kyle Ohman led Liberty with 26 points, while Anthony Smith chipped in 21 markers. The performance by the trio marked the first time three players have scored 20 against Virginia in the same game since Juan Dixon (23), Chris Wilcox (21) and Lonny Baxter (20) did so for Maryland on March 3, 2002.

The Curry/Lynchburg Connection

Freshman Seth Curry isn't the only member of his family to appear in a college game on the Liberty campus. Seth's father, Dell Curry, as a freshman, poured in a game-high 19 points, on 7-of-13 shooting, for Virginia Tech on Dec. 7, 1982, in the Hokies' 71-53 triumph over the Flames.

The game featured two fathers of 2008 All-Americans. Dell's older son Stephen is an All-American performer at Davidson, while the Flames' Eric Gordon saw his son, Eric Gordon, Jr. picked in the first round of the NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers after an All-American season at Indiana. Liberty's Gordon, scored six points and dished out two assists against Curry's Virginia Tech squad that cold December night in 1982.

My Brother is an All-American

Freshmen Seth Curry and Jesse Sanders each are younger siblings of All-Americans from last season. Curry's older brother Stephen is currently an All-American performer at Davidson, nearly lifting the Wildcats to the 2008 Final Four. Sanders' older brother Thomas earned All-American honors at Gardner-Webb after being named 2008 Atlantic Sun Player of the Year. The elder Sanders poured in 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds in the Bulldogs' 84-68 upset win at No. 20 Kentucky on Nov. 8, 2007.

10 Wins Prior to New Years

Liberty defeated Cincinnati Christian on Dec. 28, marking the first time in program history the Flames have recorded 10 wins before New Years. Three times, the program has managed nine wins before New Years, doing so during the 1979-80, 1983-84 and 1996-97 seasons.

Next on the Scoring List for Anthony Smith

With 1,572 career points, Anthony Smith sits in eighth place all-time in the Liberty annals for scoring and third in Division I scoring. On Jan. 27, Smith passed Larry Jackson (1,539), a four-year letterwinner from 1995-98 and Willard DeShazor (1,545), a four-year letterwinner from 1974-77.

Next up on the scoring list is Ed Vickers (1,658), a three-year letterwinner from 1978-80. Smith needs 87 points to move past Vickers into seventh place all-time.

Smith Can Shoot

Senior Anthony Smith was the only player in the nation in 2008 to attempt at least 200 three-point field goals and succeed on at least 40 percent of his three-point field goal attempts (41.0), while also connecting on 50 percent of his field goal attempts (51.5). He was one of five players in the nation to accomplish the same feat, while attempting at least 100 three-point field goals. The other players were Mario Chalmers (Kansas), Lee Cummond (BYU), Malik Hairston (Oregon) and James Harden (Arizona State).

Road Woes

The Flames have lost 42 of their last 51 road games, dating back to the start of the 2005-06 season. Three of the wins during the span came during the 2006-07 season. A 66-63 victory at Charleston Southern on Jan. 22, 2007, a 118-108 victory at VMI on Feb. 21, 2007 and a 64-48 win at Radford on Feb. 24, 2007. The victory in Lexington was the Flames first since Dec. 7, 1991, and the win at Radford was Liberty's first since Feb. 22, 1997. The fourth road win was a 55-53 triumph at East Carolina on Nov. 17, 2007, the fifth road win was on Jan. 28, 2008 at VMI, 87-81 and the sixth was a 65-51 triumph at Coastal Carolina on Feb. 16, 2008. Liberty secured its seventh road victory during that span on Nov. 25 at Virginia, 86-82. For the third time during the stretch, Liberty won against VMI, at Cameron Hall on Jan. 17, 91-80. For the second time in three seasons, Liberty won back-to-back road contests when they won at High Point on Tuesday, 61-56.

Game 1
Lynchburg, Va.

Seth Curry had a banner night, scoring 23 points and tying a Vines Center record with seven thefts as the Liberty Flames (1-0) defeated the Montreat Cavaliers (1-2), 97-77, in front of 5,198 raucous fans. The win marks the first season-opening win for the Flames since they topped Tusculum, 84-58, on Nov. 17, 2000, inside the Vines Center. Curry's seven steals tied a Vines Center record that was originally set by Delawn Grandison on Jan. 7, 1999 against Tusculum and was last achieved by Maurice Watkins on Jan. 15, 2001 against Charleston Southern. Curry becomes one of seven players to record seven steals inside Liberty's home edifice. The Flames sprinted out to a 15-3 lead when Brolin Floyd nailed a three-point bucket from the corner at 13:28. Making his first collegiate appearance, Curry scored Liberty's first five points and seven of the Flames' first 12 during the run. Montreat managed one field goal by Timmy Harper at the 17:53 mark, before being held without a field goal until the 10:18 mark, when Seth Moore tallied a bucket in the paint. By that time, Liberty had extended its advantage to 21-6. The Cavaliers were able to cut the deficit to 10 points, 34-24, via an 18-13 advantage, capped by a Vincent Dombrowski three-point bucket at 3:45. Liberty quickly extended the lead back to 15 points, 39-24, courtesy of five straight points by Floyd. A trey from the corner at 2:34 capped the mini surge. Liberty closed out the half on a 9-5 run, capped by an Anthony Smith bucket as the half expired. The Flames went into the break with a 48-29 lead. The Flames were led in the opening stanza with 14 points by Curry, followed by 10 points by Floyd. Liberty connected on 42.9 percent (18-of-42) from the floor and 33.3 percent (5-of-15) from beyond the arc. Montreat shot 33.3 percent (10-of-30) from the floor and 16.7 percent (2-of-12) from beyond the arc in the first period. The Cavaliers came out of the break on an 11-5 spurt, capped by a MJ Njoku bucket at the 16:25 mark, cutting the score to 55-40. Liberty then reeled off seven straight points, taking a 20-point advantage, 60-40, after two free throws by Kyle Ohman at 15:36. The difference between the teams did not change much the rest of the contest, as Liberty finished with the 20-point win, 97-77. The Flames finished the night connecting on 47.8 percent (33-of-69) from the floor and 46.2 percent (12-of-26) from three-point range. Montreat tallied a 40.6 percent (28-of-69) success rate from the field and 25 percent (7-of-28) from beyond the arc. Smith led the Flames with 25 points on 10-of-15 shooting, while moving into 15th place on Liberty's all-time scoring list, passing Eric Gordon (1,154). Smith pulled down a team-high nine rebounds in the victory. Floyd added 15 points and Ohman chipped in 14 points, as every player who appeared for the Flames tallied at least two points.

Game 2
Asheville, N.C.

The Liberty Flames (1-1, 0-1 BSC) dropped their Big South Conference opener for the third straight year at UNC Asheville (3-0, 1-0), as the Bulldogs recorded an 84-56 victory, inside the Justice Center. The Bulldogs opened up the contest quickly, staking themselves to a 7-0 advantage, courtesy of a Reid Augst bucket at 16:50. The Flames finally got on the board at the 16:10 mark on a Seth Curry jumper from the wing. Over the next eight minutes, UNC Asheville extended its lead to 24-10, via a 17-8 spurt, including nine straight Bulldog points. Quinard Jackson finished off the run with a bucket at 8:35. Liberty trailed by as many as 21 points during the first half, 46-25, when John Williams banked a shot in with 41 seconds remaining in the stanza. Curry finished off the half with five straight points, versus the Bulldogs two points, sending the Flames into the break trailing 19 points, 49-30. The Bulldogs didn't slow down entering the second half, extending their lead to 27 points, 64-37, via a 15-7 jaunt, capped by two free throws from J.P. Primm at the 12:17 mark. The two teams played nearly even basketball over the final 12 minutes of the game, as UNC Asheville outgained Liberty by a point, 20-19, during the remainder of the game to seal the victory. Liberty struggled from the field on the afternoon, connecting on 31.7 percent (19-of-60) from the floor. The Flames shooting percentage from beyond the arc was not much better, as Liberty only hit 21.4 percent (6-of-28) from three-point range, including being shutout from long range in the second half. UNC Asheville looked sharp in the opening Big South game of the year, hitting 49.2 percent (29-of-59) from the floor and 52.9 percent (9-of-17) from beyond the arc. Curry led Liberty with 18 points and pulled down six rebounds. Anthony Smith chipped in 13 points and four rebounds in the losing cause.

Game 3
Charlottesville, Va.

Seth Curry and Kyle Ohman each tallied a career-high 26 points, helping the Liberty Flames (2-1, 0-1 BSC) defeat the Virginia Cavaliers (3-1, 0-0 ACC), 86-82, inside John Paul Jones Arena. The Flames jumped out to an early 10-2 lead, courtesy of eight straight Ohman points, including two three-point buckets. Curry capped the run with a jumper from the left elbow at 15:35. Virginia cut the deficit to four points, 13-9, via a 7-3 spurt, capped by Jerome Meyinsse's rebound and put back at 12:10. Liberty extended its lead back up to eight points, 17-9, when Curry hit a lay-up at 10:34. Curry scored four straight points, with his second field goal of the spurt coming at 4:21, but that was all the offense Liberty could muster during a 17-4 Virginia run. The Cavaliers capped the run on a Sylvan Landesburg bucket at 3:20, charging to the 26-22 advantage. Liberty made a final push to close out the half with an advantage, retaking the lead, 35-32, via a 13-6 run. During Liberty's run Ohman hit his fifth and sixth three-point buckets of the opening stanza, while Anthony Smith tallied two lay-ups. The Flames were able to enter the intermission with the three-point lead, courtesy of Curry's contested trey as time expired. The second half started out neck-and-neck, with Virginia taking a brief one-point lead, 41-40, after a Landesburg free throw at 17:16. Liberty retook the lead, 43-41, when Smith tallied a trey from the wing at 16:15. A Calvin Baker trey at 15:55 gave the Cavaliers another one point lead, 44-43. The Flames then scored five-straight points to take a four-point advantage, 48-44. Curry connected on a trey from the wing and Smith tallied a bucket in the paint at 15:01. Two Smith free throws and Curry's fourth trey of the game at 12:33 gave the Flames another four-point lead, 53-49, coming after Sammy Zeglinski tallied four-straight markers for the Cavaliers. Back-to-back three-point buckets by Zeglinski gave the Cavaliers the 59-57 advantage at 10:05. Liberty then went on an 8-0 run to grab a six-point lead, 65-59. Johnny Stephene hit a three-point bucket from the corner at 7:55 to cap the run. The Cavaliers and Flames battled back and forth, as Virginia managed to cut Liberty's lead down to one point on four separate occasions. However, the Flames remained steadfast, going 8-of-11 from the charity stripe in the closing two minutes of action to hold on for the victory. Ohman tallied a career-high 26 points on 9-of-12, including 6-of-8 from three-point land. Curry matched Ohman's career night with 26 points of his own on 9-of-17 shooting from the floor, including 4-of-8 from three-point land. Smith chipped in 21 point on 8-of-14 shooting, while dishing out six assists. Jesse Sanders led point, dishing out a career-high eight assists.

Game 4
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty Flames (3-1) used 22 points and eight rebounds from Seth Curry to cruise to an 88-66 win over the Coker Cobras (3-3) in the opening game of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic, inside the Vines Center. Coker struck early, staking themselves to a quick 5-2 advantage via a trey by Lukas Varga at 19:25, followed by a Josh Poston jumper at 17:41. Kyle Ohman tied the game at five all on his three-point bucket at 17:23. Ohman's three-pointer sparked the Flames, as Liberty went on a 20-5 run, which was capped by a Jesse Sanders bucket on an Anthony Smith pass at the 11:04 mark. Sanders got things started and was perfect from the field, tallying nine of the 20 points during the run to give the Flames the 25-10 lead. The Cobras narrowed the deficit to 12 points, 30-18, via an 8-5 run which was finished off by a Stevie Evans bucket at 8:43. From that point Liberty took over, pushing its lead to 21 points, 48-27, by the half. During the run, six different Flames scored, including three-point buckets by Ohman and Curry. The trey by Curry came with 44 seconds left in the half, capping the 18-9 run. Liberty pushed its advantage up to 25 points, 60-35, scoring 12 of the first 20 points coming out of the intermission. Back-to-back three-point buckets by Curry and Ohman capped the run at 14:06. An 18-10 spurt by the Cobras brought the Liberty advantage down to 13 points, 70-57, capped by an Evans three-pointer from the corner at 7:49. But that would be as close as Coker would get, as Liberty quickly went on a 10-0 run, completed by a Curry trey at 5:39. Curry scored five of 10 points during run, extending the Liberty lead to 23 points, 80-57 at the 4:56 mark. Liberty maintained its advantage over the closing five minutes, closing out the game with the 22-point victory. Curry paced the Flames with 22 points on 9-of-16 shooting, including 4-of-9 from beyond the arc. Curry also contributed with a career and game-high eight rebounds. Smith added 16 points on 5-of-6 shooting, while Sanders added a career-high 15 rebounds and was 7-of-8 from the field. Ohman rounded out the top Liberty scorers with 13 points on 4-of-5 shooting.

Seth Curry tallied 13 of his 21 points during two overtime periods, helping the Liberty Flames (4-1) to a thrilling double-overtime victory over the William & Mary Tribe (3-4), 80-74, inside the Vines Center. With the victory, the Flames were the champions of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic. William & Mary wasted no time getting on the board in the first overtime, scoring on two Quinn McDowell free throws at the 4:53 mark in the first overtime. After a Curry bucket at 4:38 tied the game for the sixth time, Schneider hit another three-point bucket at 4:26, giving the Tribe the 65-62 advantage. Liberty then regained the lead, 66-65, via two Kyle Ohman free throws and another Curry bucket at 2:49. Sanders extended the lead to three points, 68-65, at the 2:02 mark after he was successful on his two attempts from the charity stripe. The Tribe answered back quickly, tallying six straight makers, courtesy of a McDowell three-pointer and a Danny Sumner bucket with 56 seconds left. Kendrick Brown made one-of-two attempts from the free throw line, staking the Tribe to a three-point lead, 71-68, with 28 seconds left. The never-say-die attitude of the Flames witnessed Curry connected on a 27-footer with 18 seconds left, tying the game at 71 all. A Sumner contested three-point attempt fell incomplete, sending Liberty to its first double-overtime contest since Feb. 16, 2002. Schneider once again put the Tribe on his back, hitting a three-point bucket at 4:39 in the second overtime, giving William & Mary the 74-71 lead. However, that would be all the Tribe would score during the final five minutes, as Liberty tallied nine straight points to seal the victory. Curry scored six of the nine points, capping the game with a transition dunk with three seconds left. Curry, tournament MVP, finished with 21 points on 9-of-19 shooting. The freshman played 50 minutes in the contest, tying a program record for minutes played. Mike Minnett was the last Flame to play 50 minutes in a game, when he did on Feb. 10, 1986, four years prior to Curry's birth.

Game 6
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty head coach Ritchie McKay must have loved the outcome of Saturday's double-overtime victory, because he ordered the sequel behind the late-game heroics of Seth Curry, in the Liberty Flames' (5-1) 69-66 overtime victory over the George Mason Patriots (5-2), inside the Vines Center. Jesse Sanders tallied a bucket at 18:37, pushing Liberty's lead to 10 points, 34-24. However, the Patriots came roaring back, scoring eight straight points to pull within two points, 34-32. A Vaughn bucket at 16:33 finished the run. Sanders put Liberty back on the scoreboard, 36-32, via two free throws at 15:59. A Birdsong bucket cut the lead back down to two points, 36-34, at 15:23. The Patriots made a push, taking its first lead of the game at the 11:26 mark, 44-43, courtesy of an Andre Cornelius trey. George Mason's first of the game. That bucket capped a 10-7 run. Five straight Curry points, capped a 7-4 spurt, helping the Flames reclaim the lead, 51-48, at the 8:09 mark. Back-to-back points by Cam Long gave the Patriots the advantage, 52-51, with 6:09 remaining in the contest. Later, a Monroe tip-in at 3:52, gave George Mason a two-point lead, 56-54. A Smith bucket and two free throws by Sanders gave Liberty back a two point lead, 58-56, with 1:48 on the clock. But, the Patriots scored five straight markers on a Long triple and a Birdsong layup, taking a solid three-point advantage, 61-58, with 29 seconds remaining, thus setting the stage for more heroics from Curry. For the second straight game, Curry nailed a trey, helping send Liberty into overtime. The bucket knotted the game at 61 a piece with 17.7 remaining on the clock. Curry nailed a three-pointer from an identical spot on the floor on Saturday night, tying the game and sending it to double-overtime against William & Mary. Cornelius put the Patriots up early in the overtime period, tallying a two-pointer in the paint at 4:43, giving George Mason the 63-61 advantage. A Vaughn three-point field goal at 3:31 gave the Patriots a four point lead, 66-62. The Patriots would not score again, as Smith nailed a trifecta, bringing Liberty within a point, 66-65, with 2:28 left. Then with 40.6 seconds on the clock, Curry rolled off an Ohman screen and nailed an 18-footer, giving Liberty a one point lead, 67-66. Liberty would never trail again. A Vaughn pass went through the hands of Birdsong and out of bounds with 13.1 seconds left. Curry was fouled by Cornelius before the ball was inbounded, sending the freshman to the line for the one-in-one. Curry nailed both attempts, giving Liberty the three point lead, 69-66, with 13.1 seconds remaining. George Mason tried to tie the contest on Vaughn's three-point attempt with three seconds left. The attempt hit nothing but iron, but Birdsong grabbed the offensive board. Birdsong tried to dish the ball out to the three point arc, but it went right into the waiting hands of Sanders, sealing the Liberty victory. Curry tallied a game-high 22 points on 8-of-19 shooting, including 3-of-9 from beyond the arc.

Anthony Smith poured in a game-high 27 points on 11-of-17 shooting, lifting the Liberty Flames (6-1, 1-1 BSC) over the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs (2-5, 1-1) in Big South Conference action, 68-59, inside the Vines Center. A Grayson Flittner three-point tally at 15:00 broke a 7-7 tie, pushing the Bulldogs ahead, 10-7, giving Gardner-Webb the advantage, something they would enjoy most of the first half. Answering a Seth Curry trey at 13:51, Jonathan Moore hit a three-point bucket at 13:30, extending the Gardner-Webb advantage to six points, 18-12. Liberty managed to cut the Gardner-Webb lead down to two points, 20-18, via a 6-2 spurt, capped by a Smith bucket in the lane after Brolin Floyd picked off Aaron Linn's pass. Gardner-Webb quickly answered, using a 9-2 run to extend its lead to a game-high nine points, 29-20. Joshua Henley scored a bucket in transition, capping the run. Henley was fouled on the play by Kyle Ohman, but missed the ensuing free throw attempt. The Flames followed by scoring six straight points, cutting the Gardner-Webb advantage to three points, 29-26. Bill Weaver scored a bucket in the paint, followed by a Johnny Stephene layup and a basket by Smith capped the run at 5:34. Flittner hit a three-pointer at 2:07, extending the Bulldog's lead back to seven points, 35-28, finishing off a 6-2 Gardner-Webb spurt. Liberty surged into the intermission, cutting the deficit to two points, 35-33, with five unanswered points. A Linn make from the charity stripe at 10:23, broke a tie, giving Gardner-Webb a one point advantage, 49-48. Gardner-Webb out-scored Liberty over a two minute span, 6-2, taking a one point lead, 55-54, as the run was capped by a Linn jumper at 5:04. That would be the last time the Bulldogs would lead. Smith tallied a bucket at 4:34, giving Liberty lead for good, 56-55. While Liberty would never trail again, the suspense was heavy. Gardner-Webb had three chances to score on their next possession, but Curry pulled down a board at 3:27 to eliminate the threat. Smith added a free throw at 2:49 to give the Flames a two point lead, 57-55. The Bulldogs continued to charge, getting within three points, 60-57, courtesy of a Moore layup on a Blank pass at 1:09. Smith connected on his second three-pointer, via a Curry pass at 1:22, pushing Liberty's lead to six points, 63-57. The Flames would secure their fifth straight victory with a 5-2 run, sealed by a Curry free throw with two seconds remaining. Smith pulled down seven rebounds to go with his game-high 27 points, while Ohman pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds, while chipping in seven points.

Game 8
Clemson, S.C.

After leading for the majority of the game, the Liberty Flames (6-2, 1-1 BSC) nearly won their second game in less than 24 hours, but fell late to the Clemson Tigers (9-0, 0-0 ACC), 80-75, inside Littlejohn Coliseum. Liberty defeated Gardner-Webb, 68-59, Saturday afternoon inside the Vines Center. Upon completion of the conference contest, the Flames boarded a charter flight out of Lynchburg for Sunday's non-conference tilt at Clemson. The Tigers jumped out to a quick 6-2 lead, capped by a Raymond Sykes bucket in the paint at 17:14. Liberty quickly countered, and charged ahead with their first advantage of the contest, 17-11, courtesy of a 15-5 run. Seth Curry and Kyle Ohman each hit two triples during the spurt, while Anthony Smith capped the run by hitting the back end of a two shot foul at 14:21. Clemson grabbed the lead back at 27-25, via a 16-8 spurt. A Trevor Booker putback at 8:11 ended the Tigers' push to retake the lead. The Clemson advantage lasted one possession, as Smith tallied a bucket in the lane at 8:30, knotting the contest at 27. The Flames proceeded to tally eight straight points, taking a 35-27 lead, as Ohman hit a three-point bucket at 4:53, capping the burst. Liberty closed out the half on a 7-4 advantage, extending its lead to seven points, 42-35. A Curry trey and a Smith layup finished the run. Smith put his bucket in with four seconds left, before intermission. Clemson came charging back, grabbing a one point lead, 67-66, via a 17-6 run. Domontez Stitt capped the charge with a layup at 6:44. Curry fouled Stitt on the play to send him to the line for one attempt. Stitt sank the free throw, giving the Tigers the lead. Curry came right back down the court to make a three-point bucket, helping Liberty retake the lead, 69-67, with 6:03 left. Smith followed with a bucket at 4:20, as Booker fouled the Plano, Texas native. Smith missed the ensuing free throw, but Liberty held a four point advantage, 71-67. That would be the last time Liberty would lead in the game. Clemson closed out the game with a 13-4 surge. K.C. Rivers hit a trey at 2:29 putting the Tigers ahead for good, 72-71. With Liberty trailing by three points, 76-73, Curry took a heavily contested three pointer from the wing with 47.5 seconds left. The attempt rimmed in-and-out and ultimately, sealed Liberty's fate. Buckets by Booker and Rivers secured the narrow Clemson victory. Curry tallied a team-high 24 points on 9-of-16 shooting, while grabbing four rebounds.

Seth Curry scored a game-high 22 points and Johnny Stephene poured in a career-high 14 points, as the Liberty Flames (7-2) grabbed a non-conference win over visiting Anderson (3-4), inside the Vines Center, 88-46. A Jarret Johnson bucket at 18:35 put Anderson ahead by two points, 4-2, but Liberty quickly went on a 13-2 run, grabbing a 15-6 advantage. Curry and Kyle Ohman hit back-to-back three-point buckets, with Ohman's connection capping the run at 14:48. The Trojans mounted a mini-comeback, reeling off a 9-3 run, which cut the Liberty advantage to three points, 18-15. A trey by Brandon Young at 12:30 finished off the visitors' run. Liberty then took control of the first half, holding the Trojans to four points for the next 11 minutes, as the Flames reeled off a 20-4 run, taking a 38-19 lead. Two Stephene layups bookended a Chris Summers bucket in the paint to cap the run. Stephene's two markers at 1:35 finished off the surge. Anderson broke the run with a triple by Nick Trull at 1:03, cutting the Liberty lead to 16 points, 38-22. A Bill Weaver basket and an Anthony Smith layup at 31.9 put Liberty up by 20 points, 42-22, going into the intermission. The Flames jumped out of the gate on a 20-9 run, extending their lead to 31 points, 62-31, via a Curry trey at 12:42. Liberty reached its largest lead at the 4:00 mark, 45 points, when Stephene connected on a three-pointer from the corner, extending the Flames' lead to 82-37, as the home team cruised to victory. Curry led all scorers with 22 points on 8-of-13 shooting, including 4-of-8 from three-point range. Stephene poured in a career-high 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting. Smith tallied 12 points, while Brolin Floyd chipped in 10 points and pulled down a game-high seven rebounds.

Game 10
Rosemont, Ill.

Seth Curry hit two-of-three free throw attempts with 17 seconds left to give the Liberty Flames (7-3) a one point lead, but a dramatic finish, including two Dar Tucker free throws with 1.1 seconds left, gave the DePaul Blue Demons (5-3) a 64-63 victory, inside Allstate Arena. A Brolin Floyd trey at 16:07 gave Liberty its first lead of the game, 7-6. DePaul retook the lead, 11-9, via a Dar Tucker three-point bucket at 13:24. The Flames trailed by two points again, 14-12, after Tyler Baker hit a three-pointer at 12:12. It was at that point that DePaul opened up the game via a 13-0 run, storming out to the 27-12 lead. Another trey by Tucker capped the run at 7:08. Floyd put Liberty on the scoreboard for the first time in nearly six minutes, slamming home a put back at 6:38. Floyd's bucket cut the DePaul lead to 13 points, 27-14. DePaul used a 12-9 point advantage going into the intermission to take a 16 point lead into the break, 39-23. Seth Curry sunk two free throws with 4.7 seconds left, giving the nation's leading freshman scorer his first markers of the game, cutting the Blue Demons' lead to a 16 point halftime advantage. The Flames were able to cut its deficit to six points coming out of the break, 48-42, via 19-9 run, capped by a Kyle Ohman trey at 11:19. Ohman's bucket capped 10 straight Liberty points, which included two Antony Smith buckets and back-to-back three-pointers by Curry and Ohman. Liberty continued to chip away at the DePaul lead, getting down to two points, 60-58. During that run, Curry hit three straight three-pointers, followed by a Floyd bucket in the paint at 4:26. Ohman hit a three-point bucket at 2:12 to put Liberty up by one point, 61-60, bringing Liberty back from its previous 16 point deficit. Mac Koshwal's jump hook at 1:52 gave the Blue Demons the advantage again, 62-61. Liberty retook the lead, 63-62, when Curry was fouled by Will Walker with 17 seconds left on a three-point attempt. Curry went to the line to shoot the three free throws from the charity stripe. Curry hit the first two, while the third attempt didn't fall. DePaul called timeout, setting up a dramatic finish. A Jeremiah Kelly outlet pass was deflected by Ohman, sending the ball toward the three-point line. Curry dove for the loose ball and looked for a teammate. Tucker grabbed the ball out of Curry's hands, turned and made a move toward the basket, running right into Ohman, who was trying to receive a handoff from Curry. Ohman was called for a non-shooting foul. The personal foul made eight team fouls for Liberty, sending Tucker to the line for the one-an-one. Tucker nailed both attempts, giving DePaul the one point lead, 64-63, with 1.1 seconds left. A full court heave missed the mark, giving DePaul a slim victory. Curry finished with a game-high 16 points, after being held to two points in the opening stanza.

Game 11
St. Louis, Mo.

The Liberty Flames (7-4) dropped two games in a row for the first time this season, after falling to the Saint Louis Billikens (6-4), 73-70, inside the brand-new Chaifetz Arena. An Anthony Smith trey and a Brolin Floyd layup at 17:24 quickly gave the Flames an early 5-0 lead. Saint Louis rebounded quickly, scoring eight straight points to grab a three-point advantage, 8-5. A Barry Eberhardt bucket at 14:40 capped the run, which also included four points from Tommie Liddell III and a hoop from Brian Conklin. The Flames came right back, taking a three-point lead of their own, 14-11, via a 9-3 spurt, capped by Jesse Sanders' layup at 10:44. The Liberty run inspired Saint Louis to reel off a 10-0 run, retaking the lead, 21-14. A Kevin Lisch trey at 6:46 finished the streak. The Billikens managed to extend their lead to 10 points, 36-26, going into the break. A Lisch triple with 10 seconds left pushed the Saint Louis advantage up to 12 points, 36-24, but Johnny Stephene tallied a bucket with three seconds left to pull Liberty within 10 points going into the intermission. Liberty started the second stanza like it started the first, scoring five straight points. A Kyle Ohman three and back-to-back free throws by Smith cut the Saint Louis advantage to five points, 36-31, at the 18:21 mark. Saint Louis pushed its lead right back to 10 points, 47-37, via an 11-6 spurt, capped by another trey by Lisch at 14:06. Then the Billikens extended their lead to 16 points, 63-47, courtesy of a 16-10 run. A Lisch three-point basket and a Kwamain Mitchell layup at 7:08 capped the streak. The Billikens pushed the advantage up to 17 points, 66-49, after Liddell completed a three-point play at 3:57. It was at that moment the Flames' "Cardiac Kids" mantra kicked in, down by 17. Liberty spent the final 3:57 to put an assault on the Billikens. The Flames quickly cut the deficit down to seven points, 66-59, via 10 straight points. Smith scored two free throws at 1:19 to finish the run. A Curry bucket with 42 seconds left closed the gap to four points, 70-66. Ohman stole the ensuing Saint Louis inbounds pass and tallied a bucket in the paint, cutting the lead to two points, 70-68. Mitchell connected one-of-two free throws with 27 seconds left, giving Saint Louis a three-point lead, 71-68. The Flames quickly came down the court, and Stephene attempted a trey from the wing, which missed its mark with 12 seconds left. Lisch made two free throws with nine seconds remaining, making it a five-point Saint Louis lead, 73-68. Smith retaliated with a bucket with two seconds left, trimming the deficit back to three points, 73-70. Liddell tossed the inbounds pass out of bounds, giving Liberty one final opportunity with 1.9 seconds left. Smith attempted a three from the wing that was blocked by Liddell as time expired. Smith led the Flames with 21 points on 7-of-15 shooting.

Game 12
Las Vegas, Nev.

Seth Curry tallied a career-high 30 points and Anthony Smith chipped in with 23 points himself, helping the Liberty Flames (8-4) top the Northern Colorado Bears (3-8), 75-70, inside the Orleans Arena, as part of the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Classic. Two Smith free throws at 16:14 staked Liberty to the early 7-6 advantage; however Northern Colorado jumped out to a nine-point lead, 19-10, courtesy of a 13-4 run. Two free throws by Will Figures capped the run nearly four minutes later. The Bears extended the lead to 12 points, 34-22, scoring 15 of the game's next 27 points. Mike Proctor capped the span of time with a bucket in the paint at 4:49. Chris Summers put Liberty on the scoreboard at 3:56, ending a four-minute scoreless period for the Flames. Summers' bucket cut Liberty's deficit to 10 points, 34-24. Liberty then closed out the half on an 8-2 run, going into the intermission down six points, 38-32. During the run, Smith tallied six points and Kyle Ohman capped the half's scoring with two free throws with 42.2 seconds left. Two Jesse Sanders' free throws at 16:34 gave Liberty its first lead since the opening four minutes of the game. Sanders' markers gave Liberty a one-point lead, 41-40, and completed a 9-2 Liberty surge. Neal King sank two free throws at 15:28 to allow Northern Colorado to recapture the lead, 46-44. A Curry layup at 12:38 extended the Liberty advantage to three points, 51-48. The Bears clawed back, taking a two-point advantage and the lead back from the Flames, 53-51, courtesy of five straight Northern Colorado points. A Kingman trey at 2:43 continued the saw-saw battle, giving the Bears the lead again, 68-66. After a Jesse Sanders turnover on a Devon Beitzel steal, the Bears extended its lead to four points, 70-66, when Beitzel scored in transition at 2:20. But that would be the final time North Colorado would find the scoreboard during the final two-plus minutes of the game, as Liberty finished the contest on a 9-0 run to seal the victory. Smith tallied a bucket in the paint at 1:12 to put Liberty up for good, 71-70. Two free throws by Brolin Floyd at 1:04 gave the Flames a three-point lead, 74-70. Curry and Floyd each sank an attempt from the charity stripe over the final minute of play to give the Flames the five-point victory.

Game 13
Las Vegas, Nev.

The Liberty Flames (9-4) received 21 points from Anthony Smith, in the final day of the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Classic, defeating the USC Upstate Spartans, 77-64. A Seth Curry trey at 17:19 gave the Flames an early 8-3 lead, but the Spartans tied the game after scoring five straight points. A three-point bucket by Josh Chavis and a layup by Bobby Davis knotted the game at eight apiece at the 16:04 mark. Nick Schneiders scored a bucket at 15:08, staking the Spartans to their first lead of the game, 10-8. Liberty retook the lead, 17-13, via a 9-3 spurt, capped by a Curry three-pointer at 12:17. Bill Weaver was the recipient from Johnny Stephene on an ally opp pass at 8:18, pushing Liberty's lead to nine points, 27-18. Weaver's bucket capped a 10-5 run. The Spartans came roaring back, closing out the half on an 18-7 run to take the lead going into the intermission, 36-35. Gabor Boros hit a three-point bucket with 29.1 seconds left, cutting the score to a one point Liberty lead, 35-34. Following the bucket, the Liberty bench was charged with a technical foul at 29.1, and Chavis connected on both free throws. Smith got thing started for the Flames in the second half, scoring Liberty's first 10 points, helping Liberty to a 16-4 run to start the second half. A Smith trey, followed by two Kyle Ohman free throws at 13:30 capped the run, giving the Flames an 11 point lead, 51-40. Liberty continued its surge on the Spartans, going on an 18-7 run to storm out to the 69-47 advantage. A Smith basket and a Stephene bucket on transition at 5:10 capped the streak for the Flames. Stephene's two-pointer pushed the Liberty advantage to 22 points, the largest of the game. At that juncture Liberty head coach Ritchie McKay emptied his bench. USC Upstate ended the final five minutes on a 17-8 run, but it wasn't enough as Liberty grabbed its ninth win of the season. Smith led all scorers with 21 points on 7-of-8, including 3-of-4 from three-point range.

Game 14
Lynchburg, Va.

For the first time in program history, the Liberty Flames (10-4) will celebrate the New Year with 10 wins notched on its belt, as they topped the Cincinnati Christian Golden Eagles (7-6), 86-55, inside the Vines Center. The Flames stormed out to an 11-3 lead, which was capped by a Seth Curry heavily contested jumper from the corner at 15:32. Liberty scored the first five points of the game before Cincinnati Christian tallied a trey by Michael Smith at 17:20. Liberty extended its lead quickly to 15 points, 23-8, via a 12-5 spurt. Jesse Sanders grabbed a loose ball and laid it in at the 10:07 mark, capping the streak. A Curry trey at 6:10 pushed the score to 34-16 in favor of the Flames. The Golden Eagles surged on a quick 6-2 run, via three-point buckets by David Pritchard and Jake Santel, cutting the Liberty advantage to 14 points, 36-22, at the 3:33 mark. An Anthony Smith bucket in the paint at 3:18 halted the Cincinnati Christian run and started a new one for Liberty. Including Smith's bucket, Liberty finished the first stanza on a 10-0 run, taking the 46-22 advantage into the intermission. The Golden Eagles hung with Liberty to start the second stanza, trailing by a point on the Flames' 9-8 advantage to start the game's final period. Vondaze Thornton had the chance to keep Cincinnati Christian even in second half points with Liberty coming out of the break, but he missed the second of a two shot foul at 16:15. His first attempt sank through, cutting the Liberty advantage to 25 points, 55-30. A Curry bucket and four straight Tyler Baker free throws quickly pushed the Liberty lead up to 31 points, 61-30, with 13:52 remaining. The Flames cruised for the remainder of the contest, holding the 31-point lead for the closing 13:52 to grab the 86-55 victory. Curry led all scorers with 21 points on 7-of-13 shooting, including 5-of-9 from beyond the arc. Floyd pulled down a career-high and game-best nine rebounds, while pouring in 14 points. Baker, Smith and Jesse Sanders all chipped in 10 points in the winning cause. Smith's 10 points pushed him past Chris Caldwell (1,391) for 12th all-time in Liberty's annals for points. Smith now has 1,393 career points.

The Liberty Flames (10-5, 1-2 BSC) had an opportunity in the finals seconds to capture a road victory, but couldn't secure the game at the free throw line, as they fell, 59-57, to the Winthrop Eagles (2-10, 1-2 BSC), inside the Winthrop Coliseum. Reggie Middleton broke a scoreless tie at 18:42 when his jumper from the elbow took three caroms off the cylinder before dropping in, giving the Eagles an early 2-0 lead. The Flames rattled off an 8-2 run, taking the four-point lead, 8-4, courtesy of three Seth Curry free throws at 15:39. Winthrop came roaring back, tying the game at 12 apiece, netting eight of the game's next 12 points. A George Valentine putback at 10:15 capped the streak. Liberty rode back-to-back-to-back three-pointers, one by Curry and two by Anthony Smith to take the 21-17 lead. Smith's second in a row capped the 9-4 run at 7:25. Winthrop closed out the half on a tear, scoring the final seven-straight points, taking a one-point advantage into the intermission, 26-25. Valentine ended the first half's scoring with a bucket in the paint with 59.3 seconds left. A bucket by Smith and a Kyle Ohman jumper off the glass at 2:13, tied the game, 55-55. But, Stanley scored again, this time in the paint at 1:10, giving Winthrop a two point advantage, 57-55. Tyler Baker was fouled with 46 seconds left, sending the Albuquerque, N.M., native to the line for two free throws and a chance to tie the game. Baker missed the second free throw, leaving Liberty with a one-point deficit, 57-56. Curry missed a runner in the lane with 10 seconds left and fouled Charles Corbin when the Winthrop forward came down with the board. Corbin missed the second attempt from the one-in-one opportunity. On transition, Faison grabbed Smith on his shot attempt from the wing with 1.1 seconds left. Smith made the first free throw attempt, once again cutting the lead to one point, 58-57. Smith's final attempt rimmed out and into the waiting hands of Corbin. Baker fouled Corbin with 1.0 seconds left. Corbin once again made the first end of the one-in-one attempt, but missing the second. Ohman tried to heave the rebound, but the attempt fell harmlessly, ending a 10-game losing streak for Winthrop. Smith led all scorers with 24 points on 9-of-14 shooting. Curry tallied 18 makers, while Brolin Floyd pulled down a team-high eight rebounds.

Game 16
Clinton, S.C.

Seth Curry's trey as time expired in overtime forced a second extra frame, but the Liberty Flames (10-6, 1-3 BSC) couldn't hold on during the second extended period, dropping their second straight contest away from home, 67-66, to the Presbyterian Blue Hose (6-9, 3-1 BSC), inside the Templeton Center. Anthony Smith sent the Flames into overtime with a trey with 10 second remaining in regulation, via Kyle Ohman pass. A stellar defensive effort on the Flames' behalf, limited the Blue Hose from attempting a shot in the closing 10 ticks. Josh Johnson put Presbyterian up by a point, 52-51, in the first overtime when he made one-of-two free throws at 4:20. An Ohman trey at 3:45 staked the Flames to a two point advantage, 54-52. Miller retaliated with a three-pointer of his own at 2:23, retaking the lead for the Blue Hose, 55-54. Tyler Baker was fouled with 30 seconds left by Coleman, sending the redshirt junior to the line for two shots. Baker sank the back end of the two-shot foul, tying the game at 55-55. Johnson, with a hand in his face, looked to take would-be game-winning shot with six seconds left, as his trey sailed through the net, giving Presbyterian the three point lead, 58-55. In quick transition, Curry, from the right wing, pumped faked Johnson, who went flying by, giving the freshman a wide-open look. Curry buried his first three of the game, as the ball crisply went through the net as time expired, sending the game to a second overtime. Presbyterian started things off with a three-point bucket by Pierre Miller with 4:09 remaining in the second overtime, staking the Blue Hose to a 61-58 advantage. The Flames struck right back with a three-point bucket by Smith at 3:57, knotting the game once again, this time at 61-61. Curry then put Liberty up three points, 64-61, when he was fouled on a jumper from the elbow, making the shot and the ensuring free throw at 2:54. Coleman cut the Blue Hose's deficit to one point, 64-63, when he tallied both markers on his two shot foul at 2:30. Miller made the second free throw after being fouled by Jesse Sanders at 1:52, tying the game at 64-64. Liberty briefly took the lead back, 66-64, when Floyd tipped in a Johnny Stephene miss with 55 seconds left. The heroics were not done for Presbyterian, as Miller drained a three-pointer with 28 seconds left, giving the Blue Hose a narrow 67-66 advantage. And that is where the score would remain, as Curry missed a three-point attempt that was batted away into Smith's hands. Smith threw the desperation attempt up as time expired to no avail, sending the Blue Hose to the dramatic victory. Smith led all scorers with 27 points on 9-of-15 shooting, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Curry added 15 points, while Ohman and Floyd chipped in eight points each. Smith racked up his seventh career double-double with a career-high 12 rebounds.

Four players scored in double figures, led by Seth Curry and his 27 points, as the Liberty Flames (11-6, 2-3 BSC) defeated the Charleston Southern Buccaneers (5-9, 1-3 BSC), 79-60, inside the Vines Center. Kelvin Martin tallied a bucket at 18:09 to mark the contest's first scoring, but the two-pointer was promptly followed by eight straight Liberty points to give the Flames the lead. Brolin Floyd tallied a bucket, followed by two three-point buckets by Curry, his second capping the streak at 16:31, giving the Flames an 8-2 lead. The Flames and Buccaneers traded buckets, which was then followed by six straight Charleston Southern points, tying the score at 12-12. A Giedrius Knysas bucket capped the run at 13:09. Four straight free throws by Floyd, followed by a Tyler Baker and Curry bucket was part of eight straight Liberty points, starting a 10-2 run. A Baker bucket at 8:05 capped the spurt, giving the Flames the lead for the remainder of the first half, 22-14. A Jamarco Warren bucket at 4:48 brought Charleston Southern to within five points, 29-24, via a 10-5 jaunt. Two Curry free throws and an Anthony Smith dunk at 3:52 extended the Flames' lead up to nine points, 33-24. Charleston Southern then scored five straight points to cut the Liberty lead down to four points, 33-29. A Knysas bucket at 1:22 ended the scoring spurt. Curry would add a field goal at 1:00 to finish the first half scoring, sending Liberty into the intermission with a six point lead, 35-29. Warren scored seven straight points and Knysas tallied two markers in the paint to help Charleston Southern score nine unanswered points to open the second half, storming to a four point lead, 39-35, the Buccaneers' first since opening two minutes of the game. Smith hit a trey and then connected on a free throw for an old-fashioned three-point play at 16:24 to give Liberty the lead back at 41-39. Johnny Stephene tallied a lay-up at 16:01, capping eight straight Liberty points, giving the Flames' a four point lead, 43-39. Two Omar Carter buckets cut the Liberty advantage to two points, 45-43, his second coming at 14:48. Carter completed the three-point play with a free throw at 13:45, giving Charleston Southern a one point lead, 48-47, finishing off a 5-2 spurt. Charleston Southern's last advantage of the game didn't last too long, one Liberty possession to be exact, as a Curry bucket in the lane regained the lead for the Flames, 49-48, with 13:27 left to play. Curry's two-pointer jumped started a 32-12 Liberty run to close the game. Pacing the Flames with 27 points was Curry, his highest total this season inside the Vines Center.

Game 18
Lynchburg, Va.

Brolin Floyd and Seth Curry each tallied a team-high 15 points, leading the Liberty Flames (12-6, 3-3 BSC) to victory, 68-55, over the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers (7-10, 1-4 BSC), inside the Vines Center. Coastal Carolina stormed out to an early 11-4 lead, which included six points by Joseph Harris. The run was capped by a bucket on a Harris spin move in the post at 12:56. Bill Weaver tallied a bucket on a Johnny Stephene pass at 10:08, cutting the Chanticleers' lead to three points, 13-10. Weaver's bucket capped a 6-2 spurt for the Flames. Baskets by Dexter Moore and another by Harris quickly extended the Flames' deficit to eight points, 18-10, with 8:36 left in the opening stanza. However, Liberty quickly countered, going on a 12-6 run to cut the Chanticleers' lead to two points, 24-22. Stephene's wide-open trey completed the run with 4:21 remaining. Mario Edwards retallied with a trey of his own on Coastal Carolina's next possession, move its lead to five points, 27-22, with 3:50 remaining in the first period. The Flames then exploded by running off a 13-2 outburst in the opening stanza's final two minutes to take a six point lead into the intermission, 35-29. Kyle Ohman nailed a triple to bring the hosts within two points, 27-25. Curry then completed an old fashioned three-point play at 2:18, prompting a streak of 10 straight Liberty markers. The Chanticleers tried to close their deficit on their final possession, but a Mario Sisinni pass was intercepted by Ohman, who found Floyd for a dunk as time expired, sending Liberty into the break up six points, 35-29. A Curry putback at 19:44 extended Liberty's lead to eight points, 37-29, coming out of the break. However, Coastal Carolina scored the next eight points to knot the game at 37-37. Two Harris buckets and a couple free throws by Anthony Breeze capped the burst at 16:31. Liberty answered with a 12-3 run to retake the lead. A Stephene layup at 12:10 capped the run, as the Flames took the nine point lead, 49-40. Liberty extended its lead to 15 points, 66-51, after Floyd sank two free throws with 1:05 remaining. Coastal Carolina wouldn't get any closer than 13 points in the final minute, as the Flames held on for the home victory. Floyd and Curry each tallied 15 points in the winning cause. Floyd's point total tied his career high he set in the season opener against Montreat. Smith chipped in 14 points on 5-of-8 shooting, including 4-of-6 from three-point land. Ohman pulled down a team-high seven rebounds, while dishing out six assists and grabbing two steals.

Game 19
Lexington, Va.

Seth Curry and Anthony Smith each had career days, as the Liberty Flames (13-6, 4-3 BSC) snapped the VMI Keydets (14-3, 6-1 BSC) winning streak at 10 games, in front of a capacity crowd of 5,029 fans inside Cameron Hall. The gathering at Cameron Hall served as the first capacity crowd in the facility's history, topping previous appearances by North Carolina and a Ralph Samson led Virginia squad. Keith Gabriel stroked a three at 17:33, giving VMI an early five point edge, 7-2. Liberty bounced back quickly, as a Kyle Ohman trey at 14:36 capped an 8-2 run, allowing the Flames to take their first lead on the afternoon, 10-9. The Keydets retook the lead, 23-16, courtesy of a 14-6 jaunt. Chavis Holmes finished off the sprint with a three-point bucket at 11:49. The run include another Gabriel trey and a Willie Bell bucket in the paint. Liberty stormed back, running out to a 10 point lead, 36-26, as the visitors netted 20 of the game's next 23 points. Curry hit three field goals from beyond the arc and punctuated the scoring burst with a two point field goal at 1:21. Curry scored 13 of Liberty's 20 points during the run. Two Gabriel buckets in the closing minute broke up the Liberty sprint, before Anthony Smith grabbed an offensive board after Gabriel blocked a Jesse Sanders shot, placing the ball through the cylinder with 2.2 seconds left. The bucket sent the Flames into the intermission with a nine point lead, 39-30. The Flames pushed their lead up to 13 points, 46-33, scoring 10 of the first 13 points in the second period. Smith tallied a bucket in the paint at 17:17, ending the run. Liberty then extended its lead to 16 points, 55-39, when Curry sank his fourth free consecutive free throw at 13:54. VMI regained its composure and surged back into the contest, cutting its deficit to seven points, 55-48, via nine straight points. Austin Kenon capped the run with a lay-up at 12:08. However, the lane jumper would prove be as close as the home team would get the remainder of the game. Liberty quickly extended the lead back up to 17 points, 67-50, courtesy of a Sanders old-fashioned three-point play at 9:22, to finish off a 12-2 spurt. Liberty extended the lead up to 20 points, 75-55, via two Ohman makes from the charity stripe at 6:04. Liberty, who leads the Big South in field goal shooting percentage, increases its season average by shooting 53.2 percent (33-of-62) from the floor, while hitting 42.9 percent (9-of-21) of its three-point attempts. The game also marked the eighth contest Liberty has shot over 50 percent from the floor and the 53.2 average is the fifth best on the year. Curry led all scorers with his career-high 35 points on 10-of-15 shooting. Curry went 4-of-6 from three-point range and connected on all 11 of his free throw attempts. Smith pulled down a career-high 17 rebounds to go with his 21 points.

Game 20
High Point, N.C.

The Liberty Flames (14-6, 5-3) scored 14 straight points over the final 1:43 to overcome a nine point deficit and escape with their second straight conference road victory, defeating the High Point Panthers (5-13, 1-7 BSC), 61-56, inside the Millis Athletic Center. A basket by Johnny Stephene broke a 45-45 tie and gave the Flames a 47-45 lead at 7:33 in the second half. It was the last field goal Liberty would score until the game's final seconds. High Point ripped the lead away from the Flames with 11 straight points to take a nine point lead, 56-47. A dunk by Short completed the run at 2:10. After the bucket, High Point did not score again. Liberty ran off 14 straight points to close the contest, as the Panthers did not attempt another field goal in the final two minutes. Trailing by seven points after two Smith free throws, the senior from Plano, Texas was fouled by Barbour on a three-point attempt with 64 seconds remaining. Smith sank all three of his attempts from the charity stripe, cutting the Liberty deficit to four points. On the ensuing High Point possession, Barbour and Singleton collided and fell on top of Sanders facing a half court pressure from the visitors, causing the ball to go out of bounds to the Flames. The High Point turnover set up another three-point bucket from the wing by Smith with 36.1 seconds left to bring Liberty to within one point at 56-55. Making the first of his three thefts in the final 25 seconds, Smith plucked the ball out of David Singleton's hands in front of the High Point bench. On the turnover, the Flames found Ohman on the far wing for a trey, which the junior hit to give Liberty a two point lead, 58-56. Smith followed the triple by snaring the ball from Singleton with 10 seconds, and Seth Curry scored a bucket in transition putting Liberty up by four, 60-56 with 4.7 ticks left on the game clock. High Point called timeout, but the Panthers turned the ball over again when Smith intercepted a Barbour pass, sealing the Liberty victory. Sanders added a free throw with 2.2 seconds left to cap the five point triumph, 61-56. Smith scored 19 second half points and finished with 24.

Seth Curry scored 30 points and Anthony Smith notched his ninth career double-double, but it wasn't enough as the Liberty Flames (14-7, 5-4 BSC) fell in double overtime to the Radford Highlanders (10-10, 7-2 BSC), in front of 7,392 fans inside the Vines Center, 94-82. A Curry jumper with 2:29 left in the game gave Liberty a three point lead, 69-66, before Thomas scaled its deficit back to one point, 69-68, with a bucket at 1:06. Brolin Floyd was fouled by McEachin with 34 seconds left in the contest, sending the freshman to the line for two shots. Floyd hit the front end, putting Liberty up by two points, 70-68. Parakhouski snatched a rebound off a Johnson three-point miss and put it in with 15 seconds left, tying the game at 70-70. After a Floyd turnover, Parakhouski missed a ten foot jumper and Thomas snared the rebound. He tossed three tip attempts at the cylinder with no avail as time expired, sending the game to the first overtime tied at 70 apiece. Liberty would get on the board early in the first extra period, as Ohman hit both of his attempts from the charity stripe at 4:37, giving the Flames a two point advantage, 72-70. A Curry jumper at 3:02 extended the Flames' advantage to four points, 76-72, but Radford scored the next five points, retaking the lead, 77-76. Johnson hit a three-pointer and Parakhouski connected on a jumper at 1:10, capping the streak. Ohman gave Liberty the lead on a layup with 37 seconds left, 78-77. Floyd fouled Thomas with 12 seconds left, sending the senior to the line to shoot two free throws. Floyd fouled out on the play and Thomas missed the front end of the two-point foul, tying the game at 78-78. Curry attempted a jumper as time expired, but it would fall harmlessly into the hands of Thomas, sending the game into the second overtime. Radford scored seven straight points before Liberty was able to put any markers on the board in the second extra frame. Phillip Martin hit the front end of a two shot foul at 1:27 to finish the 7-0 run, taking the 85-78 lead. Liberty would get no closer than three points during the final five minute period, 85-82, when Smith hit a three-pointer with 48 seconds remaining. Radford would finish the contest on a 9-0 run, to seal the 12 point triumph, 94-82, and outscore the Flames 16-4 during the final five minutes of action. Curry led all scorers with 30 points, while pulling down six rebounds.

Game 22
Lynchburg, Va.

Kyle Ohman tied a career-high 26 points and Anthony Smith reached a milestone, as the Liberty Flames (15-7, 6-4 BSC) topped the visiting High Point Panthers (5-15, 1-9 BSC), 78-63, inside the Vines Center. The contest started out with a three-point bonanza and by the time the first media timeout was reached at 12:45, Liberty had tallied five three-point buckets, while High Point had notched two of their own, and Liberty held a narrow three point lead, 19-16. Seth Curry and Anthony Smith each had two treys, while Kyle Ohman tallied the other for the Flames. Eugene Harris knocked down three treys of his own coming out of the media break, but Liberty matched High Point shot-for-shot. When Harris hit his third three-pointer, it only gave the Panthers a two point lead, 27-25, with 9:52 left in the opening stanza. Liberty kicked it into overdrive, sprinting on a 12-0 run, capped by a Curry trey at 6:27. Curry's bucket came after Ohman poured in nine straight points during the run. High Point managed just two more points the rest of the way through the first period, both coming from 1-of-2 makes at the charity stripe. After Nick Barbour sank one free throw at 5:51, cutting Liberty's advantage to nine points, 37-28, the Flames closed the opening period on a 9-1 spurt. Curry finished the streak with a transition layup with 36.7 seconds, giving the Flames a 16 point advantage going into the intermission. Liberty held the Panthers without a field goal until the 15:17 mark of the second half, a span covering 14:35 since Harris' trey at 9:52 in the opening period. Steadman Short snapped the streak with a two point bucket. He missed the ensuing free throw after Smith fouled him on the play. Short's bucket cut Liberty lead to 19 points, 52-33. The Flames continued to maintain a safe gap between Panthers and them, extending the lead to a game-high 24 points, 74-50, at the 5:28 mark, courtesy of an old-fashioned three-point play by Anthony Smith. Liberty head coach Ritchie McKay emptied his bench, as Liberty cruised to the 15 point win, 78-63. Ohman led all scorers with 26 points, tying the career high he set at Virginia on Nov. 25. Ohman pulled down six rebounds and hit 5-of-8 from three-point land. Smith, the reigning Big South Choice Hotels Player of the Week, poured in 23 points and pulled down three rebounds. Smith's third carom of the night made him the 11th player in program history to grab 500 career rebounds.

Game 23
Lynchburg, Va.

Four starters registered double figures in scoring, as the Liberty Flames (16-7, 7-4 BSC) used a balanced offensive attack to defend its home court, defeating the UNC Asheville Bulldogs (9-13, 5-6 BSC), inside the Vines Center. Anthony Smith started things off by tallying Liberty's first seven markers, but his two-point layout at 15:46 only brought the Flames within one point of the Bulldogs, 8-7. After Smith tallied a three-point bucket on the game's opening possession, the Bulldogs went on an 8-2 run. During UNC Asheville's opening spurt, they received an old fashioned three-point play from John Williams, followed by a Matt Dickey bucket. Sean Smith capped the run with a trey. Liberty retook the lead by three points, 14-11, when Johnny Stephene hit a three-point bucket at 10:29, capping a 7-3 spurt. The Flames extended its advantage to eight points, 24-16, after Kyle Ohman stepped on the left elbow and hit a jumper with 8:12 remaining in the opening stanza, capping a 10-5 spurt. The Flames then opened up the game with a 15-5 run, extending its lead to 18 points, 39-21. Bill Weaver finished the burst with a put back of a Seth Curry miss at 3:43. UNC Asheville then rode two Dickey three-pointers into the break, cutting its deficit to 16 points, 53-27 at intermission. Dickey hit two three-point buckets to start the second stanza, cutting the UNC Asheville deficit to 13 points with 17:37 left to play, but a Curry trey at 12:45 pushed Liberty's advantage back to 14 points, 52-38. Curry's long-range jumper countered four straight points by Williams. Back-to-back three-point buckets by Sean Smith cut Liberty lead to seven points, 59-52, completing a 14-7 run, with 6:40 left to play. The Bulldogs' cut their deficit to three points, 62-59 after a wacky play where UNC Asheville tallied five points on one trip down the court. Eric Stubbs tallied a bucket, while being fouled by Ohman. Stubbs missed the ensuing free throw, but was able to get his own rebound after the ball was batted around under the bucket. Sean Smith hit the ensuing trey, capping the possession. Stubbs scored another two markers at 3:58 to bring what was at one point in the half a 17 point lead for Liberty, down to two points, 63-61. It was as close as the Bulldogs got on the evening, as Liberty quickly surged to a 14 point advantage, 76-62, via a 13-1 run. An Ohman trey completed the run with 31 seconds left. Ohman's bucket came on the heels of Brolin Floyd's old fashioned three-point play and a Jesse Sanders tip-in. Liberty held down the fort, as UNC Asheville managed to make a two point dent into its deficit, falling by 12, 78-66. Curry tallied a team-high 17 points, pushing him past former Charlotte Christian teammate, Omar Carter of Charleston Southern for most points scored by a freshman in the Big South Conference.
