Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Nothing is more important than the safety and security of our students, faculty, and staff. Here at Liberty University, we are committed to providing an environment that is safe for our entire community. Across our vast campus, law enforcement, student leaders, and academic and administrative departments combine to promote the safest possible university. Our annual security report reflects the collaborative efforts of all departments and their concerns to further campus safety. Please take time to read this report and welcome that collaborative effort. We seek to provide a truly safe campus while we continue to solicit active participation in promoting a healthy campus community.

Notice of Nondiscrimination: Liberty University does not engage in unlawful discrimination or harassment because of race, color, ancestry, religion, age, sex, national origin, pregnancy or childbirth, disability, or military veteran status in its educational programs and activities. Liberty University maintains its Christian mission and reserves its right to discriminate on the basis of religion to the extent that applicable law respects its right to act in furtherance of its religious objectives. The following persons have been designated to coordinate Liberty University's compliance with certain anti-discrimination laws: Coordinator of LU Online Disability Accommodation Support at (434) 592-5417 or LUOodas@liberty.edu; Director of Disability Accommodation Support (Residential) at (434) 592-4016 or ODAS@liberty.edu; Executive Director of Title IX at (434) 592-4999 or TitleIX@liberty.edu.

Liberty University is committed to transparency, especially as it relates to campus safety and the prevention of crime. Following an extensive review of prior year statistics, this report contains revised crime data for 2018 and 2019. These changes reflect additional crimes discovered during an internal review as part of an ongoing Program Review being conducted by the U.S. Department of Education. The changes can be found in further detail on pages 33 and 34 of this report.

The Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA) requires institutions of higher education to annually report information regarding campus security policies and campus crime statistics, as well as information pertaining to policies, procedures, and programs for addressing certain specified crimes. The Higher Education Opportunity Act requires all academic institutions in the United States to produce an annual Fire Safety Report outlining fire safety practices, standards, and certain fire-related on-campus statistics related to student housing. This Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report serves as the Liberty University Annual Security Report and Annual Fire Safety Report in compliance with the Clery Act, VAWA, and the Higher Education Opportunity Act.

ANNUAL CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT

The Office of Equity & Compliance (OEC) has been designated as the entity responsible for compiling and publishing Liberty University's Annual Campus Security Report. This report provides vital information about security on Liberty University's campus with a copy kept for easy access and reference at the OEC in Green Hall, Room 1845, 1971 University Blvd., in Lynchburg, Va. This report is also available online at Liberty.edu/LUPD.

Unless otherwise noted, updates are annual, prior to Oct. 1. All materials contained in this report are also submitted to the U.S. Department of Education via web-based data collection.

The information contained in this report is compiled using data provided by all university departments, Liberty University Police Department (LUPD), and campus officials designated as Campus Security Authorities, as well as by law enforcement agencies with jurisdictional authority over property owned or controlled by Liberty University.

Liberty University is committed to providing the safest environment possible. This report is prepared to further that goal and to fulfill the requirements of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). This report contains relevant information about initiatives, programs, policies, and required mandates. It also gives direction for contacting the appropriate personnel in given situations. Awareness and cooperation of the community are integral to maintaining the safety and security of the Liberty University community.

CAMPUS OVERVIEW

Located within the city of Lynchburg, Va., and just a short drive from the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains, Liberty University is the largest private university in Virginia and one of the largest Christian universities in the world. Liberty University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and can award associate, bachelor's, master's, specialist, and doctoral degrees.

The main campus consists of over 177 buildings and structures and over 7 million square feet of building space on more than 7,000 acres.

Residential enrollment exceeds 15,000 students with a total enrollment exceeding 125,000 students. Liberty University employs over 2,500 full- and part-time faculty and staff providing instruction in more than 700 programs of study, both residential and online, across 15 colleges and schools.

This report includes statistics for the reasonably contiguous main campus property, separate campuses if applicable, and certain university-sponsored trips, as required by the Clery Act.

POLICE DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

LUPD is a full-service law enforcement agency staffed by professional, highly-trained personnel. The agency operates 24 hours a day, 7 days per week, and 365 days per year. It consists of 38 Virginia state-certified, sworn, and commissioned police officers, 38 Virginia state certified armed security service officers, 9 communication dispatch officers, and 10 civilian employees. All LUPD police officers have comprehensive arrest powers. Their authority, responsibility, and training are the same as those required of any police officer in the Commonwealth of Virginia. LUPD investigates all incidents that occur on property owned or controlled by Liberty University and has the authority to investigate any incident on any public roadway adjacent thereto. All LUPD police and security service officers are trained in Basic First Aid/CPR and AED services. Any injury requiring Emergency Medical Services (EMS) is handled by the Lynchburg Fire Department.

As a participant in the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and the Virginia Crime Information Network (VCIN), LUPD is able to transmit and receive information with other police agencies throughout the country. Furthermore, LUPD maintains a current Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Virginia State Police, Lynchburg City Police, and Bedford and Campbell County Sheriff's Offices. LUPD partners with local police agencies in sharing information that may be of concern to the greater community.

LUPD is responsible for the documentation and investigation of all crime and safety policies, procedures, logs, reports, and statistics required for the university's Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.

Crime Log

LUPD maintains a daily crime log that includes the nature of the crime, the date and time the crime occurred, the general location of the crime, and the disposition of the crime, if known. An entry will not be made in the crime log if it is prohibited by law or would jeopardize the confidentiality of the victim. LUPD may withhold certain information from the crime log if there is clear and convincing evidence that the release of the information would (a) jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation or the safety of a person, (b) cause a suspect to flee or evade detection, or (c) result in the destruction of evidence. However, once the adverse effect is no longer likely to occur, LUPD will disclose the information. Furthermore, publicly available recordkeeping does not include personally identifying information (as defined in section 40002(a)(20) of VAWA) about victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

LUPD also maintains a Criminal Incident and On-Campus Student Housing Fire Log. This log is housed at LUPD. The log is updated every day and lists all reports of criminal activity and actual fires. All crime, emergency, and fire reports are logged and filed both manually and electronically. The log includes the nature of the crime, the date/time, the location, and the disposition, if known. The log is available for review by the public at LUPD headquarters. Cross training ensures that multiple personnel are operationally familiar with the log.

REPORTING PROCEDURES FOR CRIMES AND OTHER EMERGENCIES OCCURRING ON CAMPUS

The Liberty University Police Dispatch Center is fully integrated into LUPD and operates 24 hours a day, seven days per week, 365 days per year. When reporting criminal activity, potential criminal activity, and other emergencies, dial 3911 from any Liberty University landline to be connected directly to the Liberty University Police Dispatch Center. When calling from an off-campus landline or a cellular telephone, dial (434) 592-3911. Liberty University highly recommends that every member of the university community place this telephone number into his or her cellular telephone speed dial.

Any call reporting criminal activity or other emergency is immediately dispatched for response. LUPD will take any and all actions necessary to properly and effectively mitigate such an incident. Depending on the nature of the incident, police officers, security personnel, EMS, Fire Department Services, and/or other necessary personnel may be contacted to respond.

If you are a victim or witness to a crime, it is important to know your rights. They may be found at Liberty.edu/VictimWitnessIncidentForm.

To ensure that all timely warning reports and annual statistics are accurate and complete, all criminal offenses should be immediately reported to:

Liberty University Police Department
Green Hall, Area 725
(Next to Human Resources)
Emergency: (434) 592-3911
Non-Emergency: (434) 592-7641
LUPD@liberty.edu

The Liberty University community is strongly encouraged to promptly and accurately report crimes, emergencies, potential threats, and risks to LUPD or another appropriate law enforcement agency so it may investigate such reports. The safest community possible cannot be achieved without the active participation of its members. Should a member of the university community feel uneasy about contacting LUPD or wish to informally or anonymously report an incident, he or she may contact:

Liberty University Title IX Office
Green Hall, Suite 1845
☎ (434) 592-4999

Liberty University
Office of Student Counseling Services
Green Hall, Suite 1830
☎ (434) 582-2651

Once contact is made to any of these university departments, it will input the statistical data into its electronic database, thereby accurately recording the information for the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report. If the situation is such that a “Timely Warning Notice” is necessary (see below), then a Timely Warning Notice shall be issued in accordance with the procedures contained herein.

Voluntary Confidential Reporting

LUPD encourages everyone that has become a victim or witness to a crime to report it to LUPD. There are, however, instances where victims may not want to make that decision. The victim has the right to make that decision. The submission of a report to LUPD does not necessarily mean that a criminal charge will follow. A report may be submitted with confidentiality. Counselors are mandated to provide victims and witnesses with information about their options to report criminal activity. In any event, victims and witnesses are encouraged to contact LUPD even if solely for the purpose of properly and accurately reporting crime statistics for the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

While all criminal and emergency incidents should be reported directly to LUPD, Campus Security Authorities are designated to assist in reporting these incidents. “Campus Security Authority” (CSA) is a Clery Act-specific term that encompasses four groups of individuals and/or departments associated with our university. These groups are:

- All LUPD personnel.
- Any individual who has responsibility for campus security but is not part of LUPD. This includes individuals such as those who provide security at campus parking facilities; monitor access into a campus facility; act as event security, such as sporting events; or escort students around campus after dark.
- Any individual who, by way of directive, is required to report criminal incidents to anyone or any other department or organization, in addition to police or security-related personnel.
- An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, Residence Life personnel, Community Life personnel, and Student Counseling personnel. An official is defined as any person who has the authority and the duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the university. Such officials include:

- Dean of Students, Associate Dean of Students, Senior Associate Directors and Associate Directors of Community Life, Executive Director of Student Counseling Services, and counselors not bound by law
- Human Resources officials
- Director and Associate Directors of Student Life
- Executive Director and Associate Directors of Residence Life, as well as Resident Directors, Resident Assistants, and LU Resident Shepherds
- Director and Associate Directors of Student Activities
- Director of Athletics, to include all athletic coaches (including part-time coaching employees, graduate assistants assigned to teams, and team volunteers)

- Faculty advisors to student groups
- Executive Director of Title IX and Title IX personnel
- Student Advocate personnel
- Local outside law enforcement with jurisdiction over campus
- Physicians and health professionals not bound by law

Examples of individuals who are not CSAs include:

- Faculty members who do not have any responsibility for student and campus activity beyond the classroom
- Clerical, maintenance, or cafeteria staff

LUPD collects and reviews all crime reports from CSAs. All policy, documentation, and records are kept by and under the responsibility of LUPD and/or designated office. If a Clery incident for some reason is not reported through normal channels, CSAs are, at minimum, mandated to report the incident by filling out a CSA Report Form at:

Liberty.edu/CSAReportForm

TIMELY WARNING NOTICES

A Timely Warning Notice shall be issued when a Clery-reportable crime is reported to a campus security authority or local police department (within Clery geography) and is deemed to constitute a serious or ongoing threat to the Liberty University community. The Liberty University Chief of Police, or the Chief’s official designee, is tasked with judging the necessity of a Timely Warning Notice. If such a notice is deemed necessary, the wording for the notice will be drafted by the Chief of Police or by the Chief’s official designee. Should, for any reason, the wording not be drafted by the Chief of Police or by the Chief’s official designee, then the notice must be approved by the Chief of Police or by the Chief’s official designee.

Timely Warning Notices are for Clery-reportable crimes within the university’s Clery geography. They will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The distinguishing factor in these cases is the presence of a serious or ongoing threat to the community. An Emergency Notification (EN), on the other hand, addresses threats of an immediate nature. This may include things other than Clery-reportable crimes, such as fire, gas leak, tornado, etc. The EN may be targeted to specified locations/areas and not necessarily the entire community.

Timely Warning Notices for other reported crimes (those that are not Clery-reportable) are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The distinguishing factor in these cases is the presence of an ongoing threat to the Liberty University community.

Documentation and any record keeping will be located at LUPD headquarters. Policy reviews are conducted on at least an annual basis. Updates may be implemented when necessary or at the time of the latest Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.

LUPD is trained in Incident Command and Emergency Response. When any serious incident occurs that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of the Liberty University community, LUPD, the Lynchburg Fire Department (LFD), other necessary university departments, and necessary emergency responders from surrounding jurisdictions are immediately dispatched to the incident scene and/or the Incident Command Center. These agencies and departments work together to properly and effectively mitigate the incident. General information about emergency response and evacuation procedures of Liberty University is published and updated each year prior to Oct. 1.

In the event that there is a confirmed incident that constitutes an immediate threat to the health and/or safety of the university community, an Emergency Notification and accompanying procedures will be immediately implemented.

In accordance with the Higher Education Act of 1965 and Section 23.1-803 of the Virginia Code, Liberty University has implemented a comprehensive communications system identified as the "LU Campus Alert System." This system provides prompt warning notifications and alerts of immediate threats to health and safety of the university community. This system utilizes various methods of notification including, but not limited to, email notices, landline telephone messages, and cellular telephone and text messages. In addition to these methods of notification, the university also utilizes a Campus Loud Speaker System that can be activated to convey outdoor verbal messages to the university community.

Further, information is updated, as needed, on the Liberty University announcement webpage, otherwise known as "myLU," and the LUPD website under "Liberty University Emergency Information."

Parents and the university community may be informed and updated through the Liberty University Emergency Information website at:

<https://www.liberty.edu/police/emergency-information/>

LUPD is primarily responsible for confirming a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus that may be an immediate threat to the health and/or safety of the university community. LUPD will work in conjunction with other university departments, such as the Marketing Department and Human Resources, as appropriate, to confirm the situation and to take appropriate action, taking into account the nature, location, and scope of the emergency or threat.

Decisions made by LUPD will also, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the appropriate parts or offices of the university community that receive notification, the content of the notification, and the initiation of the notification system.

Emergency Notifications will typically be sent out without delay, unless issuing such notification would, in the professional judgment of the LUPD first responders, compromise the efforts to assist a victim or compromise the efforts to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

The Liberty University Office of Communications & Public Engagement is responsible for reporting to local news agencies and addressing outside information requests for the purposes of notifying the larger and local community. The Marketing Department is responsible for posting official university electronic and social media, and both Marketing and Human Resources are responsible for providing the university community with communications regarding university procedures for authorized closings and receiving emergency alerts.

Procedures for Testing the Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

The Emergency Manager or their designee will review and evaluate emergency procedures at least once per year. Liberty University will notify the university community of its emergency notification procedures, emergency response procedures, and evacuation procedures via email. There will be at least one drill or exercise each calendar year. The type of exercise will be documented along with whether it was announced or unannounced.

Each occupied residence hall is required to conduct a quarterly fire drill in compliance with the Virginia statewide fire code. These drills follow the guidelines for emergency response and evacuation procedures. The purpose of these drills is to provide all residents and staff the proper practice in the event there is a real fire or other evacuation emergency. During the drills, occupants familiarize themselves with the procedures, the locations of exits, and the sound of the fire alarm. Additionally, alarms and other components of the fire safety system are tested to ensure that they are functioning properly. Following each drill, resident supervisors (Resident Directors and Assistants) will report, evaluate, and document the drill and make adjustments as needed.

The Department of Emergency Management & Community Engagement will oversee an Emergency Action Plan (EAP) for each department/area. Each plan outlines the actions that occupants must take during emergencies. Evacuation planning is a part of each EAP. Outside of the one mandatory drill or exercise, additional practice drills, coordinated through the Emergency Manager, are highly recommended for each department to ensure that its employees are prepared for emergencies.

Shelter in Place

If an incident occurs and the environment is dangerous outside of buildings or areas, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it is usually safer to stay indoors. "Shelter-in-place" means to make a shelter of a current building. With a few adjustments, this location can be safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

If the building is not damaged, stay inside an interior room until it is safe to come out. If the building is damaged, take any necessary personal belongings (purse, wallet, passport, cellphone, etc.) and follow the evacuation procedures for the building (to include closing the door, proceeding to the nearest exit, and using stairs instead of the elevators, if necessary). Once evacuated, quickly seek shelter at the nearest safe university building. If police, fire department, or other first responder personnel are on the scene, follow their instructions.

A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources, including LUPD, the Office of Residence Life staff, other official university employees, or other local law enforcement and public safety authorities. While Liberty University Timely Warning Notifications will be the primary means of disseminating the notification, other means of communication may also be used.

No matter the location, the basic steps of shelter-in-place remain generally the same. Should the need arise, follow these steps, unless instructed otherwise by local emergency personnel:

- If inside a safe building, stay there. Collect any emergency shelter-in-place supplies and a telephone to be used in case of emergency. If outdoors or in an unsafe building, proceed into the closest safe building quickly or follow instructions from emergency personnel.
- Locate a room for shelter. It should be:
 - An interior room.
 - Above ground level.
 - Without windows or with the least number of windows possible. If there is a large group of people, split equally into several rooms.
- Close and lock all windows (tighter seal when locked).
- Close exterior doors.
- Turn off air conditioners, heaters, and fans.
- Close vents to ventilation systems if possible.
- Make a list of the other people there and ask someone to call in the list to LUPD.
- Listen to TV or radio for instruction.

LOCAL POLICE DEPARTMENTS

LUPD maintains a close working relationship with all federal, state, and local emergency response agencies. Should any of these agencies encounter a Liberty University student and determine that this student has been or is currently engaging in criminal activity, that agency will typically contact LUPD and give official notification of the incident. This also includes any information that they may have which pertains to a Timely Warning Notice.

The Office of Equity & Compliance is responsible for collecting crime statistics and documentation from other local law enforcement agencies affecting the university. The Office of Equity & Compliance annually sends a letter to all local police agencies to request information on any incidents involving Liberty University students that may fall within the mandated reporting standards set forth in the Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Those requests are on file at the Office of Equity & Compliance. This letter to local law enforcement agencies specifically spells out the Clery crimes, with definitions, that need to be reported. It also states that "If a serious crime that may cause an ongoing threat to our campus community is reported to your department, we would appreciate it if you would notify our university Police Department immediately. The institution has a legal responsibility to notify the campus community in a timely manner about any crimes on and immediately around the campus that pose an ongoing threat to the community."

SECURITY, MAINTENANCE, AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Security and access control design standards have been developed for all buildings owned or controlled by Liberty University. Entrances to residence floors are locked at all times. Exterior doors in all residence hall buildings remain locked at all times, except in those buildings that house university offices. Moreover, exterior entrances are allowed to be unlocked during official move-in hours each fall. Resident Advisors (RAs) conduct mandatory checks during evening hours to verify that all exterior entrances are locked and secured. LUPD also conducts mandatory checks at random intervals to ensure that all exterior entrances are locked and fully secured. LUPD reports unsafe physical conditions that must be addressed (e.g., malfunctioning lights, unsafe sidewalks, malfunctioning door locks, etc.). These reports are then forwarded to the appropriate facility/department to mitigate the unsafe circumstance as quickly as possible. Facilities and landscapes are maintained in such a manner as to minimize hazardous conditions. When facilities receive maintenance or renovations, security and safety possibilities are evaluated to ensure a high level of protection. Adequate lighting, both inside and outside, is ensured; properly securing doors are verified; properly securing windows are verified; and landscaping is assessed to ensure that unsafe conditions do not exist. These and other considerations are taken into account during every maintenance, renovation, and building cycle at Liberty University. Academic and administrative buildings are generally open during normal operating hours. During extended breaks and after daily normal operating hours, the facilities are locked and secured. For more detailed information about building access protocols, please visit the Liberty University website at Liberty.edu, contact the specified building manager or department head within the building, or contact LUPD at (434) 592-7641. LUPD, University Facilities, and the Office of Residence Life work together to enforce security measures across campus.

Security programs are presented to faculty, staff, and students annually, as well as by request, to promote increased awareness of safety and security on campus. LUPD is committed to educating the university community in security awareness and crime prevention. This effort is in place to educate the community as well as help them understand their responsibility in aiding their own security and the security of others. These educational programs include: Operation Identification; Run, Hide, Fight; LU Safe Ride; Rape Aggression Defense; and Bomb Threat Awareness. Dates and registration to these classes are located on Liberty University's Department of Emergency Management & Community Engagement website.

Information on Operation Identification and LU Safe Ride is presented multiple times throughout the year at every new student orientation. Moreover, LUPD attends numerous university annual department orientations for staff and faculty. As mentioned, this programming is also available, upon request, to individuals and groups within the Liberty University community.

Operation Identification

Operation Identification is a nationally recognized identification procedure. It was created to help make items more theft resistant and, if stolen, more recoverable and returnable. This is accomplished by engraving identification marks onto property. These engravers are available at LUPD. In addition, there are several times throughout the year where LUPD sets up mobile stations around campus to provide this service.

Announcements about date, time, and location of these stations will be posted on the LUPD website, as well as on the Liberty University "myLU" portal. These announcements are also added to the electronic newsletter distributed to every residential student who lives on campus. It is imperative that those taking advantage of this free service do not use their social security numbers on an engraving.

Rape Aggression Defense

Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) is a program of realistic, self-defense tactics and techniques. It is a comprehensive course for women that begins with awareness, prevention, risk reduction, and avoidance, while progressing to the basics of hands-on defense training. A program for men is available upon request. RAD is not a martial arts program. Our courses are taught by certified RAD instructors and provide students with a workbook/reference manual. This manual outlines the entire physical defense program for reference and continuous personal growth. The RAD System of physical defense is taught at many colleges and universities. The success of this system is primarily due to the ease, simplicity, and effectiveness of the tactics, solid research, and unique teaching methodology.

LU Safe Ride

Liberty University is an open campus, which means there are no gates or guard posts designed to control access to the campus. Members of the Liberty University community are always encouraged to walk in pairs or groups, especially at night. However, understanding that sometimes being alone is inevitable, LUPD created and implemented the LU Safe Ride Program. This program operates daily from dusk until dawn and provides transportation or a walking escort, by a uniformed officer, for anyone upon request.

To take advantage of this free service, contact the LUPD Dispatch Center's nonemergency telephone line at (434) 592-7641. Please remember that this service is not intended to replace the LU Transit System and should only be utilized when there are no safe options available.

Active Shooter Response

Active Shooter Response is a nationally recognized program taught by LUPD to all students, faculty, and staff at their respective annual orientations. It is also available to any group upon request. The purpose of this program is to educate the Liberty University community on what to do in the event of an active shooter in their building or within their respective vicinity. In today's society, the possibility of an active shooter is very real. It is important for all members of the community to know what to do in the event of an emergency situation.

RUN — starts with your state of mind:

- Pay attention to your surroundings.
- Have an exit plan.
- Move away from the source of the threat as quickly as possible.
- The more distance and barriers between you and the threat, the better.

HIDE — when getting away is difficult or maybe even impossible:

- Keep distance between you and the source.
- Create barriers to prevent or slow down a threat from getting to you.

- Turn the lights off.
- Remain out of sight and quiet by hiding behind large objects and silence your phone.

FIGHT — because you have the right to protect yourself:

- If you cannot Run or Hide, be prepared to defend yourself.
- Be aggressive and committed to your actions.
- Do not fight fairly. This is about survival.

Active Shooter Response Video: <https://www.liberty.edu/police/emergency-information/>

Remember that help is on the way. The average response time for LUPD is four (4) minutes but may be shorter or longer, depending on the scenario. Follow the lawful orders of law enforcement in uniform or with proper identification.

Bomb Threat Awareness

Bomb threats are very real possibilities. It is important for anyone who receives a bomb threat to follow proper procedures. Bomb threat awareness classes are taught by LUPD to university employees, in particular; however, these classes are also available to other members of the university community upon request. These classes are designed to give individuals the proper tools to gather as much information as possible during a call about both the location and the construction of any alleged explosive device. Instruction is given in order to obtain the identity and the location of the caller, as well as other pertinent information, such as what to listen for in the background of the call and what steps to take for recording and obtaining information.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICIES

Liberty University recognizes that the misuse and abuse of alcohol and drugs are persistent social and health problems of major concern in our society. Such misuse and abuse can interfere with the goals and objectives of any educational institution.

Everyone on Liberty University's campus is subject to state, federal, and local laws, as well as university policy, concerning the sale, possession, and use of alcohol, drugs, and drug paraphernalia. Specifically, university policy prohibits alcohol, illegal drugs, and drug paraphernalia on campus and prohibits students from consuming or possessing alcohol. LUPD enforces these laws and university policy. Therefore, anyone found in violation of these laws may be arrested, prosecuted, and/or subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal from the university.

The Dean of Students Office provides information on drug- and alcohol-abuse programs through Choices and Substance Abuse Awareness. Choices is a program offered by the Office of Community Life, which is a part of the Dean of Students Office. Students who attend Choices have often been assigned the program as an educational sanction from the Office of Community Life. This class is held 2-3 times each semester and is facilitated by Associate Directors of Community Life. Substance abuse awareness programs (e.g., Celebrate Recovery and Relapse Prevention Group) are also referred by the Office of Community Life with advisement from Student Counseling Services.

MISSING STUDENTS

All missing student reports must be directed to LUPD, which is responsible for the documentation, investigation, and notification of missing students. If a member of the university community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify LUPD at (434) 592-3911. LUPD will initiate an investigation and generate a missing person report.

If, after investigating the report of a missing person, LUPD determines that the student is in fact missing, LUPD will notify the student's emergency contact(s) or confidentially identified individual that the student is missing. If the missing student is under the age of 21, LUPD will notify the student's parent or legal guardian that the student is missing.

In addition to registering an emergency contact, students residing in on-campus housing have the option to identify, confidentially, an individual to be contacted by Liberty University in the event the student is determined to be missing. This confidential contact information will be accessible only to authorized campus officials and law enforcement, and it will not be disclosed outside of the missing person investigation. LUPD will follow all reporting and investigatory laws when dealing with missing persons.

If a student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated, the university will also notify the custodial parent or guardian within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY

On Oct. 28, 2002, the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act took effect. This Act requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where information on the identity and location of registered sex offenders may be obtained. This Act also requires registered sex offenders to provide notice to each institution of higher education of their status as a registered sex offender if that person is employed, carries on a vocation, volunteers services, or is a student. Information about the sex offender registry can be found at:

<https://sex-offender.vsp.virginia.gov/sor/>

In Virginia, convicted sex offenders must register with the "Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry." This Registry was established pursuant to VA. CODE § 19.2-390.1. Every person convicted on or after July 1, 1997, including juveniles tried and convicted in the Circuit Court pursuant to VA. CODE § 16.1-269.1, whether sentenced as an adult or a juvenile, of an offense for which registration is required must be required as a part of the imposed sentence to register and continuously re-register annually with the "Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry" as provided in the above sections of the Virginia Code.

Moreover, any person convicted of violations under federal law or other state law substantially similar to an offense for which registration is required in Virginia must register with the "Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry" within 10 days of assuming residence in Virginia. Any person required to be registered must also be required to re-register within 10 days following any change in residence.

Nonresident offenders entering Virginia for employment, to carry on a vocation, for volunteer services, or as a student attending school, who are required to register in their home state or who would be required to register under the Virginia Code if they were a resident of Virginia, must, within 10 days of engaging in any of these activities, register with the "Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry" and re-register annually pursuant to the Virginia Code. For purposes of this section, "student" means any person who is enrolled on a full-time or a part-time basis, in any public or private educational institution, including any secondary school, trade or professional institution, or institution of higher education. Information concerning offenders registered with the "Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry" may be disclosed to any person requesting information on a specific individual in accordance with the law. Information regarding a specific person requested pursuant to the law must be disseminated upon receipt of an official request form that may be submitted directly to Virginia's Department of State Police or to the Department of State Police through a local law enforcement agency.

The Department of State Police must then make registry information available, upon request, to criminal justice agencies, including local law enforcement agencies, through the Virginia Criminal Information Network (VCIN). Registry information provided under this section must be used for the purpose of the administration of criminal justice, for the screening of current or prospective employees or volunteers, or otherwise for the protection of the public in general, or for the protection of children in particular. Uses of the information for purposes not authorized by the Virginia

Code are prohibited, and a willful violation of this section of the Virginia Code with the intent to harass or intimidate another will be punished as a Class 1 Misdemeanor.

The Department of State Police maintains the online system that makes certain registry information on violent sex offenders publicly available via the internet. The information made available includes the offender's name; all aliases that the offender has used or by which the offender may have been known; the date and locality of the conviction and a brief description of the offense; the offender's date of birth; the offender's current address; the offender's photograph; and such other information as the Department of State Police deems necessary to public safety. The system is secure and cannot be altered except by the Department of State Police. The system is updated daily, except on weekends, with new registrations.

Liberty University is committed to providing a safe and non-discriminatory learning, living, and working environment for all members of the university community. The university does not discriminate on the basis of sex or gender in any of its education or employment programs and activities. To that end, the university prohibits specific forms of behavior that violate Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX); Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII); and/or the Virginia Human Rights Act. When the university receives reports of prohibited conduct, it is also required to fulfill certain obligations under the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 and the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act).

Liberty University has adopted its Policy on Discrimination, Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct Policy (the Title IX Policy) with a commitment to the following:

- eliminating, preventing, and addressing the effects of sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and other conduct prohibited (collectively "Prohibited Conduct") under the Title IX policy.
- fostering the university's community of trust, in which Prohibited Conduct is not tolerated.
- cultivating a climate where all individuals are well informed and supported in reporting Prohibited Conduct.
- providing a prompt, fair, and impartial process for all parties.
- identifying the standards by which violations of the Title IX Policy will be evaluated and disciplinary action may be imposed.

It is the responsibility of every member of the university community to foster an environment free of Prohibited Conduct. All members of the university community are encouraged to take reasonable and prudent actions to prevent or stop an act of Prohibited Conduct. The university will support and assist community members who take such actions.

Definitions

1. Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged victim (Complainant). It includes but is not limited to sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse.

2. Sexual Assault

(a) Rape: the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

(b) Fondling: the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the person is incapable of giving consent because of their youth or because of their temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

(c) Incest: non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

(d) Statutory rape: non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Consent is not defined under Virginia law. For Title IX purposes, Liberty defines consent as the voluntary and freely given agreement, through words and/or actions, to participate in mutually agreed-upon sexual acts. Consensual sexual activity happens when each person willingly affirms that they choose to participate.

In evaluating whether consent has been voluntary and freely given, the university will consider the presence of any force, threat of force, or coercion; whether the Complainant had the capacity to give consent; and whether the communication (through words and/or actions) between the Parties would be interpreted by a reasonable person (under similar circumstances and with a similar identity) as willingness to engage in a particular sexual act.

Consent cannot be obtained from another in situations involving physical force or a reasonable belief of the threat of physical force upon another person, when one person overcomes the physical limitations of another person, or when the other person is incapacitated.

Important points regarding consent include:

- Consent to one act does not constitute consent to another act.
- Consent on a prior occasion does not constitute consent on a subsequent occasion.
- Consent to an act with one person does not constitute consent to any act with another person.
- The existence of a prior or current sexual relationship does not, by itself, constitute consent to any sexual act; even in the context of a sexual relationship, there must be mutual consent to each sexual act.
- Consent can be affirmatively withdrawn or modified at any time, and sexual contact must cease immediately once consent is withdrawn through words and/or action.
- Consent cannot be reasonably inferred from mere silence, mere passivity, mere lack of movement, or mere lack of resistance.

3. Sexual Exploitation

Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for anyone's advantage or benefit other than the person being exploited, and such behavior does not otherwise constitute sexual harassment under the Title IX policy.

Domestic Violence is an act of violence committed: (i) by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, (ii) by one parent against another who share a child in common, (iii) by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the other person as a spouse or intimate partner, (iv) a person similarly situated to a spouse of a victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the state where the violent act occurred, (v) by any other person against another who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the state where the violent act occurred. Domestic violence can be a single event or a pattern of behavior that includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse.

Domestic violence can include physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, extort, demean, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound the victim.

4. Stalking

Stalking is a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person (under similar circumstances and with a similar identity to the targeted person) to: (1) fear for her or his safety or for the safety of others or (2) suffer substantial emotional distress.

"Course of conduct" means two or more acts, including but not limited to, in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.

"Substantial emotional distress" means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Stalking also includes cyberstalking, conducted using online, electronic, or digital technologies or communications (e.g., the internet, social networks, blogs, cellphones, or text messages).

5. Retaliation

Any adverse action taken against a person because of their participation in a protected activity, including filing, assisting, or providing information in connection with a report or Formal Complaint of Prohibited Conduct.

Virginia does not define dating violence, domestic violence, or sexual assault. However, see the "Definitions of Clery-reportable Incidents" section of the Annual Security Report (ASR) for related Virginia statutes.

Reporting Prohibited Conduct

Any person may report Prohibited Conduct and is encouraged to do so. Reports can be submitted or received through the following university channels: (1) Liberty University SpeakUP! Form; (2) a Beacon Incident Report; (3) in-person to (a) the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator, (b) an investigator in the OEC or Liberty's Human Resources Department (HR), or (c) a Deputy Coordinator; and (4) an email, letter, or telephone call to the OEC, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator, an Investigator in the OEC or HR, or a Deputy Coordinator.

A Responsible Employee may also report Prohibited Conduct on behalf of a Complainant (victim) via an email to the OEC, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator, an investigator in the OEC or HR, or a Deputy Coordinator. Reports may be made any time, including non-business hours. Students and employees are urged to report any Prohibited Conduct that may constitute a crime to local law enforcement or LUPD immediately. Police have unique legal authority to seek and execute search warrants, to collect forensic evidence that may have been left at the scene or at other relevant locations, and to make an arrest when supported by probable cause to believe a crime has been committed. Police are also able to assist university community members in seeking emergency protective orders. Police can be reached by calling 911 (or one of the other numbers listed). Individuals seeking medical attention at an emergency department can ask that police be called on their behalf. Incidents that occur on Grounds fall within the jurisdiction of the university police. Incidents that occur off Grounds fall within the City of Lynchburg or other jurisdictions contingent upon location. Individuals will be directed to the appropriate police department when they call 911 or contact the university police department at (434) 592-3911.

While anyone may report Prohibited Conduct, only Formal Complaints of Prohibited Conduct trigger more robust disciplinary proceedings. Furthermore, only Formal Complaints of Sexual Harassment (which includes sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking) may trigger the live Hearing requirement as part of a disciplinary proceeding. A Formal Complaint is a document filed by the alleged victim (Complainant) of Prohibited Conduct or a person with the legal right to act on behalf of an alleged victim or signed by the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator alleging Prohibited Conduct by a Respondent and requesting that Liberty formally investigate the allegations. Many factors may inform the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator's decision to sign a Formal Complaint, including that the matter is sufficiently grave or that it poses a safety risk to the university community because it seems to be part of a persistent pattern or because of the serious nature of the alleged offense. The Complainants may submit a Formal Complaint by completing and submitting a Formal Complaint Form found on the OEC webpage at Liberty.edu/Title-IX/ or by submitting a written statement to the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator, the OEC, or any of the Deputy Coordinators in Section 2 of the Title IX Policy and listed in this ASR.

Initial Assessment – Reports and Formal Complaints

Upon receiving a report or formal complaint of Prohibited Conduct, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator will assess any immediate health or safety concerns of the Complainant or to the campus community and, based on that assessment, notify appropriate departments and comply with any legal requirements. During the initial assessment phase, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator may gather evidence and other information about the alleged Prohibited Conduct. If the reporting person is the victim, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator will discuss, among other things, the supportive measures/protective measures available to the victim (either with or without filing a Formal Complaint) while considering the victim's wishes with regard to supportive measures, how to file a Formal Complaint (unless the report is in the form of a Formal Complaint), their right to file a report with law enforcement and seek a civil protection order, and the importance of preserving evidence. Moreover, if the reporting person is the victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, Liberty will provide written notification about existing: (1) counseling, health, and mental health, (2) victim advocacy, (3) legal assistance, (4) student financial aid, (5) visa and immigration assistance, (6) and other services available within Liberty and in the community.

If the reporting person is not the Complainant (victim), the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator will promptly contact the alleged victim to discuss, among other things, the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a Formal Complaint, consider the victim's wishes with respect to supportive measures, and explain the process for filing a Formal Complaint. Liberty will provide written notification to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking about options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures.

Written notification of available support services (as described above in (1) - (6)) will also be sent to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In any event, when a student or employee reports to Liberty that he or she has been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, whether the alleged offense occurred on or off campus, Liberty will provide the student or employee with a written explanation of: (1) the importance of preserving evidence that may assist in proving an alleged criminal offense or that may aid in obtaining a protective order; (2) how and to whom the alleged offense may be reported; (3) options regarding the involvement of law enforcement, including LUPD, and include notifying the proper law enforcement agency, whether LUPD or local law enforcement, be assisted by campus authorities in notifying the appropriate law enforcement agency, decline to notify such authorities; (4) where applicable, the rights of victims and Liberty's responsibilities for orders of protection, no-contact orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court or by Liberty; and (5) information about how Liberty protects the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties, including how Liberty will complete its public recordkeeping, such as Clery Act reporting and disclosures without the inclusion of personally identifying information, as defined in section 40002(a) (20) of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 (42 U.S.C. 13925(a)(20)) and maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim to the extent that such confidentiality does not impair Liberty's ability to provide the accommodation or protective measures. Liberty will also provide written explanation to victims of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence of the procedures for disciplinary actions for those incidents. When a student or employee reports that he or she has been a victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, or dating violence, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, Liberty will provide the student or employee a written explanation of the student or employee's rights and options as noted in this section. Liberty meets many of these written notification requirements by providing access to an online or hard copy of the Title IX Policy. In the event any of the required applicable notifications are not provided in the Title IX Policy, separate written notifications are provided.

Complainants have the right to decline to respond to communications from the OEC, request that no investigation or resolution be pursued, limit his or her participation in the disciplinary process, or request only supportive measures and decline to file a Formal Complaint. Supportive measures range from academic accommodations to emergency-immediate restriction. Liberty maintains as confidential any supportive measures that it provides to the Complainant to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality does not impair its ability to provide the supportive measure(s). When a formal complaint is received, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator will, as part of the initial assessment, review its sufficiency, evaluate for any grounds that would justify mandatory or discretionary dismissal, and if necessary, clarify with the Complainant any information that is unclear. Initial Assessments typically take one to five days.

Mandatory Dismissal of Complaints

Under Title IX, Liberty must dismiss a Formal Complaint of Prohibited Conduct if it determines that: (1) the alleged conduct would not constitute prohibited conduct even if proved, (2) the conduct did not occur in an educational program or activity controlled by the university and/or the university does not have control over the Respondent, (3) the conduct did not occur in the United States or against a person in the United States, or (4) at the time of the filing of the Formal Complaint, the Complainant is not participating in or attempting to participate in an educational program or activity of the university.

Discretionary Dismissal of Formal Complaints

Liberty may dismiss a Formal Complaint of Prohibited Conduct if (1) the Complainant provides written notice that he or she would like to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegation contained therein, (2) the Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the university, or (3) specific circumstances prevent the university from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the Formal Complaint or allegations therein.

Upon any dismissal, Liberty will promptly send written notice of the dismissal and the reason for the dismissal simultaneously to the Complainant and Respondent as well as written notice of the right of either to appeal the dismissal and how to submit an appeal.

Procedures Sexual Assault Victims Should Follow

An individual who experiences sexual assault or any other form of interpersonal violence is strongly encouraged to seek immediate medical attention. Providers can assess injuries related to physical trauma, evaluate for sexually transmitted infections, and provide medical care.

Preservation of Evidence

An individual may elect to have a forensic sexual assault examination performed to collect evidence, even if they have not yet decided whether they want to report the assault to the police and/or to the university. That decision is entirely the individual's to make. A forensic exam may be obtained through an examination by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (also known as a "SANE nurse") at Lynchburg General Hospital. SANE nurses can assess injuries related to physical trauma, evaluate for sexually transmitted infections and possible pregnancy, provide medical care (including medications to prevent infections), and can, within 120 hours (five days) but as soon as possible after a sexual assault, administer a "forensic exam." During the forensic exam, the SANE nurse documents and collects evidence of sexual contact and/or physical trauma (including injuries to the body and genitals), trace evidence, biological fluids, and identifiable DNA. When there is reason to believe that an assault may have been facilitated by the use of drugs or alcohol, the forensic exam may also include the collection of urine and blood samples for toxicology testing. Patients are not required to report an incident to law enforcement or the university in order to receive medical attention or a forensic exam. A patient may have a support person of their choosing present throughout the exam. Regardless of whether a forensic exam is obtained within the first 120 hours after a sexual assault, all individuals are encouraged to seek follow-up care to address any ongoing medical concerns, including those related to sexually transmitted infections. The university recognizes that making the decision to report Prohibited Conduct may take time.

Nevertheless, pending the decision to report, all individuals are strongly encouraged to take immediate steps to preserve all evidence that might support a future report of Prohibited Conduct, a protective order or an investigation by the police, the university, or both.

Such evidence may include the following:

- A forensic sexual assault examination (within 120 hours)
- Any clothing, sheets, or other materials (Items containing bodily fluids should be stored in cardboard boxes or paper bags.)
- Electronic exchanges (e.g., text messages, emails, and Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, or other social media posts, to the extent that they can be captured or preserved)
- Photographs (including photographs stored on smartphones and other devices)
- Voicemail messages and other physical, documentary, and/or electronic data that might be helpful or relevant in an investigation

Interim Supportive/Protective Measures and Accommodations

Upon receiving a report or complaint of Prohibited Conduct, and after consultation with the Complainant and the Respondent (to the extent possible), the university will provide reasonable and appropriate interim measures designed to preserve the Parties' educational experiences to protect the Parties during the investigation and resolution of a matter, to address safety concerns of the Parties or other affected members of the campus community, to maintain the integrity of the investigative and resolution processes, and to deter Retaliation. Interim measures are available regardless of whether a Complainant pursues an investigation under this Policy. The university seeks to minimize any impact of interim measures on both Parties. Both Parties will be notified in writing of the imposition of interim measures that impact them.

The OEC is responsible both for the implementation and enforcement of interim measures and for coordinating the university's response with the appropriate university office(s). The OEC has the discretion to impose and/or modify any interim measure based on available information and is available to meet with a Complainant, a Respondent, or any other affected member of the university community to address any concerns related to interim measures. The university will maintain the privacy of interim measures provided under this Policy to the extent practicable and will promptly address any violation of an interim measure. All persons are encouraged to report to the OEC any concerns about failures of any person to abide by interim measures. Disciplinary action, including any of the sanctions listed in this Policy, can be imposed for failing to abide by a university-imposed interim measure.

Interim measures are not permanent resolutions or substitutes for the investigation and resolution processes under this Policy; however, interim measures may remain in place even if there is a determination of non-responsibility at the conclusion of the disciplinary process. This may be permanent or for extended periods of time beyond resolution of the matter if the Executive Director determines that they are necessary to accomplish a purpose of preserving educational opportunity, addressing safety concerns, or deterring Retaliation. Any interim measures that remain in place permanently or for extended periods of time cannot be overly restrictive or burdensome to the extent that they amount to a sanction on the Respondent. Interim measures may be modified or withdrawn as additional information is obtained and upon final resolution of the report or complaint. Interim measures range from academic accommodations to emergency-immediate restriction.

Protective Orders

Where Prohibited Conduct is reported, it may be possible to obtain a court-ordered emergency or preliminary protective order. These protective orders may be issued if the judge or magistrate believes that there is an immediate threat to health or safety. Later, after a full hearing, the court may agree to issue a "permanent" protective order in appropriate cases. A permanent protective order may remain in place for up to two years under Virginia law and, in some cases, may be extended for an additional two years. "Protective orders" are separate and distinct from "mutual no-contact directives" that are issued by the OEC (often as a supportive measure) and restrict communications between the Complainant and the Respondent. Protective orders may be obtained only from a court of law and are enforceable anywhere in the United States; their violation may result in criminal charges. In contrast, OEC/Title IX arranges no-contact directives, which are enforceable through the university.

Victim Confidentiality

The university is committed to protecting the privacy of all individuals involved in the investigation and resolution of a report or formal complaint under the Title IX Policy. The university also is committed to providing assistance to help students, employees, and third parties make informed choices. With respect to any report or formal complaint under the Title IX Policy, the university will make reasonable efforts to protect the privacy of participants, in accordance with applicable state and federal law, while balancing the need to gather information to assess the report and to take steps to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. "Privacy" and "confidentiality" have distinct meanings under the Title IX Policy.

Privacy means that information related to a report or formal complaint of Prohibited Conduct will be shared with a limited circle of university employees who "need to know" in order to assist in the assessment, investigation, and resolution of the report or formal complaint. All employees who are involved in the university's response to reports of Prohibited Conduct receive specific training and guidance about sharing and safeguarding private information in accordance with state and federal law.

The privacy of student education records will be protected in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), as outlined in the university's FERPA policy. The privacy of an individual's medical records is protected by Virginia's Health Records Privacy Act, Va. Code Section 32.1-127.1:03, and may also be protected by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) or by FERPA. Access to an employee's personnel records may be restricted in accordance with the Virginia Freedom of Information Act. Confidentiality exists in the context of laws that protect certain relationships, including with medical and clinical care providers (and those who provide administrative services related to the provision of medical and clinical care), mental health providers, counselors, and ordained clergy, all of whom may engage in confidential communications under Virginia law. The university has designated individuals who have statutory obligations to maintain confidentiality as "Confidential Resources." When information is shared by an individual with a Confidential Resource or a community professional with the same legal obligations, the Confidential Employee (and/or such community professional) cannot reveal the information to any third party except when ethical obligations, an applicable law, or a court order requires or permits disclosure of such information. For example, information may be disclosed when (i) the individual gives written consent for its disclosure, (ii) there is a concern that the individual will likely cause serious physical harm to self or others, or (iii) the information concerns conduct involving suspected abuse or neglect of a minor under the age of 18. Moreover, when a Confidential Resource receives information about suspected Prohibited Conduct outside of the provision of services to a patient or client, the Confidential Resource is encouraged to share that information with the OEC. Employees designated as Responsible Employees under the Title IX Policy are required to report any suspected Prohibited Conduct except information disclosed: (1) at public awareness events in which students may disclose Prohibited Conduct or (2) during a person's participation as a subject in an Institutional Review Board-approved human subjects research protocol. Under Virginia Code §23.1-806 (the reporting statute), the university is required to report information about certain allegations of Prohibited Conduct to the law enforcement agencies and the prosecuting authorities who would be responsible, respectively, for investigating and prosecuting such allegations. Liberty protects the confidentiality of victims and necessary parties for Clery Act reporting and disclosures by providing the required statistics in a manner that does not include any personally identifying information (as defined in section 40002(a)(20) of VAWA) about individuals involved in an incident. The Clery Act also requires the university to issue timely warnings to the university community about certain crimes that have been reported and may continue to pose a serious or continuing threat to students and employees. Consistent with the Clery Act, the university withholds the names and other personally identifying information of Complainants when issuing timely warnings or emergency notifications to the university community and in maintaining the daily crime log. Liberty University will also maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the Complainant, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

Prevention and Awareness Programs

Liberty prohibits sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking as those crimes are defined under the Clery Act. The university is committed to the prevention of Prohibited Conduct through regular and ongoing education and awareness programs. The university provides coordinated programming and training through multiple offices and departments, including the Office of Equity & Compliance, the Dean of Students Office, LUPD, Human Resources, the Provost's Office, the OCL, Student Counseling Services (SCS), and other Liberty University offices and departments.

Incoming students and new employees receive education and awareness programming as part of their orientation, and returning students and current employees receive ongoing training and related programs. These programs include (1) statements that the university prohibits Prohibited Conduct, as defined by the Title IX Policy, and related crimes under Virginia law; (2) the definitions of related crimes under Virginia law; (3) the definition of "Affirmative Consent" for purposes of the policy; (4) safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of Prohibited Conduct against another person; (5) information on risk reduction to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior; (6) mandatory online Title IX training for all faculty, staff, and students; and (7) information about the procedures that the university will follow after an incident of Prohibited Conduct has occurred. The university's education and prevention programs reflect comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to end Prohibited Conduct. These programs are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, and/or outcome. These programs are also designed to consider environmental risk and protective factors as they affect individuals, relationships, institutions, communities, and society.

Bystander Intervention

Bystander intervention consists of safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is risk of an occurrence of Prohibited Conduct. It includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, addressing overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene.

Disciplinary Proceedings – Complaints of Prohibited Conduct

After a Formal Complaint has been received, the OEC promptly, but at least five days in advance of any initial meeting with a Complainant or Respondent (person accused of the Prohibited Conduct), will provide written notice to the Complainant and Respondent that includes, among other things, details of the allegations of Prohibited Conduct, the right to have an advisor of their choice who may or may not be an attorney, and an explanation of the Informal and Formal Resolution Processes. The right to an advisor includes the right to have the advisor present at any meetings.

Determining Responsibility – Standard of Proof

The university uses the preponderance of the evidence standard in determining if a Respondent is responsible for Prohibited Conduct. Preponderance of the evidence means that it is “more likely than not” that the Prohibited Conduct occurred.

Training

All officials conducting disciplinary proceedings receive at least annual training on issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and on how to conduct investigations and hearings that comply with applicable law and regulations. All must be free from actual bias and conflict of interest for or against the accused and the accuser.

Informal Resolution

The Informal Resolution process seeks to effectively resolve allegations of Prohibited Conduct at the earliest possible stage in a less adversarial manner that gives the Complainant and Respondent more control over the resolution of a Formal Complaint. The university may facilitate an Informal Resolution at any time prior to a determination of whether the Respondent is responsible for the alleged Prohibited Conduct.

Informal Resolution may include mediation, restorative conferences, targeted educational and training programs, or mutually-agreed-upon disciplinary measures. There may or may not be an admission of responsibility for the Prohibited Conduct during the Informal Resolution process.

Informal Resolution is only appropriate if after a Formal Complaint has been filed, the Complainant and Respondent voluntarily consent in writing to participate. Formal Complaints by a Complainant-student alleging any form of Sexual Harassment by a university employee are not eligible for Informal Resolution.

The Complainant and the Respondent each have the right to withdraw from the Informal Resolution process at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution and resume the Formal Resolution process. Liberty may also, when appropriate, terminate or decline to initiate the Informal Resolution process and instead proceed with Formal Resolution. In cases where the Formal Resolution process is resumed, statements, disclosures, or admissions made by Complainants, Respondents, or witnesses in the course of Informal Resolution may be considered in accordance with the evidentiary requirements of the Formal Resolution process.

Informal Resolution may not be selected for less than all of the Prohibited Conduct alleged in the Formal Complaint. Reaching a resolution concludes the Informal Resolution process and precludes resumption of the Formal Resolution process for all allegations of Prohibited Conduct in the Formal Complaint.

Once the Informal Resolution process has been initiated, the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator will appoint a mediator who will oversee the process and attempt to facilitate resolution. The mediator may be an investigator in the OEC but, in any event, will not be the same investigator assigned to the Formal Resolution process, if any, of the Formal Complaint. The Complainant or the Respondent or both may challenge the appointment of the mediator in accordance with the Title IX Policy. Any substitution of the mediator will be provided, in writing, to the Complainant and the Respondent in advance of any meeting.

The mediator will provide concurrent written notice to the Complainant and the Respondent that includes the allegations of Prohibited Conduct, the requirements of Informal Resolution, and any consequences resulting from participation in the process. If only some of the allegations of Prohibited Conduct justify continuing to resolution due to other allegations being dismissed, the mediator will specify in the notice which allegations are being dismissed in accordance with the Formal Complaint dismissal policy and which are continuing resolution. The written notice will include the date, time, and location of the Informal Resolution Conference (IRC). The Complainant and the Respondent are not required to appear together at the same IRC, but attendance at the IRC is required.

The Complainant and the Respondent may not contact each other for any reason outside of the Informal Resolution process. They may engage each other only in the presence of the mediator, or they may communicate through the mediator with their feelings and perceptions of the alleged incident and its impact and relay their wishes and expectations regarding the future. The Complainant and the Respondent must participate in the process in good faith.

The mediator may reschedule an IRC if the Complainant or Respondent fails to appear at an initial IRC, or the mediator may terminate the Informal Resolution process at any time if either the Complainant or the Respondent is not participating in the process in good faith. If the mediator terminates the Informal Resolution process, the Complainant and Respondent will be notified in writing of the termination and informed that the Formal Complaint will now be handled under the Formal Resolution Process.

If an agreement is reached under Informal Resolution and the mediator finds it appropriate, the mediator will prepare a written resolution agreement that the mediator will provide to the Complainant and the Respondent for their review. Once the resolution agreement is signed by the Complainant and the Respondent, the Formal Complaint will be closed. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the resolution agreement is, in itself, Prohibited Conduct under the Title IX Policy and can be made the subject of a Formal Complaint by either the Complainant, Respondent, or the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator.

Liberty strives to complete the Informal Resolution process within 60 days, but extensions for good cause may be granted. If an extension is granted, the Complainant and the Respondent will be notified of the extension and the reason it was granted.

Formal Resolution Process – Complaints of Sexual Harassment (including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking)

A trained Investigator will be assigned to gather relevant evidence to determine if a Respondent is responsible for Prohibited Conduct. The Respondent is presumed not responsible at all stages of the investigation unless and until a determination of responsibility is made at the conclusion of the Formal Resolution process.

Complainant and Respondent are given equal and fair opportunity to present witnesses and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence to the investigator. Prior to the creation of a written investigative report, the Complainant and Respondent have a fair and equal opportunity to inspect and review all the relevant evidence, including inculpatory and exculpatory evidence and evidence that Liberty does not intend to rely on in reaching a determination of responsibility. Such evidence will also be sent to the Complainant and Respondent’s advisors, if any. The Complainant and Respondent will each have ten days to submit a written response to the evidence, including any reasons why certain evidence is not relevant and thus should not be included in the investigative report. After considering any such responses, the investigator will complete the investigative report that will include, along with all the relevant evidence (and the Formal Complaint), a fair, thorough, and accurate summary of the relevant evidence. It may also include recommended findings and conclusions. The investigative report will be made concurrently available to the Complainant and the Respondent and their advisors, if any, for review and written response at least ten days prior to the hearing. The Complainant and the Respondent may discuss the investigator’s conclusions in their written response and/or at the hearing.

Hearing

After the ten day response time to the investigative report has lapsed, a written notice of hearing will be sent to the Complainant and Respondent.

Either the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator or the Executive Vice President for Human Resources/Deputy Coordinator will appoint a trained hearing officer. The Complainant and Respondent will receive concurrent written notice of the name of the hearing officer and be given three days to object to the appointment of hearing officer. The notice of hearing will contain the date, time, and location of the hearing. Prior to the hearing, the investigator will provide to the hearing officer the investigative report, any written responses by the Complainant, Respondent, and their advisors, if any. The evidence that was subject to inspection and review will also be provided to the hearing officer and made available to the Complainant and Respondent so they may refer to that evidence at the hearing. Within three days of receiving the notice of hearing, the Complainant and Respondent must send to the hearing officer a list of any witnesses and exhibits (along with description) they intend to use at the hearing, and they must describe each proposed witness’s connection to or knowledge of the allegations that are the subject of the hearing.

The Complainant and Respondent will have a fair and equal opportunity at the hearing to present evidence and make arguments. The Complainant and Respondent’s advisors will have equal opportunity to cross-examine any witnesses. Cross-examination must be conducted directly, orally, and in real time. If a Complainant or Respondent does not have an advisor for the hearing, Liberty will appoint an advisor, at no charge, to the Complainant or Respondent.

At the request of either the Respondent or the Complainant, Liberty will provide for the hearing to take place in separate rooms with technology enabling the hearing officer and the Complainant and Respondent to simultaneously see and hear each other and any witnesses. Other alternative arrangements for virtual appearance may be provided at the hearing officer’s discretion. The hearing officer will arrange for the audio or audiovisual recording or transcript of the hearing. This recording will be available for inspection and review by the Complainant and the Respondent. The recording may also be turned over to the Appeals Board as part of the Appeals process.

Notice of Hearing Outcome

Within seven days of the conclusion of the hearing, the Hearing Officer will render a determination of responsible or not responsible based on the preponderance of the evidence standard. The Hearing Officer will provide concurrent notice of the hearing outcome via email to the Complainant and Respondent. The written notice will include: (1) identification of the allegations potentially constituting Sexual Harassment, as well as any other Prohibited Conduct arising out of the same incident or facts that were consolidated for the hearing, (2) a description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the Formal Complaint through the determination, (3) site visits by the Investigator (if any), (4) methods used to gather other evidence, (5) details related to the hearing, (6) findings of fact supporting the Hearing Officer’s determination, (7) conclusions regarding the application of the Title IX Policy to the facts, (8) a statement of the result as to each allegation of Prohibited Conduct, including the Hearing Officer’s rationale for his or her determination of each allegation and any sanctions he or she imposes, (9) whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to Liberty’s educational programs or activities will be provided to the Complainant (without specifying the nature of such remedies), and (10) Liberty’s procedures and permissible grounds for appeal. If there is no appeal, the Notice of Hearing Outcome becomes the Final Notice of Outcome. Liberty strives to complete the Formal Resolution process within 60 to 90 days.

Appeals Process

Respondent or Complainant may appeal either findings or sanctions or both. Either may also appeal the dismissal of a Formal Complaint of Sexual Harassment. Grounds for appeals are limited to: (1) one or more procedural irregularities that may have affected the outcome or the dismissal, (2) new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination of responsibility or decision to dismiss was made and that could affect the outcome or dismissal, or (3) the decision-maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent involved, and that conflict of interest or bias affected the outcome or dismissal.

The Appeals Board will be comprised of three trained internal or external professionals appointed by the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator, along with an additional member to serve as its non-voting Chair. In no event will the Appeals Board be comprised of the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator or any Deputy Coordinator, Investigator, or Hearing Officer who was involved in the underlying matter. All members of the Appeals Board must be impartial and free from actual bias or conflict of interest.

To file an appeal, the appealing Complainant or Respondent must submit a written statement (which may be submitted by email) to the Investigator or the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator within five days of receiving the notice of outcome or dismissal. The statement should include the ground(s) on which the appeal is based and a supporting explanation. If no statement requesting appeal is received within five days, the outcome, sanction, or dismissal will be final and not subject to further appeal. If an appeal is lodged, the non-contesting Complainant or Respondent will be notified and given an opportunity to review and respond in writing to the appealing Complainant or Respondent's statement of appeal. Any response to the appeal must be received by the OEC within three days of notice of the appeal. If no timely response is received, the Appeals Board will draw no negative inference to the non-contesting Complainant or Respondent's failure to respond. The OEC will provide all the evidence related to the request for appeal, including the investigative report and the transcript of the hearing to the Appeals Board that will objectively evaluate the evidence and determine, based on the preponderance of the evidence, if any of the grounds for appeal as raised in the appeal statement have been met. The Appeals Board will typically be scheduled within ten days of the OEC's receipt of the appeals documents including the appeals statement and any response by the non-contesting Complainant or Respondent. The time frame for appeal may be adjusted for good cause.

No live testimony will be entertained by the Appeals Board who will make its determination based solely on the written documentation and recording of the hearing providing to it. The Appeals Board makes its determination by a majority decision. The Appeals Board will not reweigh the facts beyond what is necessary to reach its determination nor will it make its own determination of whether Prohibited Conduct occurred and then substitute it for the Hearing Officer or other decision-maker.

Notice of Outcome of the Appeal

The Appeals Board may take up to ten days to make its determination. The Complainant and Respondent will typically receive concurrent written notice of the outcome and the Appeals Board's rationale within ten days.

If the Appeals Board upholds the Hearing Officer or other decision-maker, the matter is considered resolved and will be closed. Appropriate Supportive Measures may remain in effect.

If the Appeals Board finds for the appealing Complainant or Respondent, the Board will send the matter to the Executive Director/Title IX Coordinator with instructions on how to fairly remedy the defect in the original decision. Such remedies may include one or more of the following: (1) vacating the dismissal of the Formal Complaint and resuming the Informal or Formal Resolution process, (2) overturning the outcome and/or one or more sanctions, (3) issuing new sanctions, (4) appointing a new Hearing Officer or Investigator, (5) remanding the matter to the same or a new Investigator or Hearing Officer for further investigation or hearing in order to cure the procedural defect, or (6) taking some other action that sufficiently remedies the defect in a way that is fair to Complainant and Respondent.

Sanctions

When a Respondent is ultimately found responsible for violating this Policy, the Investigator and/or the Appeals Board (each hereinafter referred to as a "sanctioning body") may impose one or more sanctions.

Sanctions may include any of the sanctions that are listed below, as well as any sanctions that are set forth in other applicable university policies or conduct codes. When an appeal has been submitted, any sanctions imposed by the Investigator or the hearing officer will be stayed pending final resolution of the matter, but interim measures may remain in effect. In keeping with the university's commitment to foster an environment that is safe, inclusive, and free from Prohibited Conduct, the sanctioning body has great latitude under this Policy to tailor sanctions for Prohibited Conduct to the facts and the circumstances of each violation of this Policy, to the impact of the Prohibited Conduct on the Complainant and the university community, and to the need to provide accountability for the Respondent. The imposition of sanctions is designed to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects while supporting the university's educational mission and legal obligations. Sanctions may include educational, restorative, rehabilitative, and punitive components. Some Prohibited Conduct, however, is so egregious in nature, harmful to the persons involved, or deleterious to the educational process that it requires a more severe sanction, such as non-return or administrative withdrawal of the Respondent. The sanctioning body may request information from the Complainant, the Respondent, and any other person who can provide information relevant to determination of an appropriate sanction. In determining an appropriate sanction, the sanctioning body will consider the following factors:

- the nature and level of violence of the conduct at issue, if any
- the impact of the conduct on the Complainant
- the impact or implications of the conduct on the community or the university
- prior misconduct by the Respondent, including the Respondent's relevant prior discipline history, both at the university and elsewhere (if available), including criminal convictions
- the degree to which the Respondent has accepted responsibility for the Prohibited Conduct
- whether the Respondent cooperated with the university's investigation
- maintenance of a safe and respectful environment conducive to learning
- protection of the university community
- any other mitigating, aggravating, or compelling circumstances useful in reaching a just and appropriate resolution in each matter

Sanctions may be imposed individually or in combination with other sanctions. For determinations of responsibility for Prohibited Conduct, the following sanctions may be imposed (as adopted from The Liberty Way):

1. Warning: A formal admonition, which appears in a student's disciplinary record at the university and may be disclosed by the university when the student consents in writing or as otherwise required by law.

2. Disciplinary Probation: A more serious admonition that may be assigned for a definite amount of time. Disciplinary Probation means that any future policy violation, of whatever kind, during that time, may be grounds for Non-Return, Non-Return with Conditions, or, in especially serious cases, administrative withdrawal from the university.

Disciplinary probation will be taken into account in judging the seriousness of any subsequent infraction, even if the probationary period has expired. Disciplinary probation appears in a student's disciplinary record at the university and may be disclosed by the university when the student consents in writing or as otherwise required by law.

3. Revocation or Withholding of Degree:

The university reserves the right to withdraw or withhold academic degrees. If the Prohibited Conduct is found to have occurred before graduation and during the time the student has applied to, or was enrolled at, the university, but a complaint had not been filed prior to graduation, and a sanction for the Prohibited Conduct would have included non-return or administrative withdrawal of the Respondent, the degree may be withdrawn. If alleged Prohibited Conduct with a potential sanction of non-return or administrative withdrawal occurs prior to a student graduating and is under investigation, the university may postpone the awarding of a degree pending the outcome of the investigation and imposition of appropriate disciplinary sanctions.

4. Points: Residential undergraduate students may be assigned up to 30 points for a violation of this Policy.

5. Non-Return: Student status at the university may be terminated for a minimum specified period of time. The student is permitted to complete the current academic semester and may re-enroll for classes after the specified period without need for re-admission. Relevant information remains on the student's disciplinary record at the university and may be disclosed by Liberty University when the student consents in writing or as otherwise required or permitted by law.

6. Non-Return with Conditions: Student status at the university may be terminated for a minimum specified period of time, with the Non-Return to continue until certain conditions listed by the sanctioning body have been fulfilled. The student is permitted to complete the current academic semester and may re-enroll for classes after the specified period without need for re-admission once the conditions have been fulfilled. These conditions may include, but are not limited to, restitution of damages, completion of a recovery program, community service, fine, and written apology(ies). Relevant information remains in the student's disciplinary record at the university and may be disclosed by the university when the student consents in writing or as otherwise required or permitted by law.

7. Administrative Withdrawal: This is an indefinite and immediate termination of the Respondent's student status at Liberty University with a specified period before which the student may not apply for re-admission or enroll in classes. Re-admission may or may not be conditioned upon fulfilling certain conditions listed by the sanctioning body. These conditions may include, but are not limited to, restitution of damages, completion of a recovery program, community service, fine, and written apology(ies). Relevant information remains in the student's disciplinary record at the university and may be disclosed by the university when the student consents in writing or as otherwise required or permitted by law.

8. Transcript Notation: While an investigation or resolution process is pending, Liberty may defer or withhold the awarding of a Respondent's degree and/or place a transcript notation on the Respondent's transcript in accordance with the law, the Title IX Policy, or any other Liberty policy. In compliance with Va. Code 23.1-900, Liberty will include a prominent notation on the academic transcript of any student who has been suspended or permanently dismissed from Liberty or who withdraws from the university while under investigation for any Prohibited Conduct that involved sexual violence as defined under Virginia law. The notation will closely follow the form required by the statute. Liberty will notify the student that any such suspension, dismissal, or withdrawal will be documented on the student's academic transcript. If the student is subsequently found not to have committed Prohibited Conduct, the notation will be promptly removed. If the notation remains on the student's transcript due to his or her suspension or dismissal, the notation will be eligible for removal when the student: (i) has completed the term and any conditions of the suspension or dismissal and (ii) has been determined by Liberty to be in good standing according to the university's code, rules, or set of standards governing such a determination. Removal of a transcript notation or a return to good standing does not mean that the student will be granted re-admission to Liberty. Additional information on the expungement process for transcript notation may be found in the Title IX Policy.

9. Community Service: Community service work for a church or nonprofit organization for a prescribed number of hours.

10. Fines: Penalty monetary fees payable to the university.

11. Restitution of Damages: Penalty monetary fees payable to the Complainant via the university.

12. University Housing: Removal from university housing or reassignment to a different location within university housing.

13. Restriction of Access to Spaces, Resources, and Activities: Restrictions placed on a student's access to space and/or resources or on a student's participation in activities so as to limit opportunities for contact between the Parties.

14. Written Apology: Submission of a written apology or apologies for the Prohibited Conduct and the harm it caused to the Complainant or other persons. The written apology or apologies will be submitted through the university, rather than directly to the recipient(s). This sanction will only be appropriate with the prior consent of the Complainant or other recipient(s).

15. Recovery Program: Required completion of a recovery program, such as a 12-Step Celebrate Recovery program or another similar program approved by the university.

16. Educational Programs: Required participation in educational programs prescribed by the university.

CONSIDERATIONS AND PRECAUTIONS FOLLOWING A SEXUAL ASSAULT

- Go to a safe place.
- Get prompt medical attention.
- For an emergency, call 911. This will allow responders to provide emergency medical or safety care.
- Call LUPD if the incident occurred on campus. LUPD will then contact the university's Title IX Office. If you prefer to initiate contact, the Title IX Office is available by phone at (434) 592-4999 and located in Green Hall, Suite 1830.
- Call local law enforcement if the incident occurred off campus. LUPD can also assist, if desired.
- Contact a friend or family member.
- Preserve all evidence to the extent possible. This includes, but is not limited to, doing the following:
 - Do not bathe or douche.
 - Do not urinate, if possible.
 - Do not eat, drink liquids, smoke, or brush teeth if oral contact took place.
 - Keep the clothes worn during the offense. If clothes are changed, place the clothes in a paper bag (evidence deteriorates in plastic).
 - Do not destroy the physical evidence that may be found in the vicinity of the crime. If the crime occurred in the victim's home, do not clean or straighten until the police have had an opportunity to collect evidence.
 - Save all text messages, instant messages, and other communications; social networking pages; pictures; logs; and copies of documents.
 - Write down all details remembered as soon as possible.
 - Tell someone all details remembered about the assault.

In Virginia, evidence may be collected even if the victim chooses to not make a report to law enforcement. Lynchburg General Hospital obtains the victim's name at check-in. If the victim wishes, the evidence kit collected at the hospital will be transferred to the Lynchburg Police Department's evidence room. The kit will be listed under the name of John Doe or Jane Doe with the time and date of the incident. It is important to follow the above list of considerations and precautions.

It is important to preserve evidence, which may be useful in a criminal or a university investigation, or in obtaining a protective order. If victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, healthcare providers can still treat injuries and address concerns of pregnancy and sexually transmitted disease. Additionally, please note:

- All sexual discrimination, sexual assault, and sexual harassment complaints are required by law to be addressed by Liberty University pursuant to Title IX, whether or not you wish to cooperate with an investigation or contact authorities. You may fill out the Information for Complainant and Respondent Form at Liberty.edu/TitleIX. If you have any questions regarding Title IX, please contact the Title IX Office at (434) 592-4999.
- You also have the right to pursue the remedies and processes set forth in Liberty University's Sexual Harassment and Interpersonal Violence Policy and in The Liberty Way with complete policies available at Liberty.edu/TitleIX. A copy will be made available to you and assistance offered upon request.
- Liberty University is required to notify your parents or guardians if you are a minor. If you are an adult, Liberty University will assist you in notifying your parents or guardians.
- Liberty University encourages you to report this incident to both the Liberty University Police Department and the local police (if applicable) and will assist you in doing so. LUPD can also assist you in applying for a Protective Directive, if desired.
- If you initially do not wish to report the matter to the LUPD or the local police or if you initially refused to notify your parents, you may change your mind at any time. If you do change your mind and desire university assistance, please contact the Office of Community Life at (434) 582-2320 and/or the Title IX Office at (434) 592-4999.
- If you choose not to contact law enforcement regarding this matter, it is still important to retain all evidence involved in the incident. Evidence can include, but is not limited to, physical evidence; electronic evidence such as emails, instant messaging, and screen shots; recordings; and written information.

- Liberty University will provide assistance in relocation to another on-campus residence hall in regard to this incident.
- Liberty University will provide assistance in making changes to your class schedule, if necessary. This is accomplished through the Title IX office at (434) 592-4999.
- Liberty University has trained counselors to assist you. You may reach them during normal business hours in the Student Counseling Services office at (434) 582-2651 or after hours, through LUPD, at (434) 592-3911.
- Liberty University has pastors and Life Skills Coordinators to assist you. During business hours, you can reach the LU Shepherd Office at (434) 592-5411.
- Liberty University's Student Advocate Office is an additional resource to you if you require additional assistance not previously covered. That office is located in DeMoss Hall, Room 1100 and can be reached at (434) 582-7200.
- Liberty University will advocate on behalf of students based upon their visa and immigration status.
- If you need help communicating with your professors, please let the Title IX Office know.
- Local medical facilities are available to you:

CENTRA Lynchburg General Hospital
 1901 Tate Springs Road
 Lynchburg, VA 24501
 (434) 200-3000

Central Virginia Family Physicians
 Green Hall, Suite 1895
 1971 University Blvd.
 Lynchburg, VA 24502
 (434) 200-6370

If you change your mind about any of the options you have chosen or are considering doing so, please contact the Office of Community Life at (434) 582-2320 or the Title IX Office at (434) 592-4999.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS

Liberty University uses comprehensive, intentional, strategic, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns to prevent and stop Prohibited Conduct, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Virginia does not define the terms “consent,” “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” or “sexual assault.” Stalking is “[a]ny person except a law-enforcement officer and a registered private investigator who on more than one occasion engages in conduct directed at another person with the intent to place, or when he knows or reasonably should know that the conduct places that other person in reasonable fear of death, criminal sexual assault, or bodily injury to that other person or to that other person’s family or household” (VA. CODE § 18.2-60.3).

Educational programming consists of offering primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees, as well as ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students and employees that:

- Identify Prohibited Conduct, including domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking as those terms are defined under the Clery Act
- Use definitions provided both by the Department of Education and by state law for Prohibited Conduct

- Define consent using the definition of consent found in the Title IX Policy
- Provide a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention such as those included in the Refuse to be a Victim program
- Provide information on risk reduction, meaning actions designed to decrease Prohibited Conduct and bystander inaction while increasing empowerment of potential victims and positive community consensus
- Provide an overview of information contained in the ASR in compliance with the Clery Act

2020 Education and Prevention

In 2020, Liberty University’s Title IX Office provided at least forty-nine trainings for students, faculty, and staff in Title IX and Violence Against Women Act (VAWA).

The training covers the purposes of Title IX and VAWA, definitions and examples of Prohibited Conduct and consent, reporting options (including mandatory reporting and confidential reporting options), and procedural steps involved in investigations and adjudications of complaints of Prohibited Conduct that are designed to stop Prohibited Conduct, address its effects, and prevent its reoccurrence. Awareness and prevention, including bystander intervention and risk reduction, were also integral parts of these trainings.

During student, faculty, and staff orientations, as well as Live Healthy Liberty, the Title IX Office provides information about Title IX, VAWA, and Prohibited Conduct. These mandatory events introduce students, faculty, and staff to the Executive Director of Title IX, provide contact information for the Title IX Office and ways to make a complaint or report of Prohibited Conduct, and discuss prevention, such as bystander intervention and risk reduction.

Throughout the year, the Title IX Office remains a constant presence on campus sponsoring informational tables, product and resource information giveaways, Domestic Violence and Dating Violence Awareness Months, RAINN events for sexual assault awareness, and special presentations regarding Title IX and VAWA.

Staff receive trainings via webinars, seminars, in-house training, and conferences to update their professional expertise on Title IX and VAWA compliance.

The following chart details events, dates, and information of specific target audiences that received training in 2020. Using a “train the trainer” model, the Dean of Students Office, LUPD, the Title IX Office, the Office of Community Life, Human Resources, and other campus partners (as well as SARP) assisted with trainings.

DEFINITIONS OF CLERY-REPORTABLE INCIDENTS (INCLUDING HATE CRIMES)

When not in conflict with the Clery Act, the standards and definitions of the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting program are used.

Murder and Nonnegligent Manslaughter: The willful (nonnegligent) killing of one human being by another (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Manslaughter by Negligence: The killing of another person through gross negligence (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Sex Offenses: Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

Rape (Sexual Assault): The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Sexual assault is not defined by state law, but rape is defined under Title 18.2, Article 7 titled "Criminal Sexual Assault." For educational and awareness purposes, we provide the VA statutory definition of rape, "sexual intercourse with a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, or causes a complaining witness whether or not his or her spouse, to engage in sexual intercourse with any other person and such act is accomplished (i) against the complaining witness's will, by force, threat, or intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person; or (ii) through the use of the complaining witness's mental incapacity or physical helplessness; or (iii) with a child under age 13 as the victim . . ." VA Code Ann. 18.2-61(A).

Other crimes defined as Criminal Sexual Assault under Article 7 are:

Carnal knowledge without the use of force of child between 13 and 15 years age, 18.2-63, carnal knowledge of an inmate, parolee, probationer, detainee, or pretrial or posttrial offender, 18.2-64.2,

Moreover, an attempt to commit the following: rape, forcible sodomy, inanimate or animate object sexual penetration, aggravated sexual battery, or sexual battery are criminal offenses under 18.2-67.5.

Also under Title 18.2-67.10, sexual abuse is defined as an act committed with the intent to sexually molest, arouse, or gratify any person, where: (1) the accused intentionally touches the complaining witness's intimate parts or material directly covering such intimate parts; (2) the accused forces the complaining witness to touch the accused, the complaining witness's own, or another person's intimate parts or material directly covering such intimate parts, (3) if the complaining witness is under the age of 13, the accused causes or assists the complaining witness to touch the accused, the complaining witness's own, or another person's intimate parts or material directly covering such intimate parts, or (4) the accused forces another person to touch the complaining witness's intimate parts or material directly covering such intimate parts.

Fondling (Sexual Assault): The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Incest (Sexual Assault): Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Statutory Rape (Sexual Assault): Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Robbery: Taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Burglary: Unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Motor Vehicle Theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc. (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1)).

Arrest: Persons processed by arrest, citation, or summons.

Referred for Disciplinary Action: The referral of any person to any official who initiates a disciplinary action of which a record is kept and which may result in the imposition of a sanction.

Illegal Weapons Possession: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons.

Drug Law Violations: The violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use.

Liquor Law Violations: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting: the manufacture, sale, transporting, furnishing, or possessing of intoxicating liquor; maintaining unlawful drinking places; bootlegging; operating a still; furnishing liquor to a minor or intemperate person; using a vehicle for illegal transportation of liquor; drinking on a train or public conveyance; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned. (Drunkenness and driving under the influence are not included in this definition.)

Hate Crimes: A criminal offense that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim's race, gender, gender identity, religion, disability, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or national origin.

Bias: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons.

Larceny-Theft: The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another person. (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1) if it is hate crime.)

Simple Assault: An unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration, or loss of consciousness. (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1) if it is a hate crime.)

Intimidation: To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack. (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1) if it is a hate crime.)

Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property: To willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it. (Clery-reportable under § 668.46(c)(1) if it is a hate crime.)

Domestic Violence: Virginia Definition (Va. Code 38.2-508): The term "domestic violence" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts by a current or former family member, household member as defined in VA. CODE § 16.1-228, person against whom the victim obtained a protective directive, or caretaker:

- Attempting to cause or causing or threatening another person physical harm, severe emotional distress, psychological trauma, rape, or sexual assault;
- Engaging in a course of conduct or repeatedly committing acts toward another person, including following the person without proper authority, under circumstances that place the person in reasonable fear of bodily injury or physical harm;
- Subjecting another person to false imprisonment; or
- Attempting to cause or causing damage to property so as to intimidate or attempt to control the behavior of another person.

VAWA Definition: The term "domestic violence" includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Dating Violence: Because Virginia does not define "dating violence" by statute, for educational and awareness purposes, we provide the VAWA definition.

VAWA Definition: Violence committed by a person:

- a. who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- b. where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 1. the length of the relationship
 2. the type of relationship
 3. the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Stalking: Virginia Definition: Any person except a law-enforcement officer and a registered private investigator who on more than one occasion engages in conduct directed at another person with the intent to place, or when he knows or reasonably should know that the conduct places that other person in reasonable fear of death, criminal sexual assault, or bodily injury to that other person or to that other person's family or household. (VA. CODE § 18.2-60.3)

VAWA Definition: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

- a. fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
- b. suffer substantial emotional distress

GENERAL DEFINITIONS

Campus Security Authority: (1) Any individual or individuals who have responsibility for campus security but who do not constitute a campus police department or a campus security department. (2) Any individual or organization specified in an institution's statement of campus security policy as an individual or organization to which students and employees should report criminal offenses. (3) An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline, and campus judicial proceedings. (4) A member of the campus police department or a campus security department of an institution.

On-Campus: Any building or property owned or controlled by the university within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the university in direct support of, or in any manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls. Additionally, any building or property reasonably contiguous that is owned by the university, but controlled by another, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes.

Non-Campus: Any off-campus building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the university. Any off-campus building or property owned or controlled by the university that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the university's educational purpose and is frequently used by students.

Public Property: Any public property within the campus, immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

Residential Facilities: Any university-owned building on campus that serves as a residence for students.

LUPD: Liberty University Police Department.

Local Police: Police agencies that have authority in the areas surrounding the campus or on campus when necessary. These agencies include, but are not limited to: Lynchburg Police Department; Bedford County Sheriff's Office; Campbell County Sheriff's Office; Amherst County Sheriff's Office; Virginia State Police.

Arrests: The physical arrest or issuing of a citation to a person accused of violating the law.

Referred for Disciplinary Action: The referral of a student who has violated law to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

Property Damage: The estimated value of the loss of the structure and contents, in terms of the cost of replacement in like kind and quantity. This estimate should include contents damaged by fire and related damages caused by smoke, water, and overhaul; however, it does not include indirect loss, such as business interruption.

Unfounded: A complaint that is determined through police investigation to be false or baseless. In other words, no crime has occurred.

Hate Crimes: A criminal offense that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim's race, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, disability, or national origin. Hate crimes are reported for the following crimes: Murder, Nonnegligent Manslaughter, Manslaughter by Negligence, Rape, Fondling, Incest, Statutory Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Motor Vehicle Theft, Arson, Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property.

Fire: Any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner. For HEA purposes, there are three categories of fire:

Unintentional Fire: A fire that does not involve an intentional human act to ignite or spread fire into an area where the fire should not be.

Intentional Fire: A fire that is ignited, or that results from a deliberate action, in circumstances where the person knows there should not be a fire.

Undetermined Fire: A fire in which the cause cannot be determined.

GUIDANCE ON UNIVERSITY-SPONSORED TRIPS

Liberty University is also required to obtain crime statistics for locations where university-sponsored groups that are deemed to be under university control either stay more than one night in the particular location or stay one night in the particular location in recurring years.

Every local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over such locations has received a letter requesting the crime statistics required by the Clery Act. The letters are customized to meet the needs of each trip. Electronic and/or hard copies of the letters are on file at the Office of Equity & Compliance headquarters.

CRIME STATISTICS

Reportable crimes, as defined by the Campus Security Act of 1990 (Clery Act), as amended, are presented in tabular form below. Information about other crimes committed within Clery jurisdiction for the university is also available upon request from LUPD. The annual disclosure of campus crime statistics is prepared by LUPD in conjunction with other university offices and departments, as well as other law enforcement agencies. Having an internal, certified, full-service law enforcement agency allows the university to accurately compile and distribute these statistics. This report is made public through the LUPD website, as well as through links on the university's web pages for the Dean of Students Office, Title IX Office, Financial Aid Office, and University Consumer Information. The crime statistics for Liberty University, including university-sponsored trips, required by the Clery Act for the last three years are as follows.

Hate Crimes

There was one hate crime in 2018 of simple assault characterized as ethnicity/national origin bias.
 There were no hate crimes in 2019.
 There were no hate crimes in 2020.

Revised Data for 2018 and 2019

In 2018, the following changes were made:

- We increased the number of Fondling incidents from 4 to 6.
- We increased the number of Domestic Violence incidents from 1 to 2.
- We increased the number of Dating Violence incidents from 1 to 2.
- We increased the number of Stalking incidents from 5 to 21.

In 2019, the following changes were made:

- We increased the number of Rape incidents from 1 to 3.
- We increased the number of Fondling incidents from 6 to 10.
- We decreased the number of Dating Violence incidents from 7 to 5.

ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORT

All Liberty University residence halls are protected by fire detection and alarm systems, which are centrally monitored 24 hours per day, seven days per week, and 365 days per year. All fire safety systems and equipment are strictly maintained and tested in accordance with applicable national standards.

All on-campus residents, including those with special needs, receive intensive and comprehensive fire safety training at the beginning of each semester. Training on fire and life safety is also provided to all residential advisors, area coordinators, building managers, and housekeeping staff. A quality control program that covers emergency and evacuation procedures is reviewed regularly with residents and staff of each respective residence hall. Fire drills are conducted quarterly in every occupied residence hall each calendar year. Thus, in 2020, there were four (4) fire drills per residence hall.

Additional fire and safety information can be found in the Liberty University On-Campus Living Guide.

- Included in that guide are rules, regulations, and policies including the prohibition of smoking and vaping, open flames, electrical space heaters, and certain electrical appliances. The full guide may be seen at Liberty.edu/OnCampusLivingGuide.

LUPD is responsible for the documentation, investigation, and notification of fire safety policies, logs, reports (including the annual Clery report), and statistics. LUPD monitors the status of all fire detection and fire suppression systems in residence halls. If a fire has occurred or is occurring, it should be reported immediately to the Liberty University Police Dispatch Center by calling (434) 592-3911.

Moreover, Liberty University maintains a prioritized list of projects to upgrade any older fire systems, to enhance the capabilities of existing systems, and to install new fire safety systems in existing buildings to ensure ongoing protection.

Fire Log

Residential fire statistics are derived from the university's Fire Log. The Fire Log includes: building, time and date, location, cause, number of injuries, number of deaths, and value of damaged property.

Fire-Related Definitions

Fire: According to the Higher Education Act, a fire is defined as any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.

Cause Of Fire: The factor or factors that give rise to a fire. The causal factor may be, but is not limited to, the result of an unintentional or intentional action, mechanical failure, or act of nature.

Unintentional Fire: A fire that does not involve an intentional human act to ignite or spread fire into an area where the fire should not be.

Intentional Fire: A fire that is ignited, or that results from a deliberate action, in circumstances where the person knows there should not be a fire.

Undetermined Fire: A fire in which the cause cannot be determined.

Fire-Related Injury: Any instance in which a person is injured as a result of a fire, including an injury sustained from a natural or accidental cause, while involved in fire control, attempting rescue, or escaping from the dangers of fire. The term "person" may include students, employees, visitors, firefighters, or any other individual.

Fire-Related Death: Any instance in which a person is killed as a result of a fire, including death resulting from a natural or accidental cause while involved in fire control, attempting rescue, or escaping from the dangers of fire; or dies within one year of injuries sustained as a result of the fire.

Value Of Property Damage: The estimated value of the loss of the structure and contents, in terms of the cost of replacement in like kind and quantity. This estimate should include contents damaged by fire and related damages caused by smoke, water, and overhaul; however, it does not include indirect loss, such as business interruption.

Fire Safety System: Any mechanism or system related to the detection of a fire, the warning resulting from a fire, or the control of a fire. This may include sprinkler systems or other fire extinguishing systems, fire detection devices, stand-alone smoke alarms, devices that alert one to the presence of a fire, such as horns, bells, or strobe lights; smoke control and reduction mechanisms; and fire doors and walls that reduce the spread of a fire.

Fire Drill Procedures

For the health and safety of all members of the community, students are expected to comply with all fire and safety regulations as required by the university and by applicable local, state, and federal law.

When an alarm sounds, each person is required to exit the building and to move at least 100 feet from the building once outside. Public Safety and/or other authorized university officials will give further instruction. No student is permitted to reenter the building until instructed to do so by a staff member. Planned fire drills are conducted twice a semester by the Resident Director, in coordination with LUPD, to give residents an opportunity to practice and learn safe exit procedures. Each resident student is encouraged to keep an emergency kit consisting of shoes, another garment, a towel, and a flashlight, and to bring these items during an emergency exit. Students should also remember to take their keys when they exit the building.

If a student is a heavy sleeper or has special medical circumstances that may prevent him or her from hearing an alarm or from exiting the building in a timely manner, it is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for assistance. Students are discouraged from wearing ear plugs or doing anything that may hinder their ability to respond to a fire alarm.

Students are responsible for understanding the emergency exit process in case of a fire. Students are to:

- Exit their rooms and close the door behind them.
- Use the nearest exit to vacate the building and never use the elevator.
- Clear their building by at least 100 feet.

Failure to immediately evacuate a building when the alarm sounds, tampering with fire safety equipment, causing a false alarm, or reporting a false fire may result in safety violation charges, fine, and disciplinary action by the university. Fire and life safety are of paramount importance within the residence halls. The actions of one student can affect the life and property of other students in the community. For this reason, students should be aware of their actions and observe health, fire, and life safety policies.

All fire safety systems and equipment are routinely checked by the university and must pass fire code safety inspections. Please report any fire safety equipment problems (including missing equipment) immediately to Field Operations by submitting a Work Order and telling a Resident Assistant.

All fires must be reported to LUPD for the purpose of recording the statistic in the Annual Fire Report.

Fire Alarm and Suppression Systems

All on-campus residence halls are equipped with both automatic and manually-operated fire alarm notification devices (pull stations). In addition, the resident housing facilities also have automatic fire suppression systems. Each suppression or sprinkler system is a wet system and is charged at all times. The fire alarm systems in all on-campus residence facilities consist of horns and strobe lights alerting residents to an alarm and are also remotely monitored by the Lynchburg Fire Department and LUPD. All fire alarm systems contain emergency backup batteries to ensure operation during a power outage, and most facilities also have emergency generators designed to automatically activate if there is a power outage. The backup batteries and generators will operate life safety systems, including fire safety equipment and emergency exit lighting.

Regular inspections are conducted by LUPD and other university staff who report fire hazards in residence halls and facilitate prompt resolution. Every room in every residence hall has a smoke detector, and, when activated, its connection to Lynchburg Fire Department and LUPD allows for an automatic response.

Fire Protection System

The fire alarm systems in all campus buildings are manufactured by Fike. All of the detection devices are addressable devices, meaning that they pinpoint the exact device that has been activated. With each activation, the system reports to LUPD the precise location on a building layout drawing with its status flashing so LUPD can promptly respond. The Fire Protection Systems within the various residence halls at Liberty University are shown in the following chart, which is followed by charts detailing the statistics for such buildings for the past three years. Specific locations of each building may be seen at <https://www.liberty.edu/police/Campus-Maps/>.
