

LIBERTY UNIVERSITY

OFFICE of EQUAL RIGHTS & TITLE IX

SUPPORTIVE MEASURES RESOURCE

One mission of the Office of Equal Rights & Title IX (ERT) is to provide support and resources to students, staff, and faculty. Supportive Measures are designed to restore and preserve access to your education and are available to both Complainants and Respondents. Please see the list below and the resources on the back to learn more about the Supportive Measures available to you.

SUPPORTIVE MEASURES INCLUDE:*

- Extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments
- Modifications of work or class schedules
- Changes in work or housing locations
- Leave of absence
- Safety planning options, which may include the LU Safe Ride Program (LUPD)
- No Contact Directives (NCD)
- Confidential advocate services
- Counseling and health services
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of campus

This is not an exhaustive list of Supportive Measures; other Measures may be arranged by the university (to the extent reasonably available).*

QUICK FACTS

- Supportive Measures can be provided even if you do not file a complaint or need an investigation.
- Support is available to all parties involved (Complainant and Respondent).
- Measures can be temporary or longer lasting, depending on the circumstance.
- Support is available regardless of where an incident occurred (on or off campus).
- Liberty University will not pursue disciplinary action against individuals requesting Supportive Measures.
- Supportive Measures are kept confidential to the extent practicable.

The ERT will maintain the privacy of Supportive Measures to the extent possible and will promptly address any violation of a Supportive Measure. Supportive Measures may remain in place permanently or for extended periods of time if appropriate. They are not designed to be punitive or overly burdensome to the parties. Should you wish to seek Supportive Measures, please contact the ERT. Official Supportive Measure requests must be facilitated by the ERT.

Please contact the ERT for more information on Supportive Measures and resources available to you.
