Updated Team Notes

- The Lady Flames are off to their worst 10-game start (1-9) in program history, following Wednesday's 82-53 loss to Dayton.
- Liberty has lost three straight games overall and eight consecutive contests away from the Vines Center. The Lady Flames have led for only 5:23 during their three-game losing skid.
- Liberty is now 2-3 all-time at John Paul Jones Arena, including 1-1 in neutral-site games.
- On Wednesday, Liberty was within one point (21-20) midway through the second quarter before Dayton broke the game open with a 22-5 run.
- The Flyers scored 30 fourth-quarter points, the most ever allowed by Liberty in a single period.
- Despite Dayton's hot second-half shooting, Liberty has still only allowed three of its last 107 opponents to shoot 50 percent from the field for a game, including one (Duke) this season.
- Dayton became the second opponent in the last three games to outrebound Liberty, 38-35.
- The Lady Flames were outscored in points in the paint (30-20) for the seventh time in 10 games this season.

- Liberty set season highs for free throws made (19) and attempted (28), including an 11-of-14 performance in the fourth quarter. For the game, the Lady Flames shot well above their season average (55.5 percent) from the line, making 67.9 percent.
- Liberty matched its season low of five assists (also vs. Duke).
- Liberty's 14 turnovers were its second fewest of the season. However, they led to 17 Dayton points.
- The Lady Flames' bench players scored a season-high 32 of the team's 53 points.
- Freshmen scored 31 of Liberty's 53 points for 58.5 percent.
- Both Liberty and UMBC will be seeking their first victory of the Cavalier Classic on Thursday.
- Thursday's contest will be the Lady Flames' final non-conference tilt of the regular season.

Updated Player Notes

- Played a team-high 28 minutes off the bench against Dayton
- For the second straight game, scored all of her points (seven) in the first half
- Her 4-of-4 performance from the free throw line matched a season best (also vs. Navy)

#21 Keyen Green

- Two days after her 19th birthday, scored a team-high 12 points despite being limited to 14 minutes of playing time due to foul trouble
- Has led the Lady Flames in scoring in four of the last five games, averaging 14.2 ppg over the span
- Now averaging exactly 10.0 ppg for the season, giving the Lady Flames a player averaging double figures for the first time in 2016-17
- Shot 4-of-4 from the field against Dayton and is 13-of-14 (92.9 percent) over her last two outings
- Ten of her points versus Dayton came after halftime, coming on the heels of her 15-point second half at UTSA on Dec. 20.
- The only Lady Flame to start all 10 games this season

#24 Iva Ilic

- Started at point guard for the second straight game but was held scoreless for the first time in her young career
- Dished out a team-high two assists

#30 KK Barbour

- Playing in her hometown, started for the second straight outing on Wednesday
- Scored five points, highlighted by her first career three-pointer
- Pulled down three rebounds, leaving her seven shy of 100 for her career

#32 Jordan Woods

- Paced the Lady Flames in rebounds (season-high 4) and blocks (career-high 2) against Dayton
- Connected on the first three-point field goal attempt of her career

#33 Kaitlyn Stovall

- Made her second career appearance on Wednesday, grabbing a rebound and blocking a shot

#35 Ola Makurat

- Liberty's second-leading scorer versus Dayton, finishing with eight points
- Got to the free throw line four times on Wednesday, matching her number of foul shots from the first nine games combined
- Has scored either eight or nine points in six of her first 10 collegiate outings
- Made a triple for the third straight game
