

Heroes Fund Scholarship Application

Liberty University is proud of our country's heroes who have given so much for our freedom. We know that this freedom comes at a high price for many. To show appreciation for our service members who have been wounded while protecting our liberties, Liberty University has created the Heroes Fund Scholarship.

Eligibility requirements are as follows:

- Spouse was Killed in Action

Documentation needed for review of scholarship eligibility (based on eligibility above):

- Report of Casualty or Death Certificate (this document has to list you as the service member's spouse at time of death). The Report of Casualty and/or Death Certificate has to show cause of death. Only those deaths considered as "Killed in Action" will be considered
- HFS Recipient SOP – read, sign, date, and return both pages of the SOP
- Essay - 750-1000 words on the topic "What degree do you plan to pursue? How this degree will impact your future and help you meet your specific career objectives?"
- Valid Photo ID (Drivers' License, State ID – NO military IDs may be accepted)
- Marriage Certificate to service member KIA.
- Confirmation of application for the Fry Scholarship and/or Chapter 35 GI Bill[®] benefits. (All applicants are required to use any federal, military, and/or veteran benefits available to them. To ensure all federal benefits are being used you are required to provide confirmation documents showing application for spouse education benefits you may qualify for based on your spouse's service and sacrifice.)
- FAFSA is an annual requirement for all Liberty University given scholarships (undergraduate applicants only)

Students approved for this scholarship will be awarded an amount to cover all remaining tuition and fees once financial aid has been deducted from the total amount of tuition and fees charged. Funding is only awarded for classes that contribute to the Liberty University degree being pursued. Continued award of this scholarship for subsequent degree programs will be evaluated on a case by case basis.

This scholarship is funded by the generous donations of Liberty University supporters therefore funding will only be granted if it is available for that donation year. Continued award of this scholarship may be re-evaluated based on the availability of funds and increased need/applications.
