 2012 GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS
DIVISION I - LOS ANGELES

May 29 - June 3, 2012

2012 NCAA Division I Men's Golf National Championship

Riviera Country Club - Pacific Palisades, Calif.
Par 71 - 7,292 yards

The Event

No. 14 seed Liberty will join 29 other regional qualifying teams at the 2012 NCAA Men's Golf National Championship, May 29 – June 3, at the Riviera Country Club in Pacific Palisades, Calif. The event will open up with 54 holes of stroke play during the first three days of competition, narrowing the field down to the Top 8. The final eight programs will face each other in three additional rounds of match play, ultimately leading to a new national champion crowned on June 3.

NCAA National Newcomers

14th-seeded Liberty is making its first-ever appearance at the NCAA Men's Golf National Championship this year at the Riviera Country Club. The Flames have qualified for four NCAA Regionals in program history, earning at-large bids in 2003 and 2006, and automatic berths in 2011 and 2012 after capturing the Big South Men's Golf Championship title.

Liberty's NCAA Regional History:

2003 (At-Large) – NCAA East Regional – T24th out of 27 teams (312-307-311-930/66-over par)
2006 (At-Large) – NCAA East Regional – 22nd out of 27 teams (310-303-304-917/53-over par)
2011 (Automatic Bid) – NCAA Arizona Regional – 10th out of 14 teams (280-292-288-860/eight-over par)
2012 (Automatic Bid) – NCAA Greensboro Regional – 1st out of 14 teams (283-293-292-868/four-over par)

Defending Champions

Liberty successfully defended its first-ever Big South title in April, as the Flames won the 2012 Big South Men's Golf Championship in record fashion. The Flames carded a 20-under par 844 (280-275-289) at The Patriot Golf Club in Ninety Six, S.C., April 16-18, 2012, recording the lowest team score in championship history. In 2011, Liberty claimed the program's first-ever Big South title at the same course, with an eight-under par 856 (290-277-289), winning by 31 strokes over Gardner-Webb to post the conference's second-largest margin of victory at a championship event.

First of their Kind

Liberty became the first program in Big South Conference history to capture an NCAA Regional title when the Flames fended off Florida to win the NCAA Greensboro Regional by three strokes, May 17-19. Coastal Carolina is the only other school in Big South history to advance to the NCAA Men's Golf National Championship, accomplishing the feat in 2005, 2006 and 2007. The Chanticleer's best finish was in 2007, when Coastal Carolina finished in fifth place in Williamsburg, Va., and was led by five-time PGA Tour winner Dustin Johnson.

Well Represented

No. 14 seed Liberty is not the only Big South representative at the 2012 NCAA Men's Golf Championship at the Riviera Country Club. Campbell's Vaita Guillaume, SMU's Matt Schovee and Liberty's Robert Karlsson finished the NCAA Greensboro Regional tied for first place individually, each carding a three-under par 213. Guillaume was able to defeat Schovee on the first playoff hole, sending this year's Big South Golfer of the Year to Pacific Palisades, Calif., to join Liberty at the national championship event to compete as an individual.

Underclassmen Upside

Four of the five players on head coach Jeff Thomas' starting five list for the 2012 NCAA Men's Golf Championship will be underclassmen, including three sophomores (Chase Marinell, Niklas Lindstrom and Ian McConnell) and one freshman (Mathieu Fenasse). Liberty's lone upperclassmen on its starting five list is senior Robert Karlsson.

Liberty Flames Golf

Big South Champions (2011 & 2012) - NCAA Regionals (2003, 2006, 2011 & 2012)

Nine is Nice

Liberty enters the 2012 NCAA Men's Golf National Championship having led the last nine consecutive rounds of golf the team has competed in, leading to three straight team titles. The Flames were the wire-to-wire winners at the River Landing Intercollegiate (April 6-7), Big South Men's Golf Championship (April 16-18) and the NCAA Greensboro Regional (May 17-19). The Flames have played their last nine rounds of golf at a combined 34-under par.

Liberty's Last Three Tournaments:

River Landing Intercollegiate (River Landing GC/Wallace, N.C.) – 283-285-278-846 (-18)
Big South Men's Golf Championship (The Patriot GC/Ninety Six., S.C.) – 280-275-289-844 (-20)
NCAA Greensboro Regional (Grandover Resort/Greensboro, N.C.) – 283-293-292-868 (+4)

International Flavor

Five players on Liberty's 12-man team roster hail from outside the United States, including three players who will be among Liberty's starting five at the 2012 NCAA Men's Golf National Championship. Liberty has two players from Sweden (Robert Karlsson, Niklas Lindstrom) and one player from France (Mathieu Fenasse), South Korea (David Jeh) and Australia (Bobin Kang).

National Level Success

Success on the national level is no stranger for student-athletes from Liberty, as the athletics program has produced six individual national champions (track & field and cross country) and a Sweet 16 women's basketball program (2005).

NCAA Division I Individual National Champions (Track & Field)
