BIB-100

2023 05/01/2023 to 04/30/2024 Modified 03/28/2023

Course Description

During this course, the student will explore important people in the Bible and what they can learn from them. They will also explore stories and verses in the Bible that teach them how to live their life for Jesus Christ. Students will be introduced to worship. At the end of each lesson, the student will receive a prayer suggestion that teaches the student how to talk with God.

Rationale

The student will learn, through exploring the Bible, how God loves us and wants us to share His love with others. By learning more about Jesus Christ, the student will know how to answer questions about their faith. They will also learn how to communicate with God. Students will learn how to pray and how it is important for spiritual growth.

Course Learning Outcomes

- A. The student will develop an understanding of God's Word.
- B. The student will use the Bible as a practical resource for living.
- C. The student will understand and discuss the importance of Bible study and memorization for godliness.
- D. The student will develop an understanding of the character of God.
- E. The student will discuss several doctrinal aspects.
- F. The student will view Christ as the perfect example for living.
- G. The student will read and study Bible stories, events, and people in history to learn and apply Biblical concepts and commands to his or her life.
- H. The student will apply Bible verses and acts of service to demonstrate ministry in real-life situations.

Course Policies

Types of Assessments

To simplify and clearly identify which policies apply to which assessment, each assessment has been categorized into one of four categories: Lesson, Assignment, Quiz, or Test. Each applicable item on the course Modules page has been designated with an identifier chosen from among these categories. Thus, a Quiz on the American Revolution may be designated by the title, "1.2.W Quiz: The American Revolution."

- Lesson: Any item on the Modules page designated as a "Lesson"

These include instructional content and sometimes an assessment of that content. Typically, a Lesson will be the day-to-day work that a student completes.

- Assignment: Any item on the Modules page designated as an "Assignment"

Typical examples of Assignments include, but are not limited to, papers, book reports, projects, labs, and speeches. Assignments are usually something that the student should do his or her best work on the first time.

- Quiz: Any item on the Modules page designated as a "Quiz"

This usually takes the form of a traditional assessment where the student will answer questions to demonstrate knowledge of the subject. Quizzes cover a smaller amount of material than Tests.

- Test: Any item on the Modules page designated as a "Test"

This usually takes the form of a traditional assessment where the student will answer questions to demonstrate knowledge of the subject. Tests cover a larger amount of material than Quizzes.

Materials Selection Policy

Ember curates educational materials that are consistent with the school's philosophy; however, the fallen human condition depicted in literature (as in Scripture itself) is not always pleasant. Valuable works sometimes have objectionable or profane elements. Good books provide four (4) recognized values.

- They build godly attitudes and character traits.
- They deepen our social and cultural awareness.
- They strengthen our use of written language.
- They provide a lifelong source of enjoyment and relaxation.

In order to instill these values in students and fulfill the stated objectives of the school, all Ember students are expected to read and study good books on a regular basis. Recognizing that materials designed for one level may not be appropriate for another, three (3) levels of criteria are applied:

- Elementary materials must contain no objectionable material,
- Objectionable elements in sixth through eighth-grade materials must be limited and must serve a specific educational purpose, and
- Objectionable content may be included in high school materials but must be outweighed by positive literary, curricular, and/or Christian values.

The curriculum department has approved required educational materials for students.

Resubmission Policy

Students are expected to submit their best work on the first submission for every Lesson, Assignment, Quiz, and Test. However, resubmissions may be permitted in the following circumstances:

- Lesson: Students are automatically permitted two attempts on a lesson. Students may freely resubmit for their first two attempts without the need for teacher approval.

If a student feels that he or she deserves a resubmission on a Lesson, Assignment, Quiz, or Test due to a technical issue such as a computer malfunction, the student should message his or her teacher to make the request. With Ember, the teacher may be a physical school teacher or the student's parent/guardian. The teacher can give another attempt from his or her Canvas account. For more information on how to do this, please review the Ember orientation course.
