

Sample social media post: Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.

This letter was written with a lot of excitement, which fits the personality of the student who wrote it. You don't necessarily need to show that much emotion, but be natural to whoever you are. Remember, people who know you will be reading this, so be authentic.

Personalize this to fit your situation

I am SO SO SO humbled and excited to announce that this summer I will be traveling to this region of the world that the Lord has been stirring up in my heart for some time now. I have been compelled by the love of God, the gospel of Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit to step into this opportunity and I am choosing to step out in obedience to the call to follow the Lord wherever he leads!!!!

Be specific about the trip cost.

For my trip, I am asking and believing that God would raise up intercessors to partner with me and my team in prayer as we take the gospel to these people. I know that prayer is the life and spirit of any efforts to spread the gospel, and I need my brothers and sisters in Christ to come around me!! Even my best efforts to love others are worthless without the spirit of God. I want my life and ministry, from this trip and beyond, to radically transform people through God by prayer alone!!

I also have approximately $5,500 to raise for this trip, and I am confidently trusting in God's provision. I know that He is more invested in this trip than anyone. and He will see it through. If you would prayerfully consider partnering with me financially, the link to give is give.cru.org/1148938 !!! You can select the option to give a gift beside trip participant #1148938 ❤️

Notice this student provides specific instructions on how to give

Be available to your supporters. After all, they are helping you go on this trip!

I want to encourage you wherever you are at – If you do not have a personal relationship with Jesus as Lord, I would love to tell you about Him. All the stories are true.

And if you are a follower of Jesus, I plead with you to put your yes on the table, and let God put it on the map. For some, this may mean crossing oceans, but for ALL of us, loving God requires that we love our neighbor. Our family member. The woman in the grocery store. And the foreigner who we may have allowed fear, comfort, or self-preservation to keep us from caring for. Jesus is worth it. We are primarily called to KNOW HIM, and when we know Him as He really is, everything else changes. May He get all of the glory and may the truth of the gospel go forth into every nation, tribe, and tongue.

Thank you in advance for your prayers and support!

Name

Here is an idea of what your Social Media post might look like. Remember to personalize this to you!