

Public Service Announcement

(copy as needed--distribute to newspaper, radio, TV, local announcements)

LIBERTY UNIVERSITY WIND SYMPHONY

Dr. Stephen Kerr, Director

March 2019

The Liberty University Wind Symphony will be performing at _____ (location) on March _____ at _____ (time). The Liberty University Wind Symphony has toured throughout the Eastern United States, from Vermont to Miami, and from St. Louis to New Orleans. The ensemble is comprised of 56 fabulous college musicians studying a variety of majors at Liberty University. This wind symphony performs a wide variety of music that appeals to a diverse audience. Over the past five years, the Liberty University Wind Symphony produced five CDs, "Frozen Cathedral," "Song of the Phoenix," "Wine Dark Sea," "Monuments & Cathedrals," and "Passion of the Dance," which will be available at the concert. The length of the concert is typically one hour. The public is invited to attend. There is no charge for admission. Don't miss out on this opportunity to hear one of the finest Christian university wind symphonies in the United States [at _____ (location) on March _____ at _____ (time). (repeat for radio and television announcement)]

This Spring, the Liberty University Wind Symphony will perform selections from the following repertoire in the concert:

- How Beautiful arranged by David Winkler
- I Could Sing Of Your Love Forever arranged by Ed Hogan
- There Is A Fountain arranged by Jeff Cranfill
- Earth, Water, Sun, Wind by Philip Sparke
- Pedals of Fire by Zhou Tian
- Redwood by Ryan George
- Ecstatic Waters by Steven Bryant
- Battery Park Suite by Phillip Rothman
- Metal by Brian Balmages

The Liberty University Wind Symphony is under the leadership of Dr. Stephen Kerr, director of bands. Dr. Kerr received his B.S. degree in Music Education from Liberty University. He holds the M.A. degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Virginia Tech. and the Ph.D. degree in Music Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.