Please note: It is up to the candidate to inform the Testing staff of any problems that may occur during testing, i.e. computer malfunctions, test loading slowly, outside noises, or other disruptions. While we strive to be a quiet testing environment for the benefit of our students, there may be some abnormalities in our testing environment that might distract some students more so than others. Again, please notify us before/during your exams of these potential distractions that we might eliminate to the best of our ability. By checking this box, you fully understand our testing procedures.
