DBPC 600

CHILD AND FAMILY DEVELOPMENT: PSYCHOLOGICAL AND THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides the foundational psychological and theological perspectives needed for understanding core child and family development stages and dynamics. Current trends, issues, and cultural norms are examined, as well as risk and protective factors that influence resiliency and coping mechanisms in children and teens. Ethical concerns and multicultural factors are also considered.

RATIONALE

The principles taught in this course will provide counselors, pastors, and parenting champions the essential tools necessary for helping parents navigate and respect each child's unique developmental stage.

I. PREREQUISITES

PACO 500 and 501

II. REQUIRED RESOURCE PURCHASES

- A. Click on the following link to view the required resource(s) for the term in which you are registered: <http://bookstore.mbsdirect.net/liberty.htm>

III. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR LEARNING

- A. Computer with basic audio/video output equipment
B. Internet access (broadband recommended)
C. Microsoft Word

IV. MEASURABLE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- A. Identify current trends and issues in child and adolescent development using the course information and past personal experience.
B. Identify and describe characteristics and primary tasks of key developmental stages: infancy, early childhood, middle childhood, pre-adolescence, and adolescence.

- C. Identify and assess risk and protective factors for a child, including concepts of stress, resiliency, coping mechanisms, and developmental level.
- D. Describe the basic physical, emotional, and social changes that occur during childhood and adolescence, and the factors important to healthy growth.
- E. Construct a developmentally appropriate framework for child and adolescent psychotherapy.
- F. Analyze empirical research concerning issues in child development based upon a biblical worldview and employing theological principles.
- G. Demonstrate knowledge of popular developmental theories and apply them to real life parenting situations.

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

- A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations.
- B. Course Requirements Checklist

After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

- C. Discussion Board Forums (4)

Discussion boards are collaborative learning experiences. Therefore, the student is required to create a thread in response to the provided prompt for each forum. Each forum will require the student to answer questions with at least 400 words based on the particular module/week's reading (Dr. Dobson's works and/or the core text), as well as video/audio content. The student will be required to post at least 2 replies of a minimum of 200 words each to other students' threads.

D. Explore the Issue Papers (2)

Twice in this class, the student will choose a topic from the Complete Marriage and Family Home Reference Guide to study more closely. In 4–6 pages, the student will compare current knowledge with facts from research (at least 4 scholarly sources) and then examine the chosen topic from both a psychological and a theological perspective. Current APA format must be used.

E. Text Review

After reading Building Confidence in Your Child, the student will summarize the text, analyze and reflect on the content, and apply the concepts to the field of counseling. This will be a 7–10-page paper in which the student will incorporate empirical research (at least 2 scholarly sources) into a systematic dissection of this text. Current APA format must be used.

F. Exams (4)

The student will complete 4 open-book/open-notes, untimed exams that will consist of 20 multiple-choice questions and 2 short essays based on the course’s video, audio, and reading materials. Each short essay requires a response of at least 250 words.

C. Late Assignment Policy

If the student is unable to complete an assignment on time, then he or she must contact the instructor immediately by email.

Assignments that are submitted after the due date without prior approval from the instructor will receive the following deductions:

1. Late assignments submitted within one week of the due date will receive a 10% deduction.
2. Assignments submitted more than one week late will receive a 20% deduction.

3. Assignments submitted two weeks late or after the final date of the course will not be accepted.
4. Late Discussion Board threads or replies will not be accepted.

Special circumstances (e.g. death in the family, personal health issues) will be reviewed by the instructor on a case-by-case basis.

D. Tests/Exams

1. For timed tests/exams students are required to complete the exam within the assigned time. For students who exceed this time limit a penalty of 1 point may be deducted for each minute they exceed the assigned time limit.
2. Students must take the exam during the assigned module/week. Late submissions will be penalized at 5% per day, cumulative, with no test/exam being accepted seven (7) days after the original due date without written approval from the professor. Whenever possible, this approval must be sought prior to the test/exam due date.

E. Dual Relationship

The faculty is responsible to interact with counseling students in a supervisory capacity/role. As such, faculty may provide students professional principles, guidance, and recommendations as it relates to the context of the student-client setting. The faculty is responsible to avoid dual relationships with students such as entering a student-counselor or student-pastor relationship. Thus, the faculty does not provide personal counseling addressing student personal problems. If a faculty member perceives that a student is in need of personal or professional counseling, then that faculty member will recommend that the student pursue either pastoral or professional assistance from a counselor in their community.

F. Limits of Confidentiality

In the event of a student's disclosure, either verbally or in writing, of threat of serious or foreseeable harm to self or others, abuse or neglect of a minor, elderly or disabled person, or current involvement in criminal activity, the faculty, staff, administrator, or supervisor will take immediate action. This action may include, but is not limited to, immediate notification of appropriate state law enforcement or social services personnel, emergency contacts, and notification of the appropriate program chair or online dean. The incident and action taken will become part of the student's permanent record.

G. Disability Assistance

Students with a documented disability may contact Liberty University Online's Office of Disability Academic Support (ODAS) at LUOODAS@liberty.edu to make arrangements for academic accommodations. Further information can be found at www.liberty.edu/disabilitysupport.
