Off to a 3-1 start, the Liberty men's basketball team heads to Nashville, Tenn., for the American Sports Network (ASN) Challenge in Music City. The Flames will play three games inside the Nashville Municipal Auditorium, beginning with Appalachian State on Thursday. The contest will broadcast live on ASN at 3 p.m. (EST). Following its Thanksgiving Day clash with the Mountaineers, Liberty will square off with Western Michigan on Friday (3:30 EST) before closing out the tournament against Tulane on Sunday (2 p.m. EST, ASN).

Matchup Notes

- Appalachian State leads the all-time series against the Flames with a 4-1 record. Liberty's lone win occurred on Nov. 30, 2000. The Flames defeated the Mountaineers inside the Vines Center, 68-52.
- Thursday's matchup marks the first meeting between the Flames and Mountaineers in nearly 14 years. The two squads last met on Dec. 1, 2001, resulting in a 95-77 win for Appalachian State in Boone, N.C.
- Liberty's first meeting against Appalachian State took place on Jan. 28, 1987, during the Flames' tenure as an NCAA Division II member. The Mountaineers won the contest, 74-60.
- Thursday's contest is the first neutral site meeting between the two teams.

Look Back at Saturday vs. Central Penn

- Guided by a career-high 21 points and 13 rebounds from sophomore center Evan Maxwell, the Liberty men's basketball team returned to the win column, Saturday afternoon, defeating Central Penn inside the Vines Center, 86-50.
- Along with Maxwell, sophomore forward A.C. Reid chipped in a career-high 16 points, knocking down a trio of three-pointers on the afternoon. Freshman guard Lovell Cabbil rounded out Liberty's double-digit scorers with 11 points, while redshirt freshman forward Ezra Talbert had a near double-double with nine points and 10 rebounds.
- Despite Central Penn entering the contest averaging 100.4 ppg through its first eight games, the Flames defense stifled the Knights, holding the visitors to half their average. Liberty shot 49.2 percent (30-of-61) from the field, compared to 27.9 percent (17-of-61) for Central Penn.
- Liberty had its highest rebound total of the season, outrebounding the Knights, 49-32. The Flames also distributed the ball well, tying its season-high in assists with 22. McKay's squad capitalized in the paint (42-20) and off turnovers (19-7), while receiving a season-best 35 points from the bench.

Notes and Anecdotes

- Appalachian State assistant coach Jason Allison is no stranger to Liberty, as he played for the Flames for three seasons (1996-1998). Allison began his coaching career at Lynchburg Christian Academy, a private school that like Liberty, was also founded by the late Dr. Jerry Falwell. Since Allison's time coaching at LCA, the school has been renamed Liberty Christian Academy and is now located adjacent to Liberty University's campus.

- In addition to his time at Liberty, Allison spent nine seasons at VMI as an assistant coach. During his tenure, the Keydets were a member of the Big South Conference, competing against Liberty. While at VMI, Allison and the Keydets had a 10-11 record against the Flames. In Liberty head coach Ritchie McKay's first stint with the Flames, the two squads met a total of six times in the two seasons, with each team winning three contests during the span.

- Appalachian State assistant Mantoris Robinson is also familiar with the Flames, having competed against them for four seasons as a standout guard at Winthrop (2006-10). Robinson and the Eagles went 8-1 versus Liberty during his time in Rock Hill, S.C. Liberty's lone win in the span occurred on Feb. 7, 2009, when a Flames squad coached by Ritchie McKay defeated the Eagles inside the Vines Center, 57-47.

- As an assistant at Davidson, current Appalachian State head coach Jim Fox had the opportunity to mentor two-time All-American and 2015 NBA Most Valuable Player Stephen Curry. Liberty head coach Ritchie McKay also has ties to the Curry family, having coached Stephen's younger brother Seth at Liberty during the 2008-09 season. Seth finished the year averaging 20.2 points per game and was named 2009 Big South Freshman of the Year.

- Ritchie McKay is 1-0 all-time against Appalachian State. While coaching at Oregon State, the Beavers met the Mountaineers in the Big Island Invitational (Hilo, Hawaii) on Nov. 24, 2000. McKay's squad bested Appalachian State, 60-37.

Tee for Three

The Flames' 14 made treys versus Summit (Nov. 14) were the most since Liberty knocked down 15 in a 95-80 win over Charleston Southern during the second season of head coach Ritchie McKay's first tenure with the Flames (Feb. 14, 2009). The 14 triples are also tied for fourth all-time in program history for a single game. In fact, five out of the six Liberty squads that have hit 14 more three-pointers in a game have been coached by Ritchie McKay. The one exception is the 1992-93 team that swished 14 treys against Averett on Dec. 18, 1993. McKay's 2008-09 team holds the school record with 17 trifectas versus VMI (March 4, 2008).

Veteran Leader

Redshirt senior transfer Anthony Fields is Liberty's lone senior. After receiving his degree from Bradley, Fields will be eligible immediately for the Flames.

During his time at Bradley, Fields played in 44 games, making his first career start on Jan. 31 against Indiana State, this past season. Fields concluded the contest with a career-high 11 points in 34 minutes. Three days later, the Detroit, Mich., native suffered a season-ending knee injury.

Fields transferred to Bradley from Wake Forest, where he competed in 24 games as a true freshman. During his lone season with the Demon Deacons, he earned All-ACC academic honors.

A graduate of Quality Education Academy in Winston Salem, N.C., Fields helped lead his team to back-to-back NCSAA Division I national championships, capped by a 26-4 record in 2010-11. Prior to signing with Wake Forest, Fields received offers from Boston College, Oklahoma, Seton Hall and Wright State.

Liberty Inks 3 for 2016-17

Liberty Men's Basketball Head Coach Ritchie McKay has announced the signing of three players to national letters of intent – Josiah Talbert, Brock Gardner and Xzavier Barmore.

"When we were at Liberty the first time, we had a class that ended up being highly acclaimed," McKay said. "And although that class achieved much, this is as excited as I have ever been about a recruiting class in their overall fit for our university, their playing ability and their character as a whole."

A three-year varsity player at Olathe East High School in Olathe, Kan., Talbert earned all-conference honors in 2015. The 6-9 forward averaged 11.1 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.8 blocks as a junior, leading Olathe East to the 2015 state semifinals and a third-place finish. In addition to playing under coaches Jim Super and Joe Mundweiler at Olathe East, Talbert was also a member of the KC Run GMC summer travel team, one of the top AAU programs in the nation. His brother, Ezra, is currently a redshirt freshman with the Flames.

An ESPN three-star recruit, Gardner plays for coaches James and Paul Brown at Tri-City Christian Academy in Chandler, Ariz. As a junior, the 6-7 guard averaged 25.8 points, 9.2 rebounds, 2.5 steals, 2.1 blocks and 4.3 assists was named CAA Arizona State Player of the Year three straight seasons (2013-15). Gardner also led Tri-City to the state championship in 2013 and 2014 and was named state tournament MVP. Gardner currently has 1,735 career points, 653 rebounds, 103 blocks with a 62 shooting percentage from the field. In addition to his high school accomplishments, Gardner also played for the Arizona Warriors summer travel team and Coach Curtis Ekmark.

Barmore is a 6-1 point guard who currently plays for Seneca High School in Seneca, S.C. While under the tutelage of head coach Kevin Padgett, he earned all-state honors and was an all-area selection three straight seasons (2013-15). Barmore averaged 25.9 points, 5.8 assists, 4.0 rebounds, 4.3 steals and shot 41 percent from three-point range during his junior year and holds the school record for most points in a single game (51). In addition to his high school accomplishments, he also played summer travel AAU for the highly successful, faith-based program Upward Stars in South Carolina.

Youth Movement

Liberty sports one of the youngest rosters in NCAA Division I, this season, with 11 out of 12 players being underclassmen (just below 92 percent). The Flames are comprised of six freshmen and five sophomores. Following closely behind Liberty are Ohio State (85 percent) and Fairleigh Dickinson (85 percent) and Wyoming (80 percent).

Stepping Up

The Flames will rely heavily on fresh faces this season, as Liberty is without 83.5 percent of its scoring, 87 percent of its rebounding and 87 percent of its total assists from last year.

Last Time Around at Liberty

Prior to his days in Charlottesville, McKay served two seasons as Liberty's men's basketball coach, posting a 39-28 overall record and a 19-13 mark in Big South play. He was named the seventh head coach in program history on March 26, 2007.

Following a 16-16 record during his first year at Liberty, McKay led the Flames to a 23-12 record in 2008-09. The win total matched the program's NCAA Division I record for most wins in a season (Liberty finished the 1996-97 season with a 23-9 overall record).

Liberty finished the 2008-09 season third in the Big South standings, the Flames' third double-digit win total in league play in the last 10 seasons (Liberty was 10-8 in 2009-10 and 13-5 in 2010-11).

The Flames were invited to play in the inaugural CollegInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT), advancing to the second round following a win over Rider.

McKay led one of the top scoring offenses in the Big South and ranked No. 48 in the nation, averaging 75.5 points per game during the 2008-09 season.

Under McKay's leadership, forward Anthony Smith (2006-09) finished his career ranked sixth in program history with 1,754 career points scored. Smith was named All-Big South first team in 2009, one of two first-team all-conference student-athletes coached by McKay (Alex McLean in 2008).

McKay brought Seth Curry to Liberty and the rookie made an immediate impact on the program. He finished the year averaging 20.2 points per game and was named 2009 Big South Freshman of the Year (second player in program history to receive the honor). Curry spotlighted McKay's Top 50 recruiting class in 2008, which was ranked No. 48 in the country by Basketball Times.

Familiar Faces

Rounding out Ritchie McKay's staff are three assistant coaches who all bring previous Liberty coaching experience back to the program.

Kyle Getter is no stranger to Liberty basketball after serving on McKay's staff during the 2008-09 season, helping guide the Flames to a 23-12 record and an appearance in the CollegInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). Most recently, Getter was a member of Mike Jones' staff at Radford, helping the Highlanders finish 22-12 overall and 12-6 in the Big South this past season. Radford made an appearance in the 2015 College Basketball Invitational, defeating Delaware State, 78-57, before falling to Vermont, 71-58.

Omar Mance has been a member of the Flames' coaching staff the last two seasons, working primarily with Liberty's wing players while also handling various scouting assignments and recruiting responsibilities. Prior to coming to Liberty, Mance spent three seasons as an assistant at Army under head coach Zach Spiker.

Brad Soucie has the distinction of serving as an assistant under Ritchie McKay every day of his head coaching career. The partnership began in 1995 when the two helped resurrect the program at Portland State, which had been dormant for 15 years. He followed McKay to Colorado State and Oregon State and New Mexico, before joining McKay in his first stint with the Flames (2007-09).
