COURSE SYLLABUS

THEO 104
INTRODUCTION TO THEOLOGY SURVEY

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is an introduction to the basic tenets of Christianity.

RATIONALE
There is an increasing need for believers to be acquainted with a general overview of the basic doctrines of Scripture and the concept of the Christian life. The aim of this course is to give a rational and practical overview of Christian doctrine so that the student can understand what Christianity is about. In contrast to other courses that attempt to defend Christianity against opposing worldviews and religions, this course focuses on familiarizing students with the basic tenets of the Christian faith and the application of those beliefs to one’s life.

B. Christianity in today’s society with true Christian doctrine and how it pertains to the Christian in today’s world.
C. Choose the correct definition of Christianity and recognize the potential downfalls of false teaching.

D. Differentiate between the claim that Christianity is a scientific impossibility and the true doctrine of Scripture.

E. Apply basic concepts of doctrine to a personal walk with Jesus Christ.

F. Examine the purpose of the spiritual disciplines, such as prayer, fasting, and Bible study, and relate these spiritual disciplines to everyday life.

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations
   The student is required to complete all assigned readings as designated in the Reading & Study folder.

B. Course Requirements Checklist
   After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Discussion Board Forum Interactions (4)
   Discussion boards are collaborative learning experiences. Therefore, the student will complete each forum by responding to the provided prompt a minimum of 2 times with a 200–300-word post. The student must read and respond to threads in a manner that propels the conversation forward. (MLO: A, D, E)

D. Experience with Theology Essay
   The student will submit a 600-word essay explaining his/her experience with theology in the past. The essay must be formatted in a Microsoft Word document using current APA, MLA, or Turabian style (whichever corresponds to the student’s degree program). (MLO: D)

E. Biblical Worldview Essay
   The student will submit a 600–1,000-word essay demonstrating his/her understanding of the unified and coherent nature of the Bible and theological doctrines. The essay must be formatted in a Microsoft Word document using current APA, MLA, or Turabian style (whichever corresponds to the student’s degree program). (MLO: D, E)
F. Application Paper

The student will submit a 600-word Application Paper which interacts with one of the theological topics covered in the course. Each paper must include at least 1 theological reference from the course textbooks and 2 biblical references. There are 3 parts to the paper. Part 1 is the theological definition; Part 2 is the biblical foundation; and Part 3 is the practical application. The paper must be formatted in a Microsoft Word document using current APA, MLA, or Turabian style (whichever corresponds to the student’s degree program). The student will be graded on the level of planning and reflection demonstrated through the concepts and conclusions presented in the paper. (MLO: D, E)

G. Reflection Essay

The student will submit a 600-word essay explaining how his/her view of theology has changed as a result of taking the course, and how the student has been able to apply the principles to his/her life. The essay must be formatted in a Microsoft Word document using current APA, MLA, or Turabian style (whichever corresponds to the student’s degree program). (MLO: D, E)

H. Quizzes (8)

Each quiz is open-book/open-notes and consists of 25 multiple-choice and true/false questions. The student will complete 1 quiz each module/week. The student will be allowed 2 attempts for each quiz. (MLO: A, B, C)
